CLEMSON BOYS RETURN.

Our town was taken by storm Monday afternoon, by the return of the Abbeville boys from Clemson. The school has been closed on account of a case of Scarlet Fever, and it was thought best to dismiss the boys than to run any risks of an epedimic; those who attend Clemson, are Messrs. Tom S. Perrin, J. Townes Robertson, W. Giles Templeton, Allen Long, Mack Henry, William L. Templeton, Sam Hill, and Will G. Hill.

Mr. Hertford Parks, of Columbia, spent a short while in the city Thursday with his father, Captain J. T. Parks.

L. W. WHITE'S STORES

Are Crowded Every Day with Delighted Buyers, Eager to Secure Bargains that are in Store for Them.

The month of October has just gone, and it proved to be, by large odds, the best month of the year for us. to make the two remaining months of the year 1900, even larger than October.

We have the Goods, and We Sell Them at the Right P

All we want is the customers to enable us to realize our wish. No pains will be spared to please everybody who us with a call. Come to see us and we will do you good. The quantity of Goods that is carried out from our stores ev is the best evidence that the people are pleased at their dealings with us.

No Matter What You May Need We Can Supply You.

If you need Dry Goods come and see if we have not got them. If you need Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Underwear, Blankets Carpets, Rugs, Mattings, Crockery, China, Glassware, you will find we have all these and more.

Give us your attention and we will surely sell you Goods.....

L. W. WHITE.

CONTRIBUTED LOCALS.

What "M" Sees and Hears on His Rounds About the City.

Abbeville, S. C., Dec. 5, 1900.

SALES DAY IN THE CITY.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather a large crowd was in attendance last Sale Day representing all parts of the county. The day passed off quietly without special incident. A number of sales were made by the Master, Probate Judge and Sheriff. Very little street trading in stock was done. Toward noon the rain began to fall and the crowd soon dispersed.

CONFERENCE OF THE A. M. E. CHURCH.

The Conference of the A. M. E. Church assembled in this city last Wednesday. There were two Bishops and about 100 ministers present, besides a number of delegates. The crowd in attendance was very large, especially on Sunday when everybody turned out in full force. The Bishops expressed themselves as having a very pleasant session and highly appreciated the cordial welcome and hospitality extended to their body during their stay in the city. The Conference adjourned Sunday night and all left Monday morning for their respective homes and fields of labor

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. D. R. Mitchiner, accompanied by his friend, Dr. C. C. Gambrell, left last Monday for Lumpkin, Georgia, where he will wed today Miss Lala Deal of that city. Dr. Mitchiner with his bride will return at once to Abbeville, where they will make their home, and where they will be welcomed by many friends.

THANKSGIVING DINNERS.

Last Thursday being Thanksgiving day, the stores of the city were closed, and all business suspended, giving our city quite a Sunday like appearance. The usual "menu" for this day was found in many homes. Turkey, mince pies, cranberry sauce, etc. Gilliams restaurant was in the front rank with a "big dinner," the tables were spread in style, and a bountiful supply of good things claimed the attention of his numerous guests who congratulated Mr. Gilliam on the success of his first public Thanksgiving dinner.

COMING AND GOING.

Miss Lillian Gambrell spent several days of the past week with homefolks, returning to Williamston Female College last Monday.

Miss Lizzie Penney with Miss Lena Graves, of Due West, spent last Thursday in the city.

Mr. Belton Lyles, Jr., of Spartanburg, spent last Thursday in the city with friends.

Miss Eliza Thomson spent one day of the past week with homefolks in the city.

Messrs. Gaines Hammond and Ed Stalnaker, with Miss Florrie and Miss Effie Hill, of Greenwood, spent last Thursday in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Hammond.

Mr. Ed Neal, of the Seaboard, spent several days of the past week with friends in the city.

Miss Annie Crowther, accompanied by her brother, passed through the city last Thursday enroute to Poughkeepsie Business College.

Miss Ellen Gambrell and Miss Isabel Haddon, accompanied by Messrs. Clifford Haddon, Lewis Blount and George Clark, spent last Saturday and Sunday very pleasantly with friends in the city of Due West, and also attended the fine musicale given by Prof. Abt.

Dr. Neuffer and Miss Kate Marshall spent a delightful day last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Norwood, of Calhoun Falls.

Mr. J. D. Kerr spent Thanksgiving day with relatives in Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Devlin, of Due West, were shopping in the city last week.

Mrs. W. R. Bullock, after a delightful stay with relatives in the city of Augusta, returned last Thursday.

FINE HORSES AND MULES.

Mr. J. S. Stark received last week a car load of fine horses and mules, to which he invites the attention of the public.

BIRTH.

At Abbeville, November 30th, to Mrs. A. H S. Day, a son.

RETURNED FROM CONFERENCE.

Dr. Daniel, J. F. Lyon, and Dr. S. F. Killingsworth, returned last Monday from Conference. Dr. Daniel will move from Abbeville to Charleston. His successor will be Rev. R. H. Jones, a brother of our townsman, Mr. Hampton Jones. Dr. Daniel has served this people well and faithfully, and many of his congregation regret to give him up, both are glad to know he goes to a splendid charge—old Trinity in the City by the Sea.

ORCHARDS AND WHEAT SOWING.

A large number of fruit trees have been brought to this city the past week and scattered throughout the county. This is a good move toward prosperity, as orchards should be set on every farm. Sowing of wheat has been greatly retarded by the recent bad weather. A large area however will be planted this season, and bearing this in mind capitalists should not forget the building of the Abbeville flouring mill at this place, as we believe such an enterprise would meet with great success; the same as at other places. The fall sowing of oats and clover look well up to this time.

The storm signal is out for today. Look out for bad weather and cold wave the next few days.

SALE DAY.

A Great Assemblage of People—Quite A Lot of Official Sales.

As usual in December, quite a large number of tracts of land were sold, and the bidders were anxious to buy. A large crowd stood in front of the Court House steps, while Auctioneer Bowie made speeches, and offered lands for the Master and the Probate Judge.

Locals.

New seeded raisins, currents, citron, almonds and cocoanuts at Glenn's.

Fresh oat meal, imported and domestic macaroni, mackerel, white fish, hams, breakfast bacon at Glenn's.

(Our Motto.)

L. T. & T. M. MILLER,
Dealers in Fine Groceries,
Phones 75 and 85. Hotel Block and Factory Hill.

I MOST CORDIALLY INVITE...

My friends and the public to call and see my stock of Fall and Winter Goods. I have selected the same with great care and, for the most part, prices are no higher, with cotton at 9 and 10 cents than when the "Staple" was selling for half as much. Special care was taken in purchasing my Boots and Shoes, and I can fix up family lots of Shoes, Clothing and Hats at astonishing low figures. Women's Shoes up to 10's and Men's Shoes up to 14's. I have added a line of Trunks this season, and can surprise you on prices.

I have a splendid stock of Saddles, Saddle Blankets, Laprobes, Double Lines, Breeching, Leather Collars, &c.

A few sets of Buggy Harness at a bargain. Dry Goods, Notions, Hardware, Fancy and Heavy Groceries, Oats, Rye, &c., for seeding. Only the best. My stock is so varied that I cannot mention everything. Look through my locals for specialties.

Send in your orders or call in person. Will be glad to see you and will treat you right.
