FROM DONALDS TO DUE WEST.

At the Kennedy House Mrs. E. P. Kennedy is making preparation to accommodate an unusually large crowd at the approaching commencement. Mr. Patton Kennedy will convey passengers to and from all trains. If you are expecting friends notify him as to the day and train on which they are coming and he will see that they are brought in promptly and in good style.

INVITATIONS SENT.

Including postage, the Philomathean and Euphemian Societies have each spent about forty dollars for invitations to their celebrations which take place in the Society halls Monday night, June 19th.

THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The interesting closing exercises of the Theological Seminary will be heard in the A. R. P. church Saturday evening June 17th at eight o'clock. There will be two graduates, Mr. J. M. Bigham of Chester, S. C., will make an address on Ritualism versus Religion. Mr. J. A. Black of Due West will make an address on The Spirit of Denominationalism. Mr. Black enters upon his work in the G. A. Presbyterian church. Mr. Bigham will labor for the present under the direction of the superintendent of Missions of the First Presbytery of the A. R. P. church.

The closing address of the occasion will be made by the president of the Seminary, the Rev. W. L. Pressly, D. D, and we have no hesitancy in saying that it will be up to his usual high standard.

MUSIC IN CHURCH.

In the A. R P. church the choir is led by Dr. E. H. Edwards, an experienced and successful musician. The soprano is admirably led by the charming voice of Miss Jennie Edwards who is well supported by Misses Nell Stack, Statia Wideman, Janie Young, Alma Brock, Fannie Wideman, Euphemia Young, and Docia Brock. Miss Ellen Edwards and Miss Mary Pressly sing alto. R. M. Gray and B. G. Pressly sing tenor. A strong volume of bass is furnished by J. L. Hunter, D. S. Edwards, L. O. Hunter, E. D. Ellis, C. Y. Love, J. W. Carson, L. Hickman, J. M. Bigham and G. L. Kerr.

Mrs. Esther Cochran and Master Robbie Cochran left Due West for Lewisville in Chester county Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Cochran completed her course in the Female College this year having done most excellent work in her classes.

After quite a pleasant visit with relatives at Lowndesville, Miss Lillian McDavid returned to Due West Monday of last week.

R. Clarence Jones left for his home at Camden, Ala., Monday morning. When last seen he was on his way to Donalds with a pretty young lady by his side.

Dr. J. J. Lindsay made one of his periodical visits to Pelzer last Saturday, returning home Monday morning.

TWELVE GUESTS.

A good woman was asked the other day if she expected any company during commencement. Her answer was, Yes, twelve persons have notified me that they would stay with us at that time, and very likely there will be others.

Jack Pressly, a son of Rev. Neill E. Pressly of Tampico, Mexico, is visiting his brother, Bonner Grier Pressly, who is a Sophomore in Erskine College, and will remain for commencement. Jack has been a student at Pantops Academy, Va., for the past two years.

GOOD FARMER.

Mr. John Ashley of Long Cane township has sold several loads of number one fodder in town lately. He has already sold this year five or six beeves and has nine more in his pasture. He has two or three good milk cows. Mr. Ashley is one of the best farmers in this section of the county and is thoroughly reliable in every respect.

Mr. Lucien Ellis has seventeen fine beeves in his pasture fattening for market. This is becoming a cattle country. A large number have been shipped to market and many others are being put in marketable condition.

Misses Louise and Rosa Brownlee, of Due West, and Miss Estelle Waller of Camden, Ala., spent two or three days quite pleasantly with the family of Mr. Jno. B. Bonner recently. They made a good many new friends and left a good impression, as the Due West girls always do.

Miss Mary Hunter of Mecklenburg county, N. C., is visiting Miss Mary Pressly and will stay over to hear Dr. Talmage speak. Miss Hunter's mother was Miss Doolie Boyce, and her father Dr. Lester W. Hunter who commands a large and lucrative practice near Charlotte, N. C. She has many friends here who will see that she has an enjoyable time.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK.

Dr. C. B. Cowan, W. E. Bell, James Bell, David Pressly, Clarence Jones, George Collins, Jim Pruit and John Pearman, went fishing Thursday last on Little river. They report a good catch of carp, suckers and other varieties of the finny tribe and spread a bountiful fish dinner on the banks of the river at five o'clock in the afternoon. It is said and is believed to be a fact that Jim Bell and Enoch Nance are the two most successful fishermen in the county. If any fish are to be had they are bound to get them.

Dr. Parker, a popular young dentist from Anderson county, attended the double marriage in Due West last Wednesday and visited a special friend in Brooklyn end.

