"It would only," said the General smilling, "have gone to the Patent Office to be worshipped by the Washington rebels." There was a pause, when General Lee said that most of the animals in the cav-airy and artillery were owned by the privates, and he would like to know, under the terms, whether they would be regarded as private property or the property of the government. I said that under the terms of the surrender they belonged to the government. General I be end over the letter and said that was so.
