WILLINGTON'S MATTERS.

A High-Priced Fowl—Abbeville's Brag Police Force—Sowing Oats and Wheat—Personals.

Willington, S. C., Oct. 23, 1899.

Rev. G. H. Burton was visiting among his congregation the first of last week.

Sam Cowan who was unwell for a few days last week is out again.

Mrs. S. P. Mouchett of Georgia has been visiting relatives in town.

Charlie Cowan who has been at home sick for few weeks spent last Tuesday with cousins in town.

Several of our townsmen and ladies saw the circus of Abbeville last Tuesday. Tney came back with the highest praise for the good order maintained by the police. There is no doubt but what Abbeville is far ahead of most towns in the State in having the best police force.

Messrs Joe Link and Perrin Wells visited friends at Calhoun Falls, yesterday.

We have leaned of the sad death of the father of Mrs. Lucian Link. He fell eighty feet from a scaffold while superintending the painting of a railroad bridge across the Chattahoochee River. Mrs. Link has the sympathy of all of our, town in her bereavement.

I. S. Porter spent four or five days in Augusta this last week. He had with him a freak in natural history. It is a fowl, half guinea and half chicken. It makes a very peculiar noise when trying to cackle. It is about the size of a half grown turkey hen with a neck about nine inches long. He has been offered $25 dollars for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Fair Hemminger entertained the young people of our town last Friday night at their home. Refreshments in the ways of candles were served.

Jno. W. Morrah & Co., are selling out their stock at cost preparatory of moving his store to Mt. Carmel. Some good bargains are offered.

Messrs R. W. Perryman and L. L. LeRoy are running a beef market and find ready sale for their beef. They give their business personal supervision thereby guaranteeing the best beef.

Large quantities of oats and wheat are being sown in this part of the county. A wise move we think, what all good farmers should do. C.

And we further certify that the credits allowed above are based upon vouchers for moneys paid both on account of School and Poll Taxes, this day shown me by said Treasurer of Abbeville County; and that we have examined each and every one and find same to be correct, this day of A.
