Social News

There has been much delightful entertaining this week. Society, which for the past few months has been unusually dull, seems to have taken on new life with the coming of spring. Of the several affairs of the week, the party given by Misses Bessie and Pearl McManus Wednesday afternoon is perhaps the most interesting. Their attractive home on Main street was filled with fragrant wild flowers of every hue. They were everywhere, in vases, bowls and banked on the mantels. In the reception hall, fruit punch was served to the guests on arrival by Miss Mary Locke Barron. When the dozen friends of the hostess had assembled little Miss Martha Van-Landingham, who represented Cupid, came in and to each guest presented a copy of the following document:

"PROCLAMATION.

"Know ye all, Whereas, Power of the house of Rogers and Julia, of the house of Gregory, having reached years of discretion and understanding, seek admission into the State of Matrimony.

"I, Daniel Cupid, Governor of said State, hereby proclaim them candidates for such admission on or after June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and thirteen.

"Written under my hand and seal on this twenty-third day of April, nineteen hundred and thirteen.

(Heart Seal.)

(Signed) "DANIEL CUPID."

"State of Matrimony."

This novel announcement was read with interest by the friends of Miss Gregory, the honoree.

Then followed an amusing contest, in which Miss Maude Moore won the prize, a box of candy.

In the attractive dining room, at a lace-covered polished table, the elaborate refreshments in three courses were served. Before leaving each guest was asked to write a word of advice to the bride-to-be. These were very clever and provoked much laughter. The announcement of this engagement will be noted with much interest by Miss Gregory's friends in this and other towns. She is a young woman of winning personality. She is a daughter of Mrs. J. F. Gregory and is very popular. Mr. A. P. Rogers, a native of Dillon, is a Westinghouse electrical engineer who travels throughout the state. He was located in Lancaster for several months and has numbers of friends here who congratulate him on his very good fortune. His marriage to Miss Gregory will be one of the interesting social events of June.

Another charming affair of the past week was the lovely little luncheon party given by Miss Mary Heath Jones to a number of her young friends on Tuesday. The table was lovely with large center baskets filled with pink roses, the handle tied with a great bow of pink ribbon. The place cards showed a tiny spray of sweet peas. The color scheme of pink and white was beautifully carried out through the several courses. Those who enjoyed this delightful occasion were: Misses Laura Gilbert Williams, Lucia and Lewis Murchison, Katharine Wylie, Mary Locke Barron, Nanna Perry and Pauline Marton.

Mrs. Walter M. Stevens was the hostess of the Bridge Club Wednesday afternoon at her attractive home on North Main street. Her rooms were most attractive with roses everywhere. Tall vases were filled with graceful clusters of fragrant red roses. After a series of spirited games, Mrs. George Williams, who held top score, was given a lovely gold hatpin. Elaborate refreshments, consisting of a salad course, followed by an ice course, were served after the games. Two tables of players enjoyed the pleasures of the afternoon.

Miss Eliza Moore was the hostess of the Cozy Corner Club at its last meeting. After an interesting little contest, Miss Mary Heath Jones was awarded first prize, a pretty wrist fan, and Miss Floride Perry won the booby, a dainty handkerchief. During the afternoon, ices, cake and candy were served by Misses Mary and Dorothy Moore.

WIFE SLAYER RUN DOWN.

Isadore Dunbar, Colored. Taken Back to Chesterfield.

Isadore Dunbar, the negro who lived on Mr. John J. Blackmon's place, about three miles northeast of town, who brutally murdered his wife with an axe near Catarrh, in Chesterfield county Sunday night, mention of which was made in our last issue, was arrested about four miles southeast of town Tuesday by Rural Policeman Tant Hunter and brought to the jail that afternoon. Sheriff Hunter and Policeman Hunter were both on his trail when he was bagged. He admitted the killing, remarking that there "was some things a fellow couldn't stand." It seems his wife left to visit her sister in Chesterfield county some ten days ago. He followed Sunday, taking the train to Kershaw and footing it across Lynch's river into the border county of Chesterfield. His wife cooked supper for him Sunday evening, after which he killed her by striking her on the head with an axe. A second blow severed one of the ears from her head. Rural Policeman E. W. Moore came up and took Dunbar back to Chesterfield Wednesday. Court is now in session in that county and it is likely that Dunbar will be tried during the term.

FIRE AT GREAT FALLS.

Hotel Destroyed Causing Loss of $4,500.

The large hotel at Great Falls, belonging to the Southern Power Company and managed by Mr. H. A. Tibbs, was entirely destroyed by fire Wednesday morning. Practically all the furniture was lost. The building was a large wooden structure and was valued at $4,500. The origin of the fire is unknown, except that it started in the attic of the building. Robinson Young, who was sleeping on the third floor, barely escaped with his life. He ran down to the second floor and jumped out just before the building fell in. Other nearby buildings would have been destroyed had not the Republic cotton mills, nearby, closed down for the time and the mill force formed into a bucket brigade to fight the flames.

