

JAILS ARE FILLED WITH SUFFRAGISTS

"General" Mrs. Drummond and Thirty Other Militant Suffragettes Sentenced to Fourteen Days in Prison.

London, Jan. 29.—"General" Mrs. Drummond and thirty other militant suffragettes will spend the next fourteen days in jail because of their determination to force David-Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, to receive them as a deputation in the house of commons last evening. All the prisoners declared in court after they were sentenced that they would immediately start a "hunger strike."

Mrs. Drummond complained that the police handled her roughly when she was arrested. She declared the patrolman had thrown her in the mud.

"It is now war to the knife," she told the magistrate, and continued: "You and Mr. Lloyd George have a lot of trouble ahead of you."

"You will have to do the dirty work, and you will have plenty of it."

The women all refused the option which was offered them of paying a fine instead of going to prison.

MANY RIOTS.

While a deputation, which the chancellor of the exchequer, David Lloyd-George, had refused to see until today was trying to force its way into parliament last night against an overwhelming force of police, and women were being arrested for resisting the officers, the other bands of women went through Whitehall breaking windows of the government offices, and through Cockspur street, where the great plate glass windows in the establishments of shipping companies were ruthlessly smashed.

The women also visited Oxford, Regent and other streets in the shopping district, where similar damage was done. Later, mail boxes were attacked, quantities of liquid being poured into them.

In the outlying suburbs, too, the suffragettes demanded property.

Thirty-one women were arrested in the vicinity of the parliament building, but were allowed out on bail after the house rose. Most of the police stations had one or more prisoners charged with destroying property.

The wildest excitement prevailed, and besides protecting property and arresting women engaged in window smashing, or who refused to move on when ordered the police had the greatest difficulty in protecting the women from an unruly crowd of youths who gathered and jostled every woman wearing suffragette colors.

In several cases the women were roughly handled. An attempt to duck four of them in the fountain in Trafalgar Square was frustrated by a police posse which had to ride through the crowd.

The entire deputation of thirty-one women who attempted to make their way into the house of commons to interview Chancellor Lloyd-George was arrested. The prisoners included Mrs. Drummond and Sylvia Pankhurst who marched in front. Before starting on their mission, the delegates listened to addresses by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and other leaders.

Mrs. Pankhurst said the withdrawal of the franchise bill, including the speaker's ruling, was a plot decided on long ago, and Premier Asquith was aware of it.

"The answer to this treachery," she said, "is militancy."

Sylvia Pankhurst declared their intention was to hold the speaker in the chair and leave Mr. Asquith on the bench and with this the deputation started. The police gave them safe escort as far as the entrance of parliament, when an inspector informed them that the chancellor of the exchequer would be unable to see them until morning.

Mrs. Drummond retorted: "This is tomfoolery. If you do not let us in there will be trouble."

At that the members of the deputation threw themselves at the police, who stood six deep across the entrance.

Dogmatic.

A small girl was drawing a picture "ouet of her head." "What are you drawing?" asked her mother.

"God," replied the child, simply.

"But, you can't draw God," protested the mother, "because you have never seen Him, and no one has ever seen Him, and no one knows what He is like."

The small child licked her pencil and put on another touch.

"They will know when I've finished it," she said.—Strand.

PAGE BILL TAKES PLACE OF LEVER'S

Vocational Education Bill Substituted in Senate—Ends Fight of Some Days.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The Page vocational education bill, authorizing maximum appropriations of over $24,000,000 for agricultural and trade educational work, was adopted by the senate today as a substitute for the Lever-Smith bill, which has passed the house. A fight extending over many days, in which both sides of the senate has been divided, ended when a motion by Senator Page to substitute his original for the Lever bill was carried by a vote of 31 to 30.

The measure then passed the senate and will go to the house and ultimately into a conference committee. The original house bill appropriated the maximum sum of approximately $3,500,000 for the establishment of extension departments in the state agricultural colleges through which instruction in agricultural and home economics would be carried into the homes of the farmers. The Page bill would establish courses of instruction in trades and industries, home economics and agriculture in the various public schools of secondary grade; provide for state agricultural schools, testing and plant breeding stations, the education of teachers and general extension work.

