

The Lancaster News (SEMI-WEEKLY.)

Published Wednesdays and Saturdays at Lancaster, S. C., by The Lancaster Publishing Company.

CHAS. T. CONNORS, Editor A. J. CLARK, Business Manager

Entered as second-class matter Oct. 7th, 1896, at the postoffice at Lancaster, S. C., under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1909.

According to the Nashville American "a tariff which drives women to half hose is not a very gentlemanly robber."

"Do you eat, drink or wear clothes?" asks the Augusta Chronicle. "Speaking strictly for ourselves, we wear them," says the Houston Post.

Wonder if Emmanuel Wad, the famous pianist, who is delighting the music-lovers of Charleston this week, is any kin to the Tight Wads of Rock Hill.

If the Senate doesn't strike out of the Payne tariff bill the tax on hosiery many an old discarded pair of stockings will be overhauled, darned and put on duty again.

They are biting.—News and Courier. Fish or fleas?—Nashville American. Or red bugs?—Washington Post. Gallinippers, of course, in Charleston.

Wheel-barrow will be in big demand Saturday, May 1. Bill collectors will need 'em to haul their overflowing receipts for the many majestic hats sold this month.

The idea of little rock hill and smaller chester trying to pull the Southern Power Company's central offices out of Charlotte! Now watch out for some hot air artists to rear up on their hind legs and howl.

"Your regular session of sixty days was expensive and of little value to the people," says Governor Campbell in his call issued this week for another special session of the Texas legislature. There must be some former Tar Heels among the solons of the "Lone Star State."

The way one clergyman managed to make the hats come off in church, was to announce that elderly ladies were not expected to remove theirs.—Augusta Chronicle.

Another preacher whose salary should be raised.

It may be accepted as reasonably certain that the member of his Sunday School class who tried to black-hand Uncle Asa Candler was a regular drinker of his dope.—Augusta Herald.

And it may also be accepted as reasonably certain that that Atlanta youth was a street loafer and frequenter of places of questionable resort.

There's evidently no uniformity in the standards of justice in relation to the punishment of crime in the several states of the Union. In Missouri the other day a man was sent to jail for six months for stealing a postage stamp. About the same time a man in Indiana was given a ten months' sentence for stealing four bottles of whiskey. A man in South Carolina might swipe both the stamp and the liquor and his sentence wouldn't exceed thirty days.

At a congregational meeting in the First Presbyterian church last Sunday morning, a resolution was adopted providing for an increase in the salary of Rev. E. E. Gillespie, the pastor, from $1,200 to $1,500 per annum.—Yorkville Enquirer.

That sounds good, doesn't it? It shows that the Yorkville Presbyterians appreciate the value of their pastor's able, faithful and laborious services. It is a lamentable fact that preachers, to be set a-king, are the poorest in the vast field of human endeavor, except, of course, editors. Now and then you may hear of a preacher's salary being increased, but who ever heard of an editor getting a "raise"?

Rev. O. J. Copeland, of Gainesville, Ga., has been called to the First church, Asheville, N. C. Bro. Copeland is a native of Anderson county, and was an esteemed pastor in this State for several years. He went from Atlanta to Gainesville, where he has done a fine work.—The Baptist Courier.

We don't know Mr. Copeland, but he has a mighty good Lancaster county name.

Rock Hill, Chester and other towns are pulling for the location of the central offices of the Southern Power company. It is stated and re-stated that the Southern Power company will certainly move its offices from Charlotte.—Yorkville Enquirer.

If the Southern Power company knows a good thing when it sees it, and we presume it does, it will move its central offices to Lancaster. This is not only the best town on earth, and is growing better and larger day by day, but its location is exactly suited for the Southern Power company's headquarters, being but a short distance, comparatively, from the company's immense power plants on the Catawba river.

Delightful Reception Given by Mr. and Mrs. Lingle of Creek section.

Mr. and Mrs. Van A. Lingle of the Creek section entertained a number of relatives and friends last Saturday night.

At eight o'clock the young ladies and young men marched down the hallway to the dining-room, where a bounteous supper was served of ice cream, cake, beer, etc. The table was beautifully decorated with large bowls of violets, roses, geraniums and orange blossoms.

The hall and parlor were tastefully decorated with snow white dogwood blossoms, ferns, and other blooming flowers.

