Home.
The prince rides up to the palace gate.
And his eyes with tears are dim,
For he thinks of the lowly maiden sweet
Who may never wed with him,
For home is where the heart is,
In dwelling great or small,
And there's many a stately mansion
That's never a home at all.

The yeoman comes to his little cot
With a song when the day is done,
For his dearie is standing at the door,
And his children to meet him run,
For home is where the heart is,
In dwelling great or small,
And there's many a stately mansion
That's never a home at all.

Could I but live with my own sweetheart
In a hut with a sanded floor,
I'd be richer far than a loveliness man
With fame and a golden store,
For home is where the heart is,
In dwelling great or small,
And a cottage lighted by twilight
Is the dearest home of all.

Noah was the first man to advertise. He advertised the flood and it came through all right. The fellows who laughed at the advertisement got drowned, and it served them right. Ever since Noah's time the advertiser has been prospering, while the other fellows have been swallowed up in the flood of disaster.

Don't Be a Fool.
Why will you pay from 10 to 15 dollars for a pair of gold spectacles to some traveling spectacle vender when you can get fitted at R. C. Bernau's for one-half the money.
Mr. Bernau and Mr. Johnson are graduate opticians and know how to fit glasses, having each taken a course in optics. They are always at their stand to correct any mistake and to make good their guarantee. We do not profess to be eye doctors but opticians and know how to fit glasses and eye needs. Treatment send your glasses to someone who knows how to do so. We will not give you blue glasses either and promise that they will cure your eye troubles, we believe they were made only for fancy price doctors and do no good and we have statements from eminent oculists affirming our belief. If you need glasses come to see us and we guarantee we can suit you or will return your money.
R. C. Bernau.

Look Out, Delinquents.
Astronomers say that there are at this month three comets racing towards the earth at the fearful speed of 100,000 miles per hour. The smallest of these comets, or planets, is estimated to be larger than this little globe upon which we exist, and the largest one which is headed directly for the earth is nearly three times as large. Should it continue in its present course it will strike us in about three weeks, and should such a thing occur this world would be torn to small fragments which would fall in rough space for ages to come. We publish the above so as all delinquent subscribers can pay up and thus be ready for the crash.

The Books of Registration will be Opened on the First Monday in December next and kept open for Three Successive Days for the Registration of Voters Entitled to Registration under the Constitution—For the Information of the People Attention is Called to the Following Provisions of the New Law, Approved the Fifth Day of March, 1896.

THE BOOKS OF REGISTRATION SHALL be opened by the Boards on the first Monday in April, 1896, at the Court House in each County, and kept open for at least six consecutive weeks. They shall be opened again at the Court House on the first Monday in June, July, August and September, A. D. 1896, and kept open continually for at least one week in each of said months. They shall be closed thirty days before the general election in 1896. After general election in 1896, the Books of Registration shall be opened on the first Monday of each month at the Court House and kept open for three successive days in each month until thirty days before the next general election. They shall be closed until the said general election shall have taken place. The offices and books must be kept open from 9 o'clock in the forenoon until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Board of Registration is the judge of the qualifications of all applicants for registration up to January 1st, 1896. Up to January 1st, 1896, every male citizen of this State and of the United States, twenty-one years of age, who is not an idiot, is not insane, is not a pauper supported at the public expense, and who has not been convicted of burglary, arson, obtaining goods or money by false pretenses, perjury, forgery, robbery, bribery, adultery, wife beating, housebreaking, receiving stolen goods, breach of trust with fraudulent intent, sodomy, incest, assault with intent to ravish, miscegenation, larceny, or crimes against the election laws, and who shall have been a resident in this State two years, (except ministers in charge of organized churches and teachers of public schools, and they after six months residence in the State), a resident in the County for six months, and in the polling precinct four months, and who after six months residence in the State, or can understand and explain any section of said Constitution and become an elector upon application for such registration. If it has been convicted of any of the crimes above-mentioned, a pardon of the Governor removes the disqualification.

In case any minor who will become twenty-one years of age after the closing of the Books of Registration and before the election, makes application under oath showing he is qualified to register, the Boards shall register such applicant before the closing of the books. Any person whose qualifications as an elector will be completed after the closing of the Books of Registration but before the next election, shall have the right to apply for and secure a registration certificate at any time within sixty days immediately preceding the closing of the Registration Books, upon an application under oath to the facts entitling him to such registration.

The registration of voters must be by polling precincts. There must be a Book of Registration for each polling precinct, that is for each township, or parish, or city, or town of less than five thousand inhabitants, or ward of cities of more than five thousand inhabitants. Each elector must vote in the polling precinct in which he resides. If there is more than one voting place in the polling precinct, the elector may vote at any voting place designated on the registration certificate. The Board of registration shall designate the voting place in the polling precinct at which the elector is to vote. If there is more than one voting place in the polling precinct, the Boards shall designate on the certificate the voting place selected by the elector.

Old certificates of registration are void. Every man who may desire to exercise the right to vote must apply for Registration.
