

Larry Lawson's Jeep proved very valuable in handling Plant No. 1 employees to and from work.

Some were happy to see the snow begin to melt.

Some employees needed a little assistance in arriving safely.

Many found the snow pleasant despite difficulties getting to and from work.

Few found time to play in snow before and after work.

Second Snowfall- Plants Operated As Scheduled

Numerous employees found they had to leave home a little earlier to be at work on time.