Senators Page and Hoke Smith became involved in a sharp controversy during the debate. Senator Page intimating that Senator Smith had given assurances that he would support Senator Page's bill in revised form. This Senator Smith denied. Senator Page finally withdrew an amended form of his bill, which included practically all of the house bill, and the senate then adopted the original Page bill. It is believed that as a result of the action of the senate today the agricultural education measure may remain in controversy between the two houses when the present session ends.

HEATH SPRING.

Special to The Lancaster News.

Heath Springs, Jan. 30.—The dinner prepared by Mrs. Dixon Ellis in celebration of her husband's birthday Wednesday was perfect in every feature, from the first course to the last, and was greatly enjoyed by the relatives and friends gathered there to partake of it.

Mrs. Sue Clark has moved into the home which she recently purchased of James A. Williams.

Perry Therrell left this week for Chesterfield Court House, where he has accepted the position of assistant cashier in the bank.

Mrs. Mary Horton and Miss Nannie Crenshaw are visiting Mrs. Dixon Ellis.

Mrs. Manly Croxton visited Mrs. Lillie Hinson and Mrs. C. E. Williams Wednesday.

James E. Caskey left Thursday for Kershaw. He becomes bookkeeper for the Kershaw Mercantile Company.

Miner Cauthen, of Columbia, was here to attend the funeral of his brother Thursday.

H. E. Williams and family are now occupying the house from which Elmer Bailey recently removed.

Miss Brinnie Small, who is attending school here, was called home Thursday on account of the illness of her mother.

Dr. W. S. Moore, W. T. Mobley, Hilliard Duncan, Lewis Robertson, O. W. Mackey, Truesdel Stover and others, are attending the Corn Show in the "Square Meal" town this week.

Robert Blackmon, who recently built the road from Rich Hill to Pleasant Hill, was in town Thursday.

Charles B. Cauthen, son of Lewis L. Cauthen, died at the home of his father, near Pleasant Hill, on Wednesday, the 29th inst., after several months of severe suffering. Mr. Cauthen was 31 years old, and was a member of the Baptist church at Heath Spring. He was never married. He is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters. His body was laid to rest Thursday afternoon in Salem cemetery, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Dr. Dyches and Rev. H. C. Mouzon.

Little Martha Blackmon, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blackmon, of Rich Hill, died Tuesday, aged nine months, after an illness of three weeks, and was buried at Rich Hill Baptist church the day following, Mr. Jack Hinson conducting the burial service.

Would Accept No Substitute.

"Why are you so late for school?"

"Cause father needed me."

"Wouldn't anyone else do?"

"No."

"Why not?"

"Cause he was beating me."—Judge.

HOBO CONVENTION IN NEW ORLEANS

Socialists and Labor Leaders Denounce Capitalists—A Near Sensation.

New Orleans, Jan. 29.—The convention of the International Brotherhood Welfare Association, otherwise "The National Hobo Convention," was formerly opened in this city this afternoon. President Jeff Davis presiding. Mayor Behrman was unable to attend, but sent a letter in which he stated that so long as law and order prevailed the delegates need not fear police interference.

Visitors were informed that any one who wished to address the convention was at liberty to do so and upon this announcement Isaac McBride, a Socialist, and a number of labor leaders of this city, usurped the floor for the rest of the afternoon session, practically all of the addresses being devoted to a denunciation of capitalists.

A near sensation was caused during the meeting by entrance of Jesus Wesley, who belongs to the "Brotherhood of Christ" and stated that he came from heaven. Wesley was clothed in loose, white garments and his blonde hair fell in long locks about his shoulders. The hoboes were so overwhelmed by the appearance of the man that they allowed him to talk for a few minutes. Wesley made an appeal to all hoboes to join his brotherhood.

In a "proclamation" issued to the newspapers of this city, President Jeff Davis gave warning that unless accurate proceedings of the convention are printed, press reporters would be excluded from all meetings. Davis said he would not tolerate efforts to ridicule the convention.

President Davis and H. H. Woodward, national organizer, gave out a statement in which they denounced the alleged attempt of James Eads Howe, the St. Louis millionaire hobo leader, to conduct the affairs of the association in a manner that would place the organization before the public as one upholding socialism and opposed to the Catholic religion.

A Bishop's Ready Wit.

The Church Family Newspaper says: "A good story is told of the late Bishop of Ripon, who, when addressing an open air meeting on one occasion, was interrupted by an atheist who asked him if he believed that Jonah was swallowed by a whale."

"When I go to heaven," said the bishop, "I'll ask J onah."