COLLECTORSHIP IN DOUBT.

Action Said to be Held Up on Recommendation of W. J. Storen.

Washington, April 24.—The matter of the collectorship of the port of Charleston was discussed yesterday between the South Carolina senators and Mr. Richard S. Whaley, who has been nominated by the Democratic primary to succeed the late Representative George S. Legare. Senator Tillman and Mr. Whaley called on Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, by whom the name of Capt. W. J. Storen was sent to the President last week at the suggestion of the two South Carolina senators. It is believed that action on the Storen case at the White House has been temporarily held up. Mr. Whaley, when seen at the Willard Hotel yesterday evening, said he preferred not to make any statement at this time. Senator Tillman said that he was unwilling to discuss the subject until he had heard from some persons in Charleston, to whom he had written.

It is understood that action has also been held up on the name of P. A. Murray, who was endorsed by the senators for the postmastership of Walterboro before the first district Democratic primary.

Death of Mrs. G. H. Bailes.

Mrs. Florence Bailes, wife of Mr. G. H. Bailes, a prominent merchant of Anderson, died at the Anderson hospital in that city at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning, after an illness of only one week. She was about 32 years of age, was a bright, attractive woman and an earnest worker in the Baptist church. Mrs. Bailes was a daughter of Mr. J. Thomas Funderburk of Dudley. She is survived by her husband, a son, Thomas, a daughter, Beverly, her father, eight sisters and four brothers. She was a sister of Mr. B. Y. Funderburk and Mesdames B. C. Hough and W. F. Laney of this place.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church at 3 p. m. yesterday, conducted by her pastor, Rev. John F. Vines, D. D., assisted by Rev. W. H. Fraser. The remains were interred at Silver Brook cemetery in Anderson.

Leader of Suffragettes Sentenced to 14 Days For Holding a Meeting.

London, April 24.—Mrs. Charles Despard, leader of the suffragettes, arrested last night while trying to conduct a meeting in Trafalgar Square, was sentenced to 14 days' imprisonment in default of payment of a fine of $25. Her companions were sentenced to ten days each.

Mrs. Despard declared her attempt to hold a meeting in Trafalgar Square was made as a protest against the government's prohibition of suffrage meeting in Hyde Park.

Remedy is Very Simple.

Every little while we read in the paper that some one has run a rusty nail in his foot or other portion of his body, and lockjaw resulted therefrom and the patient died. If every person was aware of a perfect remedy for such wounds and would apply it then such reports would cease. The remedy is simple, always at hand, can be applied by anyone—what is better, it is infallible. It is simply to smoke the wound or any wound that is bruised or inflamed with a woolen cloth. Twenty minutes in the smoke will take the pain out of the worst case of inflammation arising from such a wound. People may sneer at this remedy as much as they please, but when they are afflicted with such wounds, let them try it.—Ex.

HEATH SPRINGS.

Special to The News.

Heath Springs, April 24.—An event of great interest to the community, owing to the prominence of the parties involved, was the marriage here on April 24, of Mr. Lewis A. Duncan and Miss Hannah Mobley, both of Heath Springs. The marriage was a very quiet one and was solemnized in the presence of a few friends at the Methodist parsonage here, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. C. Mouzon, P. C. The groom is a graduate of Wofford College and is a successful planter. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. Berry Mobley of the Enterprise Mercantile Company. She is a graduate of Winthrop College and taught successfully for two sessions as assistant in the high school here. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Duncan repaired to their elegant residence, recently completed, where they will make their home.

features of the pending tariff bill. One concerns the proposed examination of books of German exporting houses for the purpose of ascertaining domestic sales prices to guard against undervaluation of exports. The other protest is against the provision that German goods imported in American bottoms shall enjoy a differential of 5 per cent in duty. It is declared to be in violation of treaties with Germany, which guarantee vessels of that country equality of treatment with American vessels in the matter of duties and charges.

Why He Was Late.

"What made you so late?"

"I met Smithson."

"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."

"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."

"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"

"Sure, that is what he needs."

PUPPY BY PARCEL POST.

Arrives in Lancaster in Good Condition and is Sent to Destination After Being Watered and Fed.

Postmaster Hunter and his assistants sat up and took notice this morning when on opening one of the mail pouches they found a little box punctured here and there with holes for ventilation and were greeted with a whine from the inside of the box. On closer inspection they found it contained a young puppy of the shepherd species. They took the little fellow out and gave him a good square breakfast, which he ravenously devoured. He was then put back in his little box and sent by Rural Carrier Hilliard to Mr. J. Davis Flynn, Route No. 7. The box was mailed to Mr. Flynn by E. R. Yarbrough, Coffey, Ga.
