

Local News.

Miss Ailene Pearson, of Greenville, spent last week in the city on the part of her aunt Mrs. Irene Lovel on Gregg St.

Mr. J. A. Hays, of Jacksonville Fla., spent last week in the city and taking in the Colored Fair. During his stay he was the guest of Miss Nellie Barnes and family at 1015 Senate St.

Rev. J. C. White, pastor of Zion Baptist Church, is spending the week in Palatka, Fla., assisting Rev. D. F. Thompson, in a series of meetings. Rev. Thompson was formerly pastor at Greenwood, in this state, but is now pastor of one of the largest Baptist churches in Florida. While away in Florida this week, Dr. White is satisfied that the interest of Zion in Columbia will be closely guarded by Deacons S. B. Harrison, Holsey and Williams. In his absence will be here Sunday if Deacon Suber has to go for him.

The annual conference of the M. E. church will be held in Columbia next week. The sessions will be held at the Wesley M. E. church, of which the Rev. C. C. Scott is pastor. The pastor has worked hard getting things arranged for the entertainment of this august body and he and his faithful members are on tip toes making final preparations. The conference will be presided over by bishop F. D. Leete, who will call the conference to order next Thursday morning. The ministers of the conference and visitors will number about 250 and the citizens of Columbia, regardless of denominations, are a unit upon giving the visitor a royal entertainment.

FIRST CALVARY CHURCH TURNED OUT

At the annual meeting of the Gethsemane Association held in this city with the Zion Baptist church, the right hand of fellowship was withdrawn from the First Calvary Baptist Church. The reason given for the action was that "the church was corrupt in practice." "Peco-Baptists can't straighten out the differences in Baptist churches neither are we swift to condemn our preachers upon charges brought by them," is the way one of the members of the executive committee commented on the case in point.

Arthur Johnson Dead.

After an illness of four months Mr. Arthur Johnson a highly respected and substantial citizen of Columbia, died at his residence on Bryant street, Wednesday, Nov. 4th. During his life time he was a contractor, being a carpenter of ability, and there are numerous handsome buildings in Columbia that bear testimony to his skill, among them being Wesley M. E. Church at the corner of Barwell and Gervais Sts., and the last modern dormitory built on the campus of the South Carolina College.

The obsequies were held at his late home, conducted by Father A. C. V. Cartier of St. Luke Episcopal church. The remains were interred in Randolph Cemetery. He leaves five children and a brother, Dr. Frank B. Johnson who did all in their power to prolong his days on earth, to mourn his loss.

Teaching at Bennettsville.

Prof. Milton E. Harris, of Spartanburg, a progressive and highly cultured young man, passed through Columbia recently for Bennettsville where he has accepted the principalship of the graded school in that town. Prof. Harris aside from being a successful teacher is a finished carpenter and upholsterer.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY MEETING AT ST. MATTHEWS

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society Convention met with Bethel A. M. E. church October 1st. The convention was called to order by the president, Mrs. M. L. Haynes, at 10 o'clock. Devotional services were conducted by the president, a hot testimonial meeting followed and the house was then opened for business. The following visitors were present: Bishop W. D. Chappelle, Drs. Christie and Carson, Revs. Curry and Bowman. Each visitor spoke and their words to the convention livened each member to such a pitch that it caused the real missionary spirit to come at once. The missionary sermon was preached by Dr. H. H. Haynes, which was thought to be full and forceful. A collection was then taken.

The welcome address was delivered by Mrs. Viola Summers, which was responded to by Mrs. S. A. Mundy. Papers were read by Mesdames McMahan, Boulter, Pruitt, Miller, Collins and Mundy. Subject of discussion was, "At what age should a child become a member of the Juvenile Missionary Society?" Opened by Mrs. E. L. Ball and generally discussed by others.

Following the suggestion of Rev. R. B. Curry, the papers read by Mesdames Collins, Nelson, Mundy and McMahan, were ordered sent to the church papers for publication.

