In Memory of Little Jesse Bryan Bell.

Little Jesse Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bell, departed this life April 27th, 1907, aged 3 years and 5 months. It is hard to part with our loved one, but we pray God to reveal himself unto us as the God of all comfort in this our sad bereavement.

Asleep in Jesus to wake no more. We cannot hear your sweet voice, Jesse, till we meet on the other shore.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep, A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the hate of foes.

Farewell, dear son, farewell, Peaceful be thy silent rest; Slumber sweetly, God knows best When to call thee home to rest.

Farewell, dear son, farewell, We must say our last farewell 'Till we meet beyond the river, Happy there with thee to dwell.

Dear Jesse, he has left us, Left us, yes, forever more; But we hope to meet our loved one On the happy golden shore.

Then rest at home dear son And play the golden harp; Let your voice grow sweeter Like the music of the lark.

Why do we grieve, it cannot be long 'Till we cross to the golden shore, And sing the grand and beautiful songs With our loved one gone before.

A precious one from us is gone, A voice we loved is still, A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

—W. J. W.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. William Plot Roddey.

Mrs. William Plot Roddey was born Nov. 18, 1847, and died at her home in Fort Lawn, S. C., April 13th, 1907. The cause of her death was heart failure. She had been sick but a few days and her sudden death came as a terrible blow to her family and the community.

Mrs. Roddey united with the Methodist church in early life. The remains were laid to rest in the village cemetery at Fort Lawn Saturday afternoon, April 20th, in the presence of a large company of sorrowing relatives and friends.

The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. A. Fairy, assisted by Revs. J. H. Yarborough and J. J. Brown of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches, respectively.

Mrs. Roddey was in some respects a remarkable woman. In intelligence she was far above the average, having improved her time and opportunities in storing her mind with truth.

She was especially ambitious for her children, never satisfied with anything less than the very best she could do for them. Unlike some parents she confided in her children. Having diligently instructed them in childhood she trusted them in their youth. And they never betrayed her confidence. The influence of her life and her character may be seen today in the home.

Mrs. Roddey was the mother of twelve children and lived to see nine of them grown and members of the church. Besides her husband three sons and four daughters survive: Mrs. Ada Rape, Melvin Roddey and Misses Lilly and Van Etta Roddey of Fort Lawn; Mrs. Bell of Lancaster county, Jesse Roddey of Columbia and Ernest Roddey of Lancaster.

Mrs. Roddey was a woman of unusual business tact. For years she successfully managed the Roddey hotel and will be greatly missed by the travelling public generally. Cheerful in disposition and sanguine in temperament she proved a devoted wife and mother.

While her death is a decided loss to the community it is in the home she will be most missed.

A good, a true woman has gone from among us and we are sad.

W. A. Fairy.
