Well, vacation is over now 'till Christmas. Hope each of you enjoyed your time out of the mill. I won't say off from work for a great many of you were like us, not off from work, just out of the mill. A great deal of home improvements went on and some just did little odd jobs they'd been putting off for a while. We're indeed grateful that all of you had a safe holiday and no faces were missing when we came back to work. Some of our folks did a bit of traveling, some near and some far and some had visitors.
