Fifty thousand intelligent, law-abiding, industrious immigrants, distributed in the Carolinas and Georgia each year for ten years, will solve problems and make this section better morally, and vastly more wealthy—The State.

In the United States Senate, the brilliant Carmack, of Tennessee, has been succeeded by Fiddling Bob Taylor; Berry has given way to Jeff Davis, the pugilist governor, of Arkansas; while Beckham, of Kentucky, has succeeded the venerable Blackburn; in Colorado Patterson has been replaced by Guginhein; and it is likely that Vadaman will succeed Senator Money. The Senate is in a decline.

It has not yet been determined where the veterans will hold their State reunion this year. The Columbia chamber of commerce and camp Hampton, U. C. V., have extended an invitation, which is heartily seconded by the citizens of the capital city, to hold the reunion in Columbia. We move that the invitation be accepted. Columbia always does the grand when the vets meet there.

The attorney general of the U. S. has rendered an opinion reversing Solicitor Earle's ruling, which Secretary Strauss approved, bearing on the legality of the South Carolina authorities in bringing to the U. S. a ship load of immigrants for work in various branches of industry in the State. The attorney general holds in effect that it is unlawful for a State government to pay the passage of intending immigrants or to assist immigration otherwise than by advertisements.

Hon. Logan E. Bleckley, for many years Chief Justice of Georgia Supreme Court, died at Clarkeville, Ga., Wednesday, aged 70 years.

E. M. Brayton, of Columbia, for years internal revenue collector by appointment of a Republican administration, died suddenly of heart disease Thursday morning, in his 64th year.

The Hargis Case.

Court House Filled with Bayonets--When Ready for Trial Change of Venue Announced.

Lexington, Ky., Mar. 5.—Forty men of Company A. Second infantry of Kentucky, under command of Adjutant General Henry Lawrence and Captain W. C. Longmire, arrived here on a special train today and went to Jackson, Breathitt county, to remain there during the trial of Judge James Hargis on a charge of assassination of Dr. R. D. Cox.

The soldiers will report to Special Judge Carnes, who is trying the case, and the men will be placed in the court house. The soldiers accompanied Judge Carnes and Attorneys Young and Pollard, for the defense, to Jackson.

THE CASE TRANSFERRED.

Jackson, Ky., March 6.—Judge Carnes entered an order today directing that the case of the Commonwealth vs. James Hargis, Elbert Hargis, John Smith and John Abner be transferred to Elliott county, in the 32nd judicial district. The Commonwealth waived an exception to the order and so did the defendants.

The change of venue was granted on motion of the Commonwealth's attorney, while Attorney Young, for the defense, favored the action personally, but for the sake of his client wanted the trial held here. Judge Carnes said:

"In view of all the facts and what I know, I am convinced in my own mind of the state of lawlessness here and that this case should be changed from Breathitt county."

Elliott is totally inaccessible by telephone, telegraph or railroad, and its county seat, Sandy Hook, has less than 200 inhabitants.

Judge Carnes will leave for his home tonight. The militia will go with him.

Two States Storm-Swept.

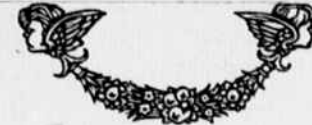

New Orleans, March 2.—Southern Mississippi and Louisiana have for two days experienced the worst storm of the winter, the disturbance manifesting itself in torrential rains, electrical displays and cyclonic winds. At least one death was caused by the storm in Mississippi and thousands of dollars damage has been done.