The friends of Mrs. Tula Brownlee will regret to learn of her illness.

THE ROCK CROP.

The Ellis boys at Bethlehem bought fifty acres of land from Mr. H. P. McGee a few months ago. Before starting a plow in it they hauled off the land some two hundred loads of rock, more or less. They will utilize the rock on some other part of the plantation or sell them at some convenient season. These three brothers, all of them unmarried, live within their income, work hard and now own one of the best farms in this section of the county.

BALL GAME.

Erskine and Greenwood ball teams will play a game of base ball at Due West Wednesday afternoon, June 14th, at four o'clock. Wednesday, June 21st, (Commencement day) at four o'clock in the afternoon, Erskine and Greenwood will play a second game at Due West, and on that day will be seen on the ball grounds the largest crowd that has ever been seen on a ball ground in the upper part of the State. At each game the admission fee will be—

Greenwood held the State championship of the Southern league for three years, but she must play a good game if she beats Erskine this time. Up and at it, boys, and let us win both games from Greenwood.

BOYS THAT ARE EXPECTED TO TURN OUT TO BE PREACHERS.

Mrs. S. L. Wilson of Westminster is visiting her mother and brother here. She was formerly Miss Mary White Pearson, and has with her two handsome young sons, Frank Pearson and Parks Thompson. Mrs. Wilson is one of the most popular ladies that Due West has sent out and is no doubt exercising a wide and good influence in the community where she lives. She expects her boys to become preachers.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Jno. Henry Hagan and Will Leath have arranged to go in business at Greenwood. They will carry on a grocery business and a meat market. They are energetic and economical young men and will no doubt succeed. Mr. Leath has recently married and Mr. Hagan is thinking of taking the same step.

Miss Janie Caldwell, graduate of the Female College, is visiting her grandmother Mrs. A. M. S. Brice and will be here until after commencement. Miss Caldwell is from Chester. Her mother was Miss Janie Brice.

Miss Nannie Miller of Statesville, N. C., will stop with Mr. R. C. Brownlee, Sr., during commencement. Miss Miller's father is Mr. Dalton Miller, a successful and enterprising business man and her mother was Miss Mattie Witherspoon.

Miss Julia Brice Galloway, daughter of Rev. J. C. Galloway, is with her grandmother, Mrs. Brice, and of course will stay for commencement. Her mother was Miss Josie Brice.

Mr. W. J. Roddy of Rock Hill, Rev. T. W. Sloan, Mr. Ed Wideman and Miss Rebecca Wideman of Troy will be Mr. A. S. Kennedy's guests during commencement.

Miss Mattie Bowie, Miss Nettie Bowie, of Anderson, and Miss Mary Lou Turner of Greenwood will attend commencement exercises and stop with the family of Mr. L. D. Bowie.

Miss Ida Miller will be with Miss Lemmie Tribble during commencement.

Mr. S. Watson Reid and wife, of Charlotte, N. C., will enjoy commencement with the family of Dr. F. Y. Pressley

Miss Jennie Sondley of Abbeville, is with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Haddon, and will remain for commencement.

Miss Lula Blackwell had Belton friends to visit her a few days ago.

Ed Moorehead and Ellis Huckabee, two handsome young gentlemen from Lowndesville, spent a pleasant day with Due West friends last week.

Miss Carrie Wideman closed a successful school term at Bradleys last week and returned home Saturday afternoon. Miss Wideman, by her faithful and conscientious service as a teacher, won the good graces of both pupils and patrons and will find herself in demand in the future.

The bank account of Edward John McCain, Erskine's busy and energetic dime saver, has reached the sum of ninety two dollars and twenty-seven cents. Make his acquaintance when you come to commencement.

Mr. Bruce Giffen attended Princeton last session. He was pleased with his course there, made the degree of A. M., and is with friends and relatives in Ohio for the Summer.

IRRIGATION.

Mr. J. A. Devlin irrigated his Chickasaw bottoms last week that he has planted in corn. It was but little trouble and expense.

Bonner Grier Pressley of Tampico, Mexico, has been chosen manager of the base ball team for next season. Zeb Mangum was selected for captain and E. E. McCain treasurer.

Prof. J. Grier Pressly who has been teaching at Louisville, Ga., the past year returned home Friday afternoon. Everybody knows Grier Pressly, and everybody who knows him is irresistibly drawn to him.

