

TILLMAN IS UNHAPPY BUT FAVORS REPEAL

try to redeem all our party pledges. It would be almost a crime for the Democracy to hesitate now and not finish cleaning the 'Augean stable.' We can not hope under the rules of the senate to pass very much constructive legislation during the short session. If we lose the next house all the reforms so necessary would have to be done between December and March. An extra session with one branch of Congress controlled by the Republicans would only be able to pass the appropriation bills. The Democracy should make hay while the sun shines and I am glad to see the President pressing the anti-trust legislation so vigorously. I am sorry that he did not include rural credits in the legislative program. We will have to face much criticism on account of his failure to redeem his promise made last winter just after the passage of the banking and currency law that this would be done. The farmers are a mighty power, who are just beginning to understand what their real interests are."

FEARS THE COLONEL?

The senator recalled that Theodore Roosevelt, "the great advertiser," had come home "delighted." Then he devoted his attention to Senator O'Gorman, anti-repeal leader, suggesting that in the next campaign the New York senator would have some difficulty in explaining why two planks so antagonistic as the tolls and ship subsidy planks, were placed in the Baltimore platform.

Senator Tillman said the tolls fight had made it very unhappy for him. He recalled that when the Spanish treaties were before the senate he charged his colleague, Senator McLaurin, with selling out to the Republicans, and blows followed. Then, he said, he had inserted in the South Carolina constitution, for McLaurin's sake, a provision that candidates should obey their party platforms.

"I would feel very unhappy if McLaurin could justly charge me with prescribing physic for some which I myself am unwilling to take," added the senator. He explained, however, that the recent South Carolina state convention of his party had adopted a resolution in favor of the repeal bill.

REVIVES OLD HISTORY.

"Senators will remember that in 1902, while Hon. John L. McLaurin was a senator from South Carolina, he and I came to blows on the floor of this chamber because I charged him with selling out to the Republicans on the Spanish treaty, which charge he denied with bitterness and called me a liar. This I immediately resented with a blow. Some of the older senators who witnessed the scene are yet with us, but I do not propose to go into any further details. I merely mention it in order to explain why it is embarrassing for me to vote for this repeal. At the next state Democratic convention after the encounter between McLaurin and myself, I urged and succeeded in having passed by the convention a provision changing the constitution and rules of the party in South Carolina so as to require each candidate for the senate and house to subscribe to the following pledge: "I will support the political principles and policies of the Democratic party during the term of office for which I may be elected, and work in accord with my Democratic associates in Congress on all party questions."

"This was made for McLaurin and everybody understood why. While his betrayal of his trust was very flagrant and fully warranted my characterization of it, it was no more clear and explicit than this question of tolls; for where will we look for 'Democratic policies and principles' if not in the party platform? Where will we get plainer language than the pledge at Baltimore on this subject? There has been no caucus of senators or Democrats to determine what is the party policy. The platform says one thing, and the President has endorsed and praised the platform and explained that very thing in a speech. No authoritative repeal or disavowal of the platform at Baltimore has been uttered by anyone; and Democrats everywhere are very much muddled. The President alone urges the repeal because in his judgment it is necessary to maintain our honor as a nation.

BETWEEN THE HORNS.

"I would be very unhappy if McLaurin could justly charge me with prescribing physic for him which I myself am unwilling to take. Should I fail to stand by the party platform and vote for the repeal, he could justly say that I am inconsistent. "The predicament we are now in has caused me more worry than anything that has happened in a long while. We have just had another state convention of the Democratic party of South Carolina; and that convention endorsed President Wilson's administration in no uncertain terms. Indeed, it went further than good taste or truth seemed to demand or allow. It said: "Recognizing in the President the greatest moral force that has been in the White House during the past century, we heartily commend his efforts to secure a repeal of the Panama free tolls act, a law enacted by a Republican President regardless of national honor; we condemn this law as undemocratic and against the country. We believe that this law would create a shipping trust and would repeat the outrageous scandals of the building of our transcontinental railways. We demand that our senators vote for the unqualified repeal of this act and thus support the President in upholding Democratic principles and the honor of this nation."

