ther for a Merchant or Mechanic, or both as any in the Country viz.

Little York,

The place where the subscriber lives and has been doing business. It is situated opposite to Harrisburg in this State, on the York side of the Sugar Creek, six miles East of the old nation ford, on the Catawba twenty-five miles of Yorkville, and fifteen below Charlotte (N. C.) in the Indian Land; six or eight miles above Do-by's Bridge on Sugar Creek—the land is good and thickly settled with industrious Farmers, who generally are liberal purchasers, money handlers, or otherwise punctual paymasters.—To the advantage of the purchaser, the subscriber would sell at the same time a small tract of excellent Land, some what above an hundred acres, well adapted to the culture of Corn or Cotton, &c. &c. lying within less than a half a mile of his Mercantile Establishment, which is in a very public place; indeed in consequence of Mills, Machines, Bridges, Post Office, Stores, &c. &c.— There is an almost continual concourse of persons passing and repassing. The above described places, are for sale, together, therefore, the subscriber has appointed the second Monday of next Month, viz. the 8th day of February, for their sale at Public Auction.

Travellers Hotel

at the sign of the Heart in the upper part of

CAMDEN

S. CAROLINA

The subscriber informs the public that for the better accommodation of travellers, he has entirely declined taking or keeping any Boarders whatever, therefore, he flatters himself that his present plan will afford sufficient inducement to travellers to call, as not only the privacy this will occasion but his not retaining any spirituous liquors will greatly contribute to that rest and peacefulness so very essential to the weary traveller.

The establishment will be (as usual) always provided with all the conveniences requisite for the use of his guests.
