Education vs. Knowledge.

[Marion Merchant and Farmer.]

comes from our uneducated c'asses. Let us educate all we can. If every child, black and white, should receive even a limited education, the country would have nothing to fear from this. Because an educated man sometimes becomes very vicious, or a woman goes from a college to a course of crime, Or it may come to pass, some dreary night, After a day that has been hard to bear, When you are weary, heart-sick and torlors And there is none to comfort or by care. it is no argument against the indiscrimiminate education of the masses.