SHOCKS HIS DELICATE TASTE.

"It seems to me that this is much exaggerated and a milder and more conservative utterance would have been in better taste. Woodrow Wilson is recognized by all as a great statesman and a good man, but his best friends will not claim for him infallibility. He has acknowledged to me that he had never studied that plank in the platform, nor analyzed it, and was led to endorse it and praise it because the party at Baltimore had put it in our platform. He is a great exponent of Democratic principles, but even he when reading such resolutions as our State convention passed must remember that there have been many great Democrats in the 'past century'; that Madison, Monroe and Jackson have been president during that time. Therefore, I know he will agree with my criticism."

Senator Ollie James of Kentucky, almost on the eve of a vote on the tolls exemption repeal bill, tonight drew aside the veil and exposed some of the strong feeling among Democratic senators divided over the controversy. Senator James made a particular attack on the position of Senator O'Gorman, leader of the anti-repeal forces, declaring the New York senator had been the valiant defender of the tolls plank of the platform, but had failed to be champion of another plank just as important when opportunity afforded. "The senator spoke at a night session.

WHOSE OX IS GORED.

Senator James began his attack by reading a plank in the Baltimore platform declaring for publicity of recommendations for appointive federal offices, explaining that the plank that when another bill was before the senate for the recommendation for federal judgeships made public. He then announced that Senator O'Gorman as a member of the judiciary committee twice had an opportunity to show his advocacy of this plank and had once done so.

Senator O'Gorman explained that on one occasion he had not been present when the question came up and was inserted with the particular objection that there was no discussion of the question. Senator James turned from Senator O'Gorman to Senator Vardaman, who recently spoke of the Democratic party following the leadership of "Bryan and Root" in the tolls exemption fight. "Everybody takes a lick at Bryan these days," he said with a smile. "But with every blow he grows in the love of the American people." Senator James said he favored the repeal bill because he thought it must be passed to save the nation's honor and because it repealed a subsidy.

YOU CAN'T EAT APPETITE POOR

Multitudes of people lose their appetite. Simply don't care for anything to eat. The dinner bell has no interest to them. They bathe their breakfast. They may nibble a little of this and a little of that, but they do not care for it. Lunch has lost all of its charms, although they try to eat something. Dinner about the same. There is something positively wrong, of course, but no disease that can be named. Just out of sorts. That is all. It is in this kind of a condition that Peruna acts very beneficially. After using Peruna, interest in food is revived. Beginning with a teaspoonful of Peruna before each meal will generally quickly improve the appetite and help the digestion. Thousands of people can testify to this. Liberated from a slavery that is almost unbearable. The slavery of having no interest in life. All used up. Yet one does not know exactly why. Take Peruna before each meal. Skies will get blue again. Fields will look green once more and life will be pleasant. You will feel that you are good for something and the world is a good place to live in. Peruna will do it. Not as an artificial stimulant. Simply a tonic that stimulates appetite in a natural way. Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

MAKES BACKACHE QUICKLY DISAPPEAR

A Few Doses Relieves All Such Miseries. Bladder Weakness, Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism Promptly Vanish

It is no longer necessary for any one to suffer with backache, kidney trouble, have disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders to contend with, or be tortured with rheumatism, stiff joints, and its heart-wrenching pains, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely relieves all such troubles.

Croxone is the most wonderful remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. It acts on the principle of cleaning out the poisons and removing the cause. It soaks right in through the walls, membranes and linings, like water in a sponge, neutralizes, dissolves, and makes the kidneys sift out and filter away, all the uric acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and urinary organs clean, strong, healthy and well.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what you have used, the very principle of Croxone is such, that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides, or have any signs of kidney, bladder troubles, or rheumatism, such as puffy swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired, and run down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Croxone will quickly relieve you of your misery. You can secure an original package of Croxone at a trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single dose.
