

Long Service Employees Recognized

Pearl Wyatt joined the ranks of over 400 active and retired Clinton Mills employees who have gained membership into the Old Timers Club by completing 25 or more continuous years of service to the company. Pearl joined the company March 17, 1955. She is a weaver. Left to right are Assistant Weaving Superintendent Jerry Satterfield, Pearl Wyatt, Superintendent Joe Littlefield, and Plant Manager Glenn Gaskins.

Paul Ward, a Lydia Loom Technician, completed a quarter century service to Clinton Mills Lydia Plant April 21. Paul received his watch during brief ceremonies in Plant Manager Glenn Gaskins' office. Left to right are Assistant Weaving Superintendent Ronnie Pace, Gaskins, Ward, and Superintendent Joe Littlefield.

Plant No. 1 Superintendent Furman Humphries (right) received his Old Timers' watch from Plant Manager Sam Williams. Humphries has been with the Company since May 27, 1955.

Dorothy Garrett selected a Bulova mantle clock as her 25 year service award from the company. A weaver in Plant No. 2, Dorothy has been employed since April 27, 1955. Left to right are Weaving Superintendent Joe Aiton and Assistant General Superintendent Steve Lanford making the presentation. Dorothy is a weaver.

"We appreciate your loyalty and dedication," said Plant No. 2 Manager Joe Nelson (right) as he presented Marshall Samples (center) his 40 year service award. Spinning Superintendent Mac George noted that Samples had been with the Company since May 18, 1940. Samples is a Doffer.

Marcell Barker completed 40 years of continuous service to the Company on May 25. He is shown with Plant No. 1 Manager, Sam Williams (left), and Weaving Superintendent Joe McCall. Marcell is a No. 1 Loom Technician. Williams and McCall expressed their appreciation to Barker for his loyalty and dedication to the Company.