

SENATE PASSES TARIFF BILL WITH 7 MAJORITY

LaFollette and Poindexter Vote With Democrats.

GREETED WITH APPLAUSE.

Action Will Immediately Stimulate Commerce, Predicts Simmons—President Wilson Gratified.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The Democratic tariff revision bill passed the senate at 5:43 o'clock yesterday afternoon, amid a burst of applause that swept down from crowded galleries and found its echo on the crowded floor of the senate.

President Wilson last night expressed great gratification over the end of the long struggle in the senate. Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, who piloted the bill through the senate committee, the Democratic caucus and the senate, predicted its passage would bring immediate stimulus to the commercial life of the country.

SHORT CONFERENCE PREDICTED.

In many important places the senate has changed the bill that passed the house, and a conference committee of the two houses will begin work today or tomorrow to adjust differences.

The senate named its members of the conference committee as soon as the bill passed. Vice President Marshall appointed Senators Simmons, Stone, Williams and Johnson, Democrats, and Senators Penrose, Lodge and LaFollette, Republicans.

THE FINAL VOTE.

Following was the roll call on the tariff bill:

Yeas: Ashurst, Bacon, Chamberlain, Chilton, Clarke of Arkansas, Fletcher, Gore, Hitchcock, Hollis, Hughes, James, Johnson, Kern, Lane, Lewis, Martin, Martine, Myers, Newlands, O'Gorman, Overman, Owen, Pittman, Pomereene, Robinson, Santsbury, Shafroth, Sheppard, Shields, Smith of Arizona, Smith of Georgia, Smith of Maryland, Smith of South Carolina, Stone, Swanson, Thompson, Tillman, Vardaman, Walsh, Williams, Democrats; LaFollette, Republican, and Poindexter, Progressive—Total 44.

Nays: Borah, Bradley, Brady, Brandegee, Bristow, Catron, Clapp, Clark of Wyoming, Colt, Cummins, Dillingham, Fall, Gallinger, Jackson, Jones, Kenyon, Lippitt, Lodge, McComber, McLean, Nelson, Norris, Oliver, Page, Penrose, Perkins, Root, Sherman, Smoot, Stephenson, Sterling, Sutherland, Warren, Weeks and Works, Republicans; and Ransdell and Thornton, Democrats—Total 37.

Paired and not voting: Townsend, Burton, Crawford, Goff, Dupont and Smith of Michigan, Republicans; Barkhead, Bryan, Culberson, Lea, Thomas and Reed, Democrats—Total 12.

Absent and not paired: Burleigh and Gronna, Republicans—Total 2. Vacancy: Alabama 1.

ALL EYES ON LAFOLLETTE.

The final struggle began at 4 o'clock, when under a previous agreement, arbitrary votes began on pending amendments. During the closing hours of debate Senator LaFollette had become the center of interest, proposing final amendments on the cotton and agricultural schedules and discussing some features of the bill he deemed favorable.

INTEREST IN YORK COUNTY FAIR

WHY LAFOLLETTE DID IT.

Last night Senator LaFollette had a few words to say of his vote, after many Democratic senators had surrounded his desk and shaken his hand.

vote: "I voted for the senate tariff bill because it is as a whole a better bill than the Payne-Aldrich law now in force."

When the vote had been announced Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, leader of the minority, congratulated Senator Simmons, "for his courteous, kindly and considerate manner" in the conduct of the debate.

GALLINGER PRAISES DEMOCRATS.

"The bill itself is bad," he said, "but its management has been in every way creditable to the majority and eminently fair to the minority."

The senator said he was charged with a duty from his state higher than any duty he owed to the Democratic party and voting against the bill, he contended, was keeping his pledge.

AMENDMENTS VOTED DOWN.

Income tax amendments by Senators Bristow and LaFollette, similar to those they introduced several days ago, were defeated.

One important change made on the recommendation of the finance committee gives the secretary of the treasury power to censor all imported moving picture films.

Senator James, acting for the finance committee, obtained the adoption of an amendment modifying the provision of the bill that authorizes the secretary of the treasury and collector of internal revenue to employ income tax officials without regard to the civil service laws.

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT.

President Wilson issued the following statement:

"A fight for the people and for free business, which has lasted a long generation through, has at last been won handsomely and completely. A leadership and a steadfastness in counsel has been shown in both houses of which the Democratic party has reason to be very proud.