EUPHEMIA'S OFFICERS

Paul A. Pressly will preside over the destinies of the Euphemian Society next session. D. H. Smith will occupy the Vice President's chair. Augustus Henderson will be Secretary. As Monitor Mr. C. S. McCain will keep a sharp lookout for evildoers. Mr. C. Y. Love will guard the Treasury. Mr. P. H. Moore will carry the library keys.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

The double wedding in the A. R. P., church Wednesday, June 7th, at high noon, was a recherche affair. A large number of invitations had been sent out and a crowd of about eight hundred persons had assembled to witness the double marriage. The contracting parties were Rev. I. Echols of Kentucky, and Miss Margaret McClintock Todd and Dr. W. R. Haynie of Belton, S. C., and Miss Eunice McClintock Todd. The church had been appropriately decorated with flowers and evergreens the day previous. The bridal party met at the residence of Mrs. J. L. Todd, the mother of one of the brides and grandmother of the other, and from there were conveyed in carriages to the church. A rustle at the door announced their arrival. Entering the front doors the four couples wended their way slowly down the long aisles. On the extreme left were seen Rev. I. I. Echols, and his best man Rev. W. B. Lindsay. In the second, aisle Miss Margaret Todd and her bridesmaid, Miss Janie Young. In the third, Miss Eunice Todd and her bridesmaid, Miss Mary Pressly. In the fourth, Dr. W. R. Haynie, and his best man Mr. John Horton. The respective couples took their places, a short prayer was offered by Rev. O. Y. Bonner, the marriage ceremony proper was performed by Rev. C. E Todd, and the closing prayer offered by Dr. W. M. Grier. After leaving the church Mr. and Mrs. Echols entered their carriage, and were driven to the home of their mother, Mrs. J. L. Todd, where they dined with relatives and friends and then took the afternoon train. They spent a day in Ashville and reached their Kentucky home Saturday afternoon. They will go to housekeeping at once. Dr. and Mrs. Haynie, after leaving the church, were driven to the country home of their father, Mr. James E. Todd, where they dined with relatives and a few young friends. They spent their honeymoon at Blowing Rock and will go to housekeeping on their return home.

Mr. Sam Todd, Mr. John Young, Mr. Moffatt Grier, and Mr. Calvin Todd were the ushers. We take Dr. Haynie to be about twenty-five years old. He is clean shaven, his carriage is erect, quick in his movements and withal rather good looking. Mrs. Haynie is a universal favorite in Due West.

Mr. Echols is somewhat older, has broad shoulders, a dark moustache and would be taken for a preacher any day in the week. Mrs. Echols is popular in Due West also.

Mrs. J. O. C. Fleming and children attended the double wedding and will remain in Due West until after the commencement.

HIS PROMOTION IS UNDERSTOOD.

Mr. W. E. McGee, the pleasant, popular and pushing passenger agent of the Southern Railway, with headquarters at Greenville, S. C., was in Due West on Monday looking after business. By the way, Mr. McGee is one of the many Donalds boys who are rapidly forging their way to success. We have always found him a prompt and accomodating official and can easily understand why he has been promoted from time to time.

Dr. Chalmers, Dr. Miller, Dr. Orr and other members of the board of trustees of Erskine College are expected to reach Due West next Monday.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES REPORT THEIR WORK.

Dr. Edwards now has with him the entire family of Rev. J. R. Edwards, including the missionary himself, Mrs. Edwards and their three sons, John Roddy, Frank and Ralph. The children speak the Spanish language.

The talk of Rev. J. R. Edwards, of Rio Verde Mexico, last Sabbath morning on the Missionary operations of the A. R. P. Church in that land were one of the most satisfactory that it has been our privilege to hear. He said the church at home had a right to know what her labo rers are doing there, and in this we think he is correct. He told of the magnificient work that Rev. Neill E. Pressly had accomplished in Tampico and the territory adjacent thereto during the past twenty years. That he had talked to a congregation of one hundred and twenty at that place on a recent visit in mid week and that frequently congregations of two to three hundred heard the gospel on the Sabbath.

In timed words he referred to the excellent school work that is being done there by Miss Macie Stevenson and her Mexican co-laborer. The work of Rev. J. S. A. Hunter on the table lands at El Maize also claimed his attention. Mr. Hunter has been in the Republic for about eleven years and his influence for good is permesting the entire territory of which El Maize is the center. The self sacrificing work of Miss Lavinie Neill in the school room was touched upon. The Saturday afternoon free lunch furnished to the poor by Dr. Kate Neel gives a splendid oppo-tunity for presenting gospel truth. Mr. Edwards also spoke encouragingly of the work at Rio Verde for which he is more directly responsible. Since locating at that point in 1895 he has received nineteen members into his church, put a school in operation and started an orphanage. He has in bank two hundred dollars contributed by one person for the erection of an orphanage building and the same person has promised another hundred dollars this year for the same purpose. The home mission work begun by the Tampico Presbytery is growing and promising.

