J. THOMAS HUNTER DEAD.

Pneumonia Claims Still Another Victim.

Mr. J. Thomas Hunter, who had been ill from pneumonia for about two weeks, died Saturday morning at 6 o'clock, age 64 years. He was a son of the late I. W. Hunter by his wife, Nancy (Ballard) Hunter. Mr. Hunter was liked by all who knew him. He was a consistent member of the Methodist church. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Mamie Bell, by whom he had the following children, who survive him, viz: Mrs. T. F. Culp, C. C. Hunter, I. T. Hunter, Mrs. Henry Williams, W. I. Hunter, Hoyt T. Hunter and Mrs. E. B. Roddey.

His second wife was a Miss Cline, who survives him with an only son, Fred Hunter. The remains were interred at lower Camp Creek (Methodist) church Sunday at 12 m., the Rev. C. W. Burgess officiating.

HON. GEORGE W. JONES DEAD.

At One Time Represented the County in Legislature.

Hon. George W. Jones died from an attack of pneumonia at his home at Jones Cross Roads early Saturday morning. Mr. Jones will be greatly missed in his community. He was a progressive, wide-awake farmer, always alive to the interests of the people of the county. He was a well-informed man and always took a decided stand on all issues affecting the county and state. He has been honored many times by the people of the county with positions of public trust. He served the people as county auditor one or more terms and several times in the lower house of the state legislature. He was a consistent and active member of the New Hope Baptist church. He married Miss Mary McIlwain, who predeceased him. Mr. Jones is survived by two children, Mr. Robert M. Jones and Mrs. Wheeler Scarborough. The body was laid to rest by that of his wife in Douglas church grave yard Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. J. F. Hammond, assisted by Rev. Hugh R. Murchison, conducted the funeral services.

FRANK KEE PASSES.

Young Pharmacist Succumbs to Pneumonia.

It has been said that "Death loves a shining mark." The truth of this statement was well exemplified in the passing of Frank Kee, called hence when life appeared so full of promise. Dr. Kee, when illness overtook him, seemed very strong and robust and his splendid physique gave evidence of exceptional vitality. But when pneumonia laid hold of him, he became dangerously ill. Under the strain of combatting the disease, his heart weakened and Friday night the crisis came. Then it became apparent that he could not recover and the end came late Saturday afternoon.

The tidings of his passing brought sorrow to many hearts for Frank Kee possessed a rare capacity for friendship. His quiet dignity won admiration and his honesty, loyalty and sincerity held the friendship that was given him. He was true and steadfast, kind and strong, gentle and courteous. In his character were combined many admirable traits which made his life a blessing. Lancaster knew this young man well for he had spent the best years of his young life here. Robert Francis Kee was a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kee, was born near Rodman's, Chester county, July 27, 1884. His early education in Chester county was supplemented by high school training in Lancaster, where he was graduated from the Lancaster high school. He subsequently finished the pharmaceutical course at the Medical College of South Carolina in Charleston. Dr. Kee then accepted a position with the Lancaster Pharmacy, which he held for some time, going later into the drug business in Cheraw. Though successful in that place, Lancaster held greater inducements to the young pharmacist, who returned to this city two years ago, becoming president and one of the proprietors of the Standard Drug Company. Dr. Kee was recognized as an able pharmacist, his knowledge of his profession, combined with care and skill in filling prescriptions, commending him to the people's confidence.

In all of the relations of life, Dr. Kee had proved himself faithful. A loyal friend, he was also a devoted son and brother, as well as a sincere Christian. From boyhood he had been a member of the Methodist church and a regular attendant upon its services. As a citizen he was progressive and generous. Dr. Kee was an interested and intelligent Mason, belonging to the Jackson Lodge, No. 53, A. F. M., and to Keystone Chapter, No. 19 both at Lancaster. He was a member of the Knight Templar Commandery of Chester and was also a Shriner.

On a special funeral train over the Lancaster & Chester Railway, the remains were accompanied to Richburg by his loved ones and a number of Lancaster friends, and others still went from this place, from Chester, as well as from other points in neighboring counties, by automobile. Friends and relatives met the party in Richburg, and drove them to Pleasant Grove Methodist church in the community in which he was born and reared. In this church, which he joined in boyhood, hundreds of friends paid their last tribute to Frank Kee. The impressive service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. T. Hodges, of Lancaster, assisted by Rev. W. S. Goodman of Richburg. He was buried with the funeral rites of the Knight Templars, and the following members of that order acted as pallbearers: R. S. Harper, Paul Moore, and J. C. White of Lancaster, Dr. W. E. Anderson, Robert Fraser and I. H. Norris of Chester.