"But supposing," the other persisted, "that he is not there."

"Then you will have to ask him," was the retort. And the crowd laughed uproariously while the atheist slunk away abashed.—Baltimore American.

WORDS FROM HOME

Statements That May Be Investigated. Testimony of Lancaster Citizens.

When a Lancaster citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Lancaster resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

H. H. Horton, merchant, Elm St. Lancaster, says: "My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills has been so satisfactory that I do not hesitate to recommend them. My back ached as the result of disordered kidneys and I could not find relief until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Crawford Bros. Drug Store. This preparation restored me to good health."

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS

We clip the following from The Carolina Spartan, which affords food for thought as well as plant food:

What the state commissioner of agriculture does not know about plant food and soil improvement is not worth trying to find out. He has probed the depths of agricultural science and wrenched by main strength nature's secrets from her. Ask him; he knows it all. G. W. Harrelson, an intelligent farmer of Andrews, S. C., wrote a letter to him, asking for information which he and other intelligent farmers needed. He said:

"Dear Sir: Please give me the commercial value of nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash. Where can they be bought? Can I buy these things and mix my own fertilizer and save the fertilizer dealers' expense of mixing and a great saving in railroad freights? I am a small farmer. When I buy my fertilizer from the local dealer he charges me $32 to $40 per ton for C. S. meal and other fertilizers in proportion, and I can't stand it."

Either the commissioner was ignorant of the information desired, or else he did not wish to enlighten Mr. Harrelson. Instead of telling him the price of phosphoric acid, potash and nitrogen by the pound at any port of entry like Charleston or Savannah, he advises him to let all commercial fertilizer alone and use ground limestone, ground phosphate rock and leguminous crops. That is certainly giving Mr. Harrelson ground stone when he earnestly asks for bread. If such a question had been propounded to a real farmer he would have answered it and not dodged around it.

We have not seen the price of plant food as fixed by the fertilizer dealers for this year. The last we noticed particularly put the price of phosphoric acid at 4½ cents; potash, 4 cents, and nitrogen at about 14 cents. Not being paid a high salary for giving out such information, the figures for this year are not at hand. At the above prices a ton of cotton seed meal, best quality, would contain plant food worth $20.40. Add the freight from Charleston to your depot and you will have the real value. When Mr. Harrelson paid $32 to $40 a ton he paid too much, and, of course, he could not stand it. If a farmer would buy the acid phosphate, potash and dried blood he could do his own mixing. If he uses only a few tons it would be better to buy his fertilizer mixed. If Mr. Harrelson would ask a question at this office, he would secure a reasonable answer. It is a good sign to see farmers investigating all such questions. It shows that they are thinking and moving forward.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have taken out a patent for their cure in all countries, and offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. ## TURKS MASSACRED THOUSANDS

Twenty Thousand Moslem and Fifteen Thousand Christians Slain in Last Two Months.

London, Jan. 29.—The Constantinople correspondent of The Times, after examining the charges and counter charges of massacres, arrives at the conclusion that Moslems and Christians are equally blamable. He estimates that in the whole of European Turkey 20,000 Moslem and 15,000 Christian non-combatants have been killed during the war, and considers that Europe would be better employed in relieving the suffering of the survivors than in attempting to fix the responsibility for the massacres.

AN APPEAL TO MOTHERS.

A Duty The Mother Owes to Her Child and to Herself And to Her Family.

In these days of star-shooting; the days when all kinds of reforms are being handed to the parents, the mother feels that she has great responsibilities. And she has. She must not only bear and rear and nurse—and love and often lose her offspring—but she must ever keep her ear to the ground to know what evil may befall the loved one. This is not a patent medicine advertisement. It is the relation of a fact. Pneumonia and mumps, and scarlet fever and measles come along and all the ills that childhood is heir to—and the doctor is called in, and generally he pulls the hopeful through.

But it is generally understood these times that all the diseases that rob homes of little ones Croup and Pneumonia are the most insidious. They baffle the skill of physicians, often, possibly the physician is not called in time. This is why every home should be supplied with a bottle of Gowans Preparation, the celebrated and marvelous remedy for Pneumonia and Croup Colds—applied externally and never failing to relieve the sufferer. Buy a bottle today; try it and you will thank your stars that your eyes were directed to this article. All druggists handle it. Take no substitute but get Gowans.