Mrs. Dorcas Strange, who has been in Boston, Mass., for some months, will return to Due West during the month of June.

Next session the Adelphian Society of the Due West Female College will be officered as follows: Miss Laura Martin, President, Miss Elma Clinkscales, Vice-President; Miss Mamie Brice, Secretary, Miss Agnes Grier, Treasurer.

The Amelian Society made the following selection; Miss Jennie Lind Moffatt, President. Miss Rosa Brownlee, Vice President, Miss Nannie Morrison, Secretary.

Prof. Louie C. Galloway, who, as first assistant of the Union Springs, Ala., Male and Female College, has been filling the chair of Latin and Mathematics for the past two years, is in Due West for a season of rest and recreation. He reports one hundred and fifty-five pupils in the college. Five young ladies graduated this year. He is well pleased with his work. Union Springs is an enterprising town of three thousand people and the surrounding country a fine farming section. At Eufaula he met Capt. L. Yancy Dean, a one armed Confederate veteran, who attended Erskine College after the war and who used to thrill us with his eloquent speeches and debates in the Euphemian Society. With his keen black eyes, handsome face, commanding figure and rich sonorous voice, he was indeed to us the typical Southern orator.

Glorious Grace.

How wonderful, abundant and glorious is the grace of God as revealed in His Word. Its depths have never been fathomed by man. Its riches are so great that man can never exhaust them any more than fish can exhaust the ocean by drinking all of its water they need.

Grace as used in the Bible means God's kindness and favor freely bestowed upon man without any condition of merit on man's part. If we deserve what God gives it is not of grace. If we earn a favor from God then that favor is a reward, not a gift of free grace. He has promised rewards to those of His people who use opportunities for service faithfully. That is another thing than grace. Yet the very grace God bestows is absolutely necessary to our ever receiving any praise or reward for faithful service. We are saved by grace from the wrath of God against sin—grace made possible by the death of His Son. We are saved from the power of sin and made faithful in His service by grace received into the heart. This was made possible by the resurrection and ascension of Christ, who pours out upon us the same Spirit of grace which was upon Him when He was on earth. Christ was full of the grace of God; He wants those who follow Him to be full of the same grace. When our hearts are full of grace we shall treat our brothers and sisters in Christ as He would treat them. The grace of God in the heart, in so far as it is permitted to control us, will make us forgiving, kind, faithful, loyal to Christ and anxious for the salvation of sinners. As God forgives us, so we forgive; as He has helped us, so we will help others.

The Class Meeting Specially Seasonable To-day.

The class meeting is peculiarly appropriate to these times. Many dispute this. They tell us the institution is worn out. We strongly contend that there never was a period when it was more needed. In the rush of modern life how difficult it is to secure "quiet resting places." We live in such a whirl that reflection is hard to exercise. We need a voice bidding us stand still awhile. Such a voice is that of the class meeting. It affords an opportunity of meditation and prayer. Some of us think that if no words were spoken in a class meeting it would still be a precious means of grace for this noisy, driving, fevered age. Reflective means of grace are all too rare in the churches. If for no other reason, the class meeting is distinctly seasonable to-day. Many cannot secure the necessary quiet in their own homes. How good it is to get an hour in a chamber of the temple, and there, with like-minded friend, ponder and converse and pray. We urge this aspect of the class meeting. It is an offset to modern restlessness. It is a sanctuary of quiet. It is a "selah" in the loud, rapid psalm of life.

Be Good Deep Down.

An exemplary Christian life is the greatest magnet in the world to draw sinners to God. It is better than floods of eloquence and cyclones of entertainment. Just be good deep down in your heart and all the way through, and your power to attract people to the God who saves you will be boundless and unceasing. Men have sought out many inventions, but they have not improved on New Testament piety as a means of commending religion. An ungodly person respects a straightout righteous life more than anything else under the sun. He may affect to ignore it, or even to despise, it but in his secret soul he honors it more than can be told. By depth of integrity and uncompromising loyalty to God, compel your associates to believe in you, and you hold them as by silken cords. They cannot get away from you, nor forget you. The chances are that if faithful, you can lead them to Christ. We say again, nothing draws humanity to God and truth like holy happy living.

Listening well and answering well are among the greatest perfections that can be attained in conversation.

OLD BOOKS.

Their Contents Rather Than Their Dates Make Them Valuable.

"It is extraordinary," said a book collector the other day, "the value some people attach to old books simply because they are old. Not long
