Be Patient with the Living. Sweet friend, when thou and I art gone Beyond earth's weary labor, When small shall be our need of grace When small small be offer need of grace From comrade or from neighbor; Passed all the strife, the toil, the care, And done with all the sighing— What tender truth shall we have gained, Alas! by simply dying!

Then lips too chary of their praise Will tell our merits over, And eyes too swift our faults too see, Shall no defect discover,
Then hands that would not lift a stone
Where stones were thick to cumber
Our steep hill path, will scatter flowers
About our pillowed slumber.

Sweet friend, perchance both thou and I, Ere love is past forgiving, Should take the earnest lesson home-Be patient with the living!
To-day's repressed rebuke may save
Our blinding tears to-morrow;

Then patience e'en when keenest edge May wet a nameless sorrow. 'Tis easy to be gentle when
Death's silence shames our clamor,
And easy to discern the best
Through memory's mystic glamour;
But wise it were for thee and me,
Ere love is past forgiving.
To take the tender lesson home—
Be retient with the living!

Be patient with the living!

The Rev. W. D. Mayfield returned to this city on Sunday and on Monday answered at Sandy Springs Baptist church, where a church counsel was assembled to try him for man." Acev. Dr. Chas. Manly, the Rev. Dr. Furman and the Rev. Dr. Mundy represented the Greenville church.

The specifications were that Dr. Mayfield had taken or attempt to take improper liberties with two ladies, sisters, in the lower section of the county. The ladies are of the highest respectability and standing and there is no breath against the name of either of them. Dr. Mayfield in his defence stated that he had known the ladies from childhood and felt no constraint in his intercourse with them and naturally took liberties be would not have ventured on with strangers. The actual act with which he was charged was putting his arms about the waist of the ladies on one occasion each, at different times and places. The evidence was that nothing wrong had been said and that when the familiarity was resented it was promptly desisted from:

It was concluded that the charges were sustained and that Dr. Mayfield bad been guilty of "conduct unbecoming a Christain gentleman, inasmuch as he had been indiscreet and had not borne himself with the care required by his position, although there was nothing to establish that he had evil in his heart. Sandy Springs church, where Dr. Mayfield has his membership, was advised to request him to withdraw his membership.

Dr. Mayfield and his friends claim that his connection with the Mutual Self Endowment composing the counsel, however, gives the verdict great weight and is a guarantee that it was reached after calm and prayerful consideration and with every purpose to be fair and to do what is right.

Editorial of the "Greenville News"

It is proper that the News should explain its incorrect report of the trial of Dr. Mayfield, printed yesterday morning. The information on which that report was based was chiefly derived from John D. Mayfield, son of Dr. W. derived from John D. Mayfield, son of Dr. W.
D. Mayfield. It was very naturally supposed that the facts could be accurately obtained from him and he was applied to because it was understood that the members of the Council would not be at liberty to give information of their official proceedings.

We do not know whether Mr. Mayfield was misled by somebody eise or deliberately deceived the News and the public by making statements he knew to be false.
