

LOCAL DOTS

Don't forget that Sunday is Mother's day. Everybody urged to wear a white carnation or some kind of a white flower.

COMING—THE BATTLE CRY OF PEACE

Kelly says a man wants what he wants when he wants it. He wants you to call or phone 160 when you want anything in his line.

Miss Lillie Usher of the Dixie section left Wednesday to attend the commencement exercises of Linwood college, and also a meeting of the alumnae association, of which she is president. From here she will visit in Lowell, Gastonia, Charlotte and Rock Hill.

LOWER CAMP CREEK

In response to an invitation given by Messrs. Reamy and W. D. Jones, Jr., the young people, chaperoned by Mrs. J. H. Bell and Mrs. Tom Ballard, went to Reed's spring on the river Saturday, where they had a delightful picnic. The day was indeed happily spent by all. Some enjoyed boat rides on the river, others amused themselves by climbing the steep hill sides, while almost everyone enjoyed the happy sensation of walking the dam across the river to Mountain Island. Of course all were with one accord in one place when the bountiful picnic dinner was spread. We truly ate, drank and were merry together as we sat high on the hill side beside the cool spring and enjoyed the cool breeze and the hearty fellowship of all.

We were interested in watching the work being done on the large dam that is now being constructed across the river. Late in the afternoon we reluctantly turned our faces homeward, sorry to leave the place where we had so much wholesome fun. We all stand ready to go again as soon as invited.

Sunday morning found us all in our places at Sunday School and preaching service. We have a wide-awake and interesting Sunday School now. The pastor, the Rev. Mr. Strickland, has worked faithfully in its behalf. There were twenty-four present in the young men and women's class Sunday, the other classes being equally as well represented.

In order to improve our singing, Song services are held once a week. Last Sunday night we met with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moeller, and sang many of the good old songs and learned some pretty new ones.

Miss Stover, the teacher here for the past term, wishes to express her appreciation to the people of the community for their hearty co-operation in the school work, and especially the young men and women for the many courtesies shown her. She leaves wishing each and all God-speed and carries with her the happy memories of a happy year happily spent.

"THE BATTLE CRY OF PEACE" IS PREPAREDNESS

Last fall we foresaw the scarcity of merchandise and the high prices that would follow. Immediately we began to prepare and by the first of January we had under contract or delivered $50,000 worth of high class and staple merchandise at old prices.

We are selling every article bought at the old price or on the basis of 8c cotton and cheap dye. Positively as long as this merchandise lasts no prices will be advanced. There is no scarcity of merchandise at this store. Our stock is large and complete and prices seem ridiculously cheap when in most instances the wholesale houses would pay us what we are asking at retail.