After supper the young folks assembled around the fireside, where popcorn was eaten and games played.

Music was furnished by the Edison's Phonograph.

The occasion was enjoyed by one and all. Four of the young ladies spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Lingle one being from town and the other three from New Cut. A Participant.

It saves labor, health and money. Where the best food is required no other baking powder or leavening agent can take the place or do the work of Royal Baking Powder.

BRILLIANT FUNCTION.

The Grand Easter Ball and Banquet Given by the Lancaster German Club--The Visitors Present.

The Easter ball and banquet given Tuesday night by the Lancaster German Club was the largest and most brilliant social event of the season. The dance was at the Mackey opera house, and the many handsomely gowned young ladies and elegantly dressed gentlemen, as they "tipped the light fantastic toe," to the strains of entrancing music, presented a scene of rare grandeur. About sixty couples participated in the dance, among them being numerous invited guests from neighboring towns and cities. The exquisite music rendered on the occasion was furnished by the Johnson Orchestra, of Rock Hill.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock dancing was suspended and the club and its guests repaired to the Hotel Royal, where delicious refreshments were served, nearly one hundred persons partaking of the feast. At the conclusion of the banquet the happy young couples returned to the opera house and resumed the pleasures of the dance.

Among the visiting young ladies were: Misses Mary Frost, Marion Roddey, Madge Johnson, Minnie Wilson, Margaret Wilson, Lydia Millman, of Rock Hill; Miss Emma Bettis, of Trenton; Miss Laura Douglas, of Winnboro; Miss Mary Trone, of Maryland; Miss Mabel Lau, of Florida; Miss Lillie Massey, of Fort Mill; Miss Winnie Crawford, of Yorkville; Miss Louise Guy, of Lowryville; Misses Frances Lee, Williamson, Connie Fairley and Smith, of Monroe; Miss Susie McMichael, of Orangeburg; Miss Lida Richbourg, of Columbia; Miss Lynch, of Virginia; Miss Abbie Pinckney, of Charleston.

The visiting young men were as follows: Messrs. J. R. Cherry and A. M. Spong, of Charlotte; Messrs. William Wilson, A. F. Ruff, Jack Taylor, T. A. Crawford, Harry Crawford, Harry Wylie, Albert Friedheim, Peter Ihrie, Joseph McMurray, Averett, Daniel, Pat Wylie, of Rock Hill; Mr. D. A. Cauthen, of Richburg; Messrs. Jack Fairley, Fairley, Scales, Hough, of Monroe; Mr. H. B. Frieson, of Great Falls; Messrs. W. G. Desportes, Julian Arnette, of Winnboro; Mr. W. M. Barney, Columbia; W. A. Armithg and Montgomery, of Davidson; John T. Stevens, Fred C. Culvern, W. C. Twitty, of Kershaw.

The chaperons were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Witherspoon, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewman, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Witherspoon, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Heath, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McLure.

Pleasant Egg Hunt in Creek Section.

Mr. Editor: There was an Easter egg hunt at Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Estridge's, of the Creek section. There were about thirty little boys and girls present. They took a long walk up the road while the eggs were being hid by Misses Cora Stogner and Irene Graham. After coming back they hunted for about half an hour before finding all of the eggs. The evening was delightfully spent in playing games, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. They were dismissed by music and singing. A Participant.

Foley's Honey and Tar is a safeguard against serious results from spring colds, which inflame the lungs and develop into pneumonia. Avoid counterfeits by insisting upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar, which contains no harmful drugs. Funderburk Pharmacy, E. W. Hammond & Co., Heath Springs.

Downward Course

Fast Being Realized by Lancaster People.

A little backache at first. Daily increasing till the back is lame and weak. Urinary disorders quickly follow; Diabetes and finally Bright's disease. This is the downward course of kidney ill.

Don't take this course. Lancaster residents should profit by the following experience: E. W. Comer, 464 Hampton St., Rock Hill, S. C., says: "Several years ago I began to have spells of backache. A pain would strike me when I least expected it and often when walking on the street I was taken with a crick in my back, causing me to drop. For days afterwards I was unable to get about. Some time ago I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box. They relieved me and I have not had a severe attack since. Some times I feel a slight soreness across my loins but on such occasions I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they never fail to give me relief. I do not think there is a remedy in existence that is equal to them." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