There is every reason to believe that currency reform will be carried through with equal energy, directness and loyalty to the general interest. When that is done this first session of the 63d Congress will have passed into history with an unrivalled distinction.

"I want to express my special admiration for the devoted, intelligent and untiring work of Mr. Underwood and Mr. Simmons and the committees associated with them."

HIS HOPES REALIZED.

The President, while always confident that the Democratic majority would be kept intact to insure the passage of the bill by a safe margin, had been hoping for the votes of Progressive Republicans.

The President felt happy over the result. Secretary Tumulty, who had been an eager auditor in the senate gallery, drove rapidly to the White House and, beaming with smiles, told the President of the vote.

"Great," was his first remark, as he went to his study and telephoned Chairman Simmons his congratulations. The President hopes to share the vacation which members of the senate are about to take, by going to Cornish, N. H., for a few days.

NO HOSTILITY TOWARD BLEASE

Friendly Relations Between Georgia and South Carolina Must be Maintained.

Atlanta Journal, Wednesday.

Utterances attributed in the newspapers to Governor Blease to the effect that he had "cut off relations with Georgia" because Governor Slaton declined to grant his requisition for Julian J. Zachry, the young Augusta attorney, and because former governors had declined to grant requisitions for Thomas B. Felder, the Atlanta attorney, brought forth a statement from Governor Slaton Tuesday morning.

"So long as I am governor of Georgia," said Governor Slaton, "the requisitions of Governor Blease will be given the same careful and courteous consideration as are given the requisitions of other states. His requisitions are made in the name of South Carolina and the dignity of Georgia demands that they receive proper consideration."

"I do not propose to pursue any retaliatory policy toward Governor Blease, and whenever he declines my requisitions I shall assume that after proper investigation he has, in the line of his duty, exercised his best discretion which the constitution of his state empowers and requires him to do."

"It would be nothing short of disastrous if through misunderstandings or disagreements there should come an interruption in the cordial and reciprocal relations between Georgia and South Carolina to the end that the criminals of one state might find a haven and asylum in the other. This condition of affairs would be most lamentable."

JOHNSON LEADS IN SPARTANBURG

Will Make Second Race With Former Mayor Floyd—Misses Nomination by 81 Votes.

Spartanburg Special to Charleston News and Courier, Sept. 9.—Complete but unofficial returns, subject to revision, indicate that a second Democratic primary election will have to be held to choose the party's nominee for mayor of Spartanburg under the commission form of government.

Mayor O. L. Johnson led, receiving 767 votes. Former Mayor John F. Floyd received 598 votes, and Ben Hill Brown was eliminated, receiving only 340 votes.

It is conceded that Floyd will receive most of Brown's votes, as both ran on a platform calling for vigorous enforcement of the laws against commercialized vice and "blind tigers," while Johnson, though silent on the subject, is generally understood to have received votes of those who favor an "open" town.

Brown was put forward by the citizens who were unwilling to vote for a supporter of Governor Cole L. Blease, Johnson and Floyd both being friends of the governor.

Hundreds of citizens were barred from voting today because they could not produce tax receipts.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Lancaster women know how the aches and pains that often come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, are frequent indications of weak kidneys and should be checked in time.

Mrs. W. M. Barton, Main St., Lancaster, S. C., says: "I suffered a great deal from kidney complaint. My back ached and the secretions from my kidneys were unnatural. I doctored and tried one remedy after another, but I was not benefited until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Crawford Bros., Drug Store. They lived up to all the claims made for them, giving me great relief. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy I know of for kidney complaint."

DEBATE STARTED ON THE CURRENCY BILL

Motive of Bankers in Opposing It That Bill Will Injure Stock Gambling.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The administration currency bill today started on its devious way to the statute books when Chairman Glass of the house banking committee, and one of the fathers of the measure, opened the currency debate in the house.

Mr. Glass replied at length to the criticism that the federal reserve board, placed by the bill in control of the proposed financial system would, with its wide powers be subject to political influence.

"There is no politics in this matter; there can be none. It is my earnest conviction, based upon long and serious reflection, that no man can conceive, as none has yet pointed out, how any part of this system can be perverted to political uses," said he.

The manuscript is nearly completed and will be an intimate biography of the President. Arrangements are said to have been made already with an Eastern publishing house to bring out the book.
