REV. JAGGERS THANKS MRS. MOORE.

Columbia, S. C., October 4, 1921. To Whom It May Concern: To my surprise when I got home Mrs. Dr. Moore of this city had been there and left ten dollars ($10.00) for me and my work. May the Lord bless her and family and I'd like to find out many more who haven't taken a step like that who will.

I'd like to state also that the Ministers' Union has taken a step toward helping me in the work. Rev. N. F. Haygood and Rev. James made splendid talks today in behalf of my work. I hope I'm not asking too much of my creditors, but please have a little more patience, for I'm coming around to you as fast as I can.

Yours in Christ, Reverend Jagers.
