OLD VIRGINIA.

An Illinois sucker took a great dislike to foolish young Virginian who was a fellow pasgenger with him on one of the Mississippi steamposts. I was on the boat (said Deacon Doolitple,) and saw the whole affair. The Virginian was constantly combing his hair, brushing his plothes or dusting his boots -- to all which movements the sucker jook exceptions, as being what he termed " a leetle too darned nice by half." He finally drew up his chair beside the Virginian and began :

"Whar might you be from, stranger?" "I am from Virginia, sir," politely answered the gent. "From old Virginny, I s'pose?" says the pucker. " Yes, sir, old Virginia," was the reply.

"You are pooty high up in the pictures than I suppose?

"I don't know what you mean by that remark, sir."

"Oh, nuthin," says the sucker, "but that you are desperate rich, and have been brought SEBH W. FOWLE & Co. Gon'l Agt's, mp right nice."

"If the information will gratify you in any way," says the gent, patronizingly, smoothing down his hair, "I belong to one of the first families."

"Qh, in course," answered the sucker.

"Well, stranger, bein' as you belong to the fuer, I'll jus give you two of the fattest shoats in Minois if you'll only find me a feller that belong to one of the second Virginny fami-

"Yourar : 10 quarrel with me, sir," says the Virginio"

"No, stranger, not an atom," answered the pucker, "But I never seed one of the second family, and I'd gin suthin to get a right at one of 'em. I know you are one of the fust, 'cause you look just like John Randolph.''

Silas Pierce & Co., Wason, Pierce & Co., E. T. Farrington (of Le vi Bartlett & Co.) Win. Steplies & Co., G. F. & H. Hurd & Co., G. E. Talbot & Co.

This mollified the Virginian ; the hint of resemblance to the statesman was flattering to his feelings, and he accordingly acknowledged relationship to the orator. "He, you know, descended from the Ingin gal, Pocahontas."

You are right, sir," answered the other. "Well, stranger," said the sucker, !! do you know that is another queer thing allus puzzles me, and it's this; I never seed a Virginyan that didn't claim to be either descended from an Injin, John Randolph or a nigger." We need not add that the sucker rolled off his chair-suddenly! They were separated until the sucker got off at a landing near his home. As he stepped ashore, he caught sight of the Virginian on the upper deck, and hailed him a once with-

"I say, old Virginny, remember-two fat shoats for the fast feller you find belonging to the second Yirginny family ! "

PLANTATION BITTERS.

A great many side hits are being made at the Plantation Bitters by a score or two of disinterested friends who have embeavored to imitate or counterfeit them. It's all of no use. The people won't be long apposed upon. The Plantation littless are increasing in use and popularity eyery day, and "that's what's the matter." They are in same size bottle, and made just as they were at first, and will continue to i.e. or we shall stop making them. The Plantation, Bitters purify, strengthen and invigor-

They create a healthy appeale.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dissipation and late how s. They strengthen the system and entiren the infint. They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers. They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach. They cure dyspepsia and constipation.

They cure diarrosa, cholera and cholera morbus. They cure fiver complaint and nervous headache. They make the weak strong the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. The recipe and pill circular are around each bottle. Clergymen, mer-chants, and persons whose sendentary habits induce weakness, lassifude, pulpitation of the heart, tack of appetite, distress after eating, liver compilaint, constipation, etc., will find immediate and permanent relter in these bitters. But above all, they are recommended to weak and dell-

Cate females and mothers. They are gold by all respects marchants. See that noxious climates, each bottle has our private Unit. States stamp over the TT WILL DO GREAT GOOD TO ALL BY cork and steel plate side label.

try abounds in persons publicly known who have been re stored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the ungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget and produced cures too pu merous and too remarkable to be forgotten, We can only assure the public, that its quality is careully kept up to the bes; it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done. Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here wil not permit the insertion of them.
