At No. 11, Broad-street, near the Exchange, in Charleston, S. C.

AS J. HOFF intends declining business, he takes the liberty of informing merchants, academies, and libraries in the country, that he now offers his extensive stock in the various departments of Literature, on the following advantageous terms, for cash:

For all purchases above 100 dollars, 33 1/3 per cent. discount, that is, 150 dollars worth of Books for 100 dollars cash.

Education

THE connexion formerly existing between the Trustees of Statesville Academy and the subscriber as Teacher being dissolved, Parents and Guardians are hereby informed, that the different branches heretofore taught in this academy, he will still continue to teach in a suitable house prepared for this purpose. The satisfaction which the discharge of his office has given during the term of five years, and the respectable standing of his students in the different higher seminaries which they have entered, afford a well grounded hope that the usual liberal support and encouragement will be continued. Parents and Guardians may rest assured, that every necessary attention will be paid to the department, the progress and accuracy of Pupils.

The School will commence on the 1st of January next. To accommodate the people of South-Carolina, whose patronage has been liberal, there will be but one vacation in the year: the first vacation to commence the 16th of December, 1821.

Boarding can be had, as usual, at the houses of Messrs. Work, McKnight, and Hart, &c.
