Dois From Greenwood.
GREENWOOD, S. C., Oct. 8, 1894.
Evangelist P. B. Kinnard, of Ninety-six, is conducting a tent meeting near Salak. Some four hundred people attended this meeting last Sabbath.
A carload of convicts passed through the city Saturday en route to Columbia from Fort Hill.
Our merchants have filled their stores with goods.
Mr. A. S. Sheppard has opened a restaurant in connection with his green grocery business.
Dr. S. E. Lathan, of Due West, spent awhile in the city Saturday.
There was a little advance in the price of cotton Saturday. The price of cotton seed also advanced somewhat.
C. E. Hall, special agent and detective of the Southern Railroad, is in the city looking after court cases of late railroad seizures and depredations.
Miss Mamie Pitts, of Cross Hill, has recently been the guest of Misses Annie and Naudie Major and other friends.
Mr. Henderson Stuart and Prof. Lindsay, of Crossena, were in the city Saturday.
Miss Sarah Hackett, of Gains, S. C., is visiting Misses Belle and Mamie Hill.
Miss Ola Hair, accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Levi Stawson, will return this week to her home at Prosperity, S. C.
Mrs. D. R. Joyce and her son, Mr. Marvin Joyce, were the guests last week of Mrs. Frank Keller.
Miss Kate Tolbert, of Edgetfield, is the guest of Miss Winona Durst.
Mr. J. S. Farlow has returned to the Co-operative store, after an absence of two weeks on the sick list.
Mrs. South and Miss Mamie Rampsey, dress-makers, are located over the Ruckel's store.
Mr. Huckleberry, of Lowndesville, is visiting his uncle, Mr. Moseley, proprietor of the Park Hotel.
Mr. Thomas Pope, of Groesville, was in the city last week.
Miss Annie Partlow, of Kirkcoves, is attending the Grady school.
Miss Marie McIlwain, of Abbeville, is spending awhile with Miss Fainlah Melton, of Salak.
Miss Lila Williams is visiting friends at Verdery last week.
Prof. Duocello and wife, of Montana, after sojourning several months in Verdery, leave today for their home.
While in Verdery last week, we noticed Messrs. W. A. Lomax and son were painting their store, and that Dr. H. Drennan had been making some improvement on his premises.
Rev. W. B. Wharton, of Verdery, went over to Tip Top, S. C. last week to unite in marriage a Mr. Sims and a Miss Pickett.

We hear of a number of hogs and cattle dying in different parts of the country.
Jerry Cooper, colored, living on Mr. Thomas W. Morton's place, six miles from Abbeville, has made, with the assistance of his own three consecutive years. He does not move from place to place like a great many other colored people, but has been living on the same place for the past fifteen years. In addition to raising cotton, he makes most of his own provisions. There is no doubt but what the colored people are treated as well or better in Abbeville county than they are in any other place in the world.
It is cheaper to make your own molasses than it is to buy it with five-cent cotton.
Several foxes have recently been caught near Abbeville.
The McCormick News says: Will Walker, colored, was accidentally shot at McCormick last Saturday by Mr. J. A. Dilleshaw. Will was holding a self-cocking pistol in his hand, and Mr. Dilleshaw asked him to let him see it, whereupon the negro did so, and Mr. Dilleshaw not knowing it to be loaded, commenced to pull the trigger, and the pistol fired a centre shot, killing him instantly. The shooting was purely accidental and the jury so rendered their verdict.
Several of our friends for their support during the recent primaries. We were hospitably treated by everybody in all parts of the county.
Master Hugh Fellers overturned his cart a few evenings ago, throwing him to the ground. The fall was so heavy as to break his arm.
Mr. J. W. Bowers has recently moved from Greenwood to Edgetfield county, where he will farm and merchandise.
Miss Bessie Goddard, of Laurens, is spending awhile with the family of Rev. W. B. Wharton, of Verdery, S. C.
The guest of Miss Louise Andrews.
Miss Mary Lou Major left here last Monday for Nashville, Tenn., where she will attend the Nashville Normal Institute.
The Golden Rod supper, given by the Kings Daughters in Bailey & Barksdale hall, was a success.
Mr. L. M. Moore has been elected superintendent of the Methodist Sabbath-school, in place of Mr. James F. Davis. Mr. Davis filled this position four years, and made a most acceptable officer.