Dr. Kee is survived by his father and mother and by the following brothers and sisters, T. L. Kee, Mrs. W. A. Gladden, W. C. Kee, J. S. Kee, Leonard S. Kee, Jeff Strait Kee and Miss Susie Wylie Kee. The nearest Lancaster relative of the deceased is Dr. T. J. Strait, the uncle with whom he made his home until Dr. Strait's removal to Columbia.

Social News

The hostess of the Chesterfield Avenue Club at its last meeting was Miss Bessie McManus whose four tables of rock afforded pleasure to her guests. After a series of games, Mrs. A. P. Rogers was found to have the highest score and she was awarded the prize, a pair of silver hatpins. When the games were over, the hostess and her sisters, Misses Pearl and Kate McManus, served a dainty course of refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake.

In honor of the Misses Wylie's guests, Misses Elizabeth Finley of Yorkville and Araminta Holcombe of Virginia, Miss Nannie Hill Moore entertained informally at bridge Friday afternoon. Eight players enjoyed the games, Mrs. Leroy Springs winning first prize, a deck of cards. Miss Moore presented each of the guests of honor with white silk hose. Elaborate refreshments in three courses were served.

Mrs. Hazel Ferguson, a member of the West End Neighborhood Club, entertained that club at a delightful meeting Friday afternoon. Rook furnished pleasant entertainment for the sixteen guests. Mrs. J. E. Blackmon captured the first prize, a crocheted centerpiece, and the booby a dainty powder puff, consoled Mrs. P. M. Lathan. During the afternoon the hostess served a delicious salad course and mints.

JUMPS FROM TRESTLE.

Perry Bailey Sees Airship Then Sees Oncoming Train.

Perry Bailey, the seven-year-old son of Mr. Doc Bailey of the Cotton Mill Village, while standing on the trestle looking at the airship flight last Friday at noon, became frightened at an approaching train and jumped from the trestle to the ground below, sustaining painful injuries. Dr. R. C. Brown made the little fellow as comfortable as possible and though badly bruised, he expects him to be out again in a few days.

SPECIAL MORNING SERVICES.

At First Baptist Church During May.

Arrangements have been perfected for special services during the absence of the pastor in the month of May at the First Baptist church. The music will be in charge of the efficient organist, Miss Leslie Johnson, assisted by Prof. Feaster with his young men's choir. Dr. E. M. Poteat, president of Furman University, will preach on the morning of May 2. Rev. C. A. Jones, secretary of the board of education, on the morning of May 9. Dr. David M. Ramsey, president of Greenville Woman's College, will occupy the pulpit at the morning hour, May 16. The Rev. W. E. Wilkins, secretary Baptist Laymen's Movement, will preach Sunday morning, May 26. The pastor of the church requests that a special effort be made to give these brethren large audiences. The services are arranged with the view of bringing to the attention of our people our educational institutions. There will be no services at the church during the evening hour or on the fifth Sunday.

DEATH OF INFANT.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Obenoskey.

Little Jessie Lee, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Obenoskey of the Van Wyck section, died of pneumonia, April 8, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Six Mile church. The little baby was a grand-daughter of Mr. A. Obenoskey. She was a bright, attractive child and only 1 year and 24 days old.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kee and family wish to extend their thanks to the friends who showed so many kindnesses during the illness and at the death of their loved one, Dr. R. F. Kee. Especially are they grateful to Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bartlett for their kind and thoughtful consideration.

L. & C. WINS SUIT.

"Linter" Case a Victory for the Defendant.

The following from The State of yesterday will be of interest to those who have watched the progress of the "Linter" case and they will be glad to know that the Lancaster & Chester Railway won the suit: "Special to The State. "Chester, April 17.—A decree filed here by Judge C. M. Efrd in the case of the National Bank of Savannah, Ga., vs. the Lancaster & Chester Railway in the "Linter" case, which was tried before Judge Efrd last fall and resulted in a decision by the court in favor of the defendant in the matter of amount claimed by the bank, makes the victory for the defendant complete, as the claim of interest, which his honor took under advisement, is disallowed and the complaint is dismissed."
