

Old Timers Club Welcomes New Members

Sixteen new members were welcomed into the Clinton Mills "Old Timers Club" at its annual meeting held in the Greenville Dining Hall at Presbyterian College Sunday, December 1. The club is composed of 199 active and retired employees who have been continuously associated with the company 25 or more years.

Company President Robert M. Vance presented engraved gold watches and diamond-set jewelry awards to the new members at the 1 p.m. buffet luncheon. He also presented 2 members with 40 Years Plus pins.

D. H. Roberts was master of ceremonies for the occasion, attended by 350 members and guests. Entertainment was by The Bellingers of Calvary Baptist Church.

Incoming members, left to right, Fred Galloway, Ethel McLendon, Rufus Handback, B. F. Harvey, Ruby Cook, Harold Hairston, Arzo Ivester, Lizzie Hawkins, George Gossett, C. R. Kuykendall (40 yrs.), Aline Lanford, F. J. Carnes, Charles Cobb (40 yrs.), H. C. English, and President Robert M. Vance.

The bountiful buffet tables were graced with Roast Turkey with Cranberry Sauce, Rice, Dressing, Giblet Gravy, Baked Ham with Raisin Sauce, Macaroni and Cheese Pie, Candied Yams, Green Beans, Pickled Rosebud Beets, Buttered Whole Kernel Corn, Mixed Fruit Salad, Tossed Salad with French Dressing, Hot Rolls and Butter, Cherry Tarts and Fruit Cake, Iced Tea and Coffee.

W
E
L
C
O
M
E

Entertainment By The Bellingers — The Calvary Baptist Church Handbell Choir directed by Mrs. Eva Land, left, played several Christmas selections for the gatherings' pleasure following lunch. Front row, left to right, Donna Lee and Terisa Foster; second row, Mrs. Land, Jean Nelson, Lynn McGee, Kathy Davenport, Martha King, Dominia Ward, Mrs. Frank Lee; third row, Steve Brown, Kathy Ficklin, Kathy Foster, Lisa Franklin, Debbie Bagwell, and Keith Cannon.

Two Complete 40 - Year Records

19

68

Kuykendall

Cobb

Two Lydia Plant employees were presented 40-years diamond service awards by President Robert M. Vance. C. R. Kuykendall, Card Grinder, and Charles Cobb, Spooler Fixer, have been continuously employed in the Lydia Plant since 1927. 40 Years Plus, active and retired employees, now totals 27.