Five delegates were elected to the quadrennial convention which meets in New Orleans, Feb. 15th 1915. One hundred four dollars and eleven ($104.11) cents were raised in convention. Six dollars was donated to the pastor and $6 to the trustees.

The officers for the next year are: Mrs. M. L. Haynes, president; Mrs. Viola Summers, vice-president; Mrs. N. H. Collins, secretary; Mrs. Lizzie Johnson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. E. Sighler, treasurer.

On Sunday Rev. R. B. Curry preached two very able and strong sermons. Collection for the day was $27.86.

UNION BAPTIST CHURCH

The new brick church building of the Union Baptist church is about completed on the outside and the pastor and members deserve the greatest commendation. It is the first Negro Baptist church to be built of brick in Columbia.

Rev. R. B. Hall is the pastor, and no human being outside of the pastor will ever know the trials and hardships he underwent to get as much done on the building as can be seen by every passerby. The deacons particularly Bro. Wilson, have stood by the pastor nobly, together with a few sisters through all of the conflicts, and to-day they have a church building, practically out of debt.

How it was accomplished nobody knows, but God. None but God knows the sacrifice made and the humiliation undergone by pastor and deacons. The work has been done, the structure is there!

As we sat and look over the vast numbers of poor people who go to that church and see what has been accomplished through and by their standing and resources—we are forced to exclaim "God works in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform." Those people are in earnest-pastor deacons and members. They still need help. Will you go and help them?

Mrs. Minnie Winston, of Blairs was among the delegates to the Gethsemane Baptist Association and Sunday school Convention, which was in session here at the Zion Baptist church. She called at our office in company with Rev. L. P. Sanders, of Lowryville and Mrs. J. C. Clark, of Columbia.

In Social Circles

Miss S. B. GANTT, Edtress.

The entertainment with Mrs. Vincent on the 20th street Tuesday, October 20th. The rooms were beautifully decorated with potted plants. Tables placed and five enjoyable games were played. The first prize had to be drawn for on account of a tie between Miss. Mittie Pugh and Mrs. Carrie Rutherford. Mrs. Rutherford drawing the highest number, carried away the first prize, a dainty piece of lingerie. Consolation was drawn by Miss Daisy Meyers, a lovely center piece. The hostess served an ice course.

Miss Ethel Cornwell entertained the Elite Club last Friday. The rooms were beautifully adorned with flowers. The first prize, a beautiful hand-made handkerchief, won by Mrs. Kate Lindsay-Robinson. Consolation, a tango pin drawn by Miss Sylvia Pryor. An ice course was served.

In honor of Miss Adele Dorothy Johnson, the bride of the week, Mrs. Fannie Shelton Owen entertained at a stocking and collar shower on Monday afternoon. The rooms were decorated with cut flowers and ferns. After the games the hostess served an course.

Johnson--Paddyfote.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon, October 21st, 1914, at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. M. G. Johnson, when their daughter, Miss Adele Dorothy, became the bride of Mr. C. Archer Paddyfote of South America.

Just before the marriage Miss Camille Daniels entertained the guests by singing a solo, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told"; followed by Miss Isabel Lark who sang "The Hour That Gave Me You." These solos indeed charmed the guests. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Zenobia Jeffers. The bride and groom entered preceded by the dame of honor, Mrs. Fannie Shelton, and the ring bearer, little Miss Julia Johnson, a sister of the bride.

The bride was pretty in a going away costume, a Russian green tailored suit with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. G. T. Dillard. The rooms were exquisitely adorned in autumn leaves, potted plants and cut flowers. In the dining room ices were served. A large company of friends and relatives and friends were present.

The gifts were many and useful. Mr. and Mrs. Paddyfote left over the Seaboard for Denmark, S. C., where they will make their future home, and where the groom holds a responsible position with the Voorhees Industrial School.
