

NEW DISPLAY CASE

This handsome display case in the Clinton Mills office has been filled with many end products which use Clinton Mills Superior Quality Fabrics.

The case has three divisions: Apparel, Industrial, and Household. Space does not permit displaying each end product using our fabrics, but a good idea of what becomes of the fabric is well illustrated in the display area.

Iris Hughes Marries Mr. Smith

Miss Iris Lavell Hughes became the bride of Mr. Carroll Eugene Smith in a double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock Sunday, November 30, at Calvary Baptist Church in Clinton. A reception was given by the bride's parents in the church social hall.

The bride is the daughter of #1 Weave Overseer and Mrs. James Herbert Hughes of 401 Francis Street, Clinton. The groom is the son of Mrs. Carl Telford Smith and the late Mr. Smith of Route 1, Mountville.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of nylon organza and chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted organza bodice was designed with a Victorian neckline and long sleeves with lace cuffs. Appliques of chantilly motifs centered with seed pearls trimmed the front and neckline with small covered buttons down the back. The bell shaped skirt of chantilly lace was bordered with a tier of organza. The fingertip bouffant illusion veil was attached to a headdress of organza and lace petals with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible given her by the YWA, topped with yellow rose buds.

was banded with satin and front bow and the bell skirt was of antique gold crepe. A watteau panel of satin formed a train with large flat bow at the high waist. They carried long stemmed bronze chrysanthemums. The flower girl was dressed similar to the other attendants and carried a nosegay of bronze pom poms.

Attending the bridegroom was his twin, Harold L. Smith, of Mountville, as best man. Ushers were John Telford Smith and Carl Bruce Smith, nephews of the groom, of Mountville, Robert S. Garrett and William E. Jacks, Jr. of Mountville and Wayne D. McCullough of Kinards.

Mrs. Stanley W. Bryant, of Greenville, was matron of honor. Brdesmaids were Mrs. James V. Sexton, cousin of the bride, of Greenwood, Miss Ann Smith, niece of the groom, of Mountville, and Miss Anne Meadors of Clinton. Miss Terri Hughes, niece of the bride, of Gray Court, served as flower girl.

The attendants wore formal gowns in antique gold featuring a bodice of crushed velvet with a scooped neckline and dior sleeves. The empire waist

Reverend James T. Hughes, the bride's brother, administered the vows with Reverend J. W. Spllers assisting. Music was provided by Mrs. Frank Lee, organist and Miss Claire Duncan, soloist.

Mrs. Smith is receptionist for Clinton Mills - Bailey Plant in Clinton and Mr. Smith is employed with Smith Motor Company in Laurens.

After a wedding trip to Florida the couple will be at home at Route 1, Mountville.

Our Children

Tina Denice Deadwyler is the cute daughter of John and Peggy Deadwyler. Frank and Ruby Deadwyler is her grandparents.

James Moore, age 4, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Simmons. Mr. Simmons is employed in #1 Carding.

Ronnie Wicker, age 3, is also the handsome grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Simmons.

PC Students Tour Bailey Plant

Approximately 30 Presbyterian College students majoring in Business Administration toured Clinton Mills Bailey Plant recently. L to r Jean Cummings, John Oswalt, Bob Thrower, and Ann Harwell receive information from Bailey Spinning Overseer Joe Nelson concerning the operation of spinning equipment in yarn manufacturing.

Marlynn and Marvin Nelson, Jr., are the cute grandchildren of Joe R. Nelson, Lydia watchman. Their mother, Ruth Nelson, is employed at M. S. Bailey and Son's Bank. Marlynn is 9 years old and her brother is 6.

Tammie Simmons, 1, is the cute granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Simmons.

Christmas greetings