OUR SCHOOL.

Opened Under Good Auspices—Scholars and Teachers—All Hopeful.

The Graded School opened Monday with a large attendance. Lessons were assigned and on Tuesday regular recitations were heard, there being no delay whatever. Hereafter pupils who have had trouble in getting books, but this year a full supply of books were made. The building has been put in thorough repair and the large furnace has been made as good as new.

The Cotton Mill school opened last Monday at the same time that the Graded School was opened. About 35 scholars were in attendance the first day. Miss Gettel teaches this school. At present the school is in the old school house, but it is thought that the new house will be occupied before the cold weather sets in.

THE BLACK DIAMOND.

A Mournful Fact or Two to Distress Simple Godegones.

The big Black Diamond Railroad scheme has turned out worse than a golden brick and a committee of Tennesseeans recently went to London and found out the mournful fact that a number of our American investors and simple towns had been humbugged and unblinking pocket-picked by the promoters of this face plate fraud.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Jop McKellar Met Instant Death From Natural Causes.

Mrs. McKellar, wife of Jop McKellar of this county, died suddenly Friday night at the residence, amidst her family. She was apparently in her usual health when she, without any premonition, breathed her last. She was a relative of Judge Hudson of whom she was very fond. On his return from the city he was informed that she had been visited here. She was buried at Ebenezer Sunday.

"Prompt Delivery" is our motto. Call Phone 107 and see how quickly we can place the order in your home. Milford's Drug Store, Phone 107.

I am agent for the famous Hawkes Eye Glasses. Call and let me fit you a pair. Milford's Drug Store.

A. M. Hill & Sons will receive a car load of the celebrated Studebaker wagons this week. They are the leading wagon of the world. They will be all sizes to suit the farmers.

Probate Court.—Citation for Letters of Administration.

BY R. E. HILL, Esq., JUDGE OF PROBATE WHEREAS, R. E. COX has made suit to me, to grant him Letters of Administration of the estate and effects of Milledge E. Davis, late of Abbeville County, deceased.

These are therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said Milledge E. Davis, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Abbeville C. H., on Friday, the 21st day of September, 1900, after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand and seal of the Court, this 7th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and in the 125 year of American Independence.

Published on the 12th and 19th days of September, 1900, in the Press and Banner and on the Court House door for the time required by law.

Sept. 10, 1900, R. E. Hill, Judge Probate.

The State of South Carolina, COUNTY OF ABBEVILLE. PROBATE COURT.

In the Matter of the Estate of Wm. T. Milford, Deceased.

Petition for Settlement and Discharge. MR. MARY F. MILFORD as Executrix of said Estate having applied for settlement and discharge. It is ordered, that Saturday, the 13th day of October next be fixed for granting the relief prayed for.

Amos B. Morse's Locals. I will have associated with me from the first of next month, Mr. George White. I trust the friends of Mr. White will bear this in mind and give us a liberal share of their patronage.

Just received an elegant line of fine fresh Olives, at 15, 25, 45, and 50 cents a bottle. They are extra nice.

Try a bottle of "Aberdeen" Sauce, equal to "Worcester" and much cheaper. It will soon be time for sowing Fall seeds. In planting this line of crops, don't overlook "Lucerne" (Alpaca Clover), it is one of the hardest plants of its kind, sending its roots fifteen to twenty feet down into the soil, it gets the moisture if there is any to be had; does not have to be sowed every season, and gives the largest and most nutritious yield of any kind. Pure fresh seed will be in very soon, also Red and Crimson Clover, Barley and Rye.

"Sweet Clover Syrup" still leads the land, try a bucket, either gallon or half gallon size. Amos B. Morse.

Kerr's Locals. The Dexter mattress leads them all. Let us put one on your bed for 30 days and if not satisfied, return same. J. D. Kerr.

Our sale on Dexters are way beyond our expectations. They are going every day, call and get one. J. D. Kerr.

Beware of imitations. See that the Dexter tag is on every mattress. J. D. Kerr is sole agent for Abbeville county.

See our line of rugs and art squares, the handsomest ever shown in Abbeville, and prices are right. J. D. Kerr.

Our fall stock is arriving daily and we are going to sell you a full bill, if goods and prices are anything. J. D. Kerr.

How about a nice table set? We have them and the price are lower than the lowest. J. D. Kerr.
