

STACK OF PAKS

(Above) Bessie Queen, and Louise Webb, center, are shown receiving their Vacation Paks from Plant No. 1 Weaving Assistant Overseer James R. Cole.

(Upper right) Betty McElhannon, left, and Arthur Alexander, r, both Lydia Spinning employees, examine their Vacation Paks as they are distributed.

(Right) Mansel Irby, l, and Jesse Thompson, r, No 2 Cloth Room employees, discuss their vacation gifts prior to the July 4 vacation.

Employees Report Holidays More FunPAKED With 75th Year Gift

Little things meant a lot of time saved, many Clinton Mills employees reported after travelling with the aid of the nifty VACATION PAKS which were filled with personal care items and non-prescription medicines.

The PAKS were distributed to more than 1700 employees as a memento of Clinton Mills 75th Anniversary.

To the dad who forgot his tooth brush and tooth paste, the one packed in the VACATION PAK proved to be a time saver.

And the employee who developed a headache during the first few miles of travel, found instant relief with the headache medicine enclosed.

One vacationer reported using his medicine for relieving sore muscles quite frequently as he walked and visited many of the historical points on interest on his trip.

Others found the grooming materials quite handy as they enjoyed the beaches and swimming areas.

"I just wouldn't think about having all of these little things with me," said one employee. "You just don't know what you're going to need."

I'm not against political jokes. I just think we shouldn't elect them to public office.

A big disappointment in life is the discovery that the man who writes the finance company ads isn't the one who makes the loans.

SIGN in a music store: "Gone Chopin—back at two."

Annette Miller

Annette Miller is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Miller. Tommy is a picker tender at the Bailey Plant. Annette is six months old.

