Turning Up Their Noses.
Senator McLaughlin's opponents seem to be greatly exercised because of his political standards, and because he has received evidence of substantial support. Whenever a new supporter of McLaughlin is announced they forthwith begin to try to prove that he isn't much account anyway.
Even a man like Gen. M. C. Butler comes in for his share of ill-humored criticism. The merchants, the manufacturers, and the business men who support McLaughlin are sneered at very much as the monied aristocracy regarded them before the war. "Shop-people" were good enough in their way, and they were sometimes tolerated, but they were seldom embraced in society by the select set. It may be that some of our supporters hold themselves to be better, and superior to the merchants, the manufacturers and the business men of the country. But we leave it to the people to say if there are not individuals in these classes that have done more to build up the State than the combined efforts of all the newspapers.

Improving.
If we are not in error General Hampton remained in the service of the McKinley administration until removed. The General occupies higher ground now. He would not accept anything from Washington.

Road Improvement.
Prospects for a Good Road to Verdery to take the Place of the Almost Impassable Dendy's Bridge.
The Press and Banner is delighted to note the prospect of an improved crossing of Long Cane at Dendy Bridge on the road to Verdery. The road is a very good one, and the bridge, the Dendy's bridge across Long Cane will probably be abandoned for a sensible and reasonable reason. The contemplated changes it is thought, will not only give a good road to take the place of the old road in Abbeville County, but it will shorten the distance possibly half a mile.

McLaughlin's Mistake.
The offer of McLaughlin to make General Hampton postmaster at Columbia was a mistake, but happily for the Senator, the General declined the offer.

The Greenville News.
In the Greenville News appeared last week an editorial scolding the News and Courier, and, sometimes, we regret that our interesting contemporary was a little bit ill-humored. The argument was all right, however; but if you don't mind being spoken to by a little country editor, we suggest that good humor and forbearance are more effective than anything else. The man who is conscious of being in the right can always afford to be courteous. It is the other fellow that betrays his sense of weakness or defeat by getting vexed. You know we are on the right side of the McLaughlin question and we can afford to be good humored.

The Greenville News.
If our Mountain City neighbor will bear with us a little more, we would suggest that it be especially courteous to the News and Courier because of the great good it is doing McLaughlin. You see McLaughlin secured the government exhibit after Charleston's chosen friends had failed, and people in all parts of the State, as well as in Charleston, felt that to McLaughlin some credit is due. And then they do not quite understand why the mountain should accept his favors and then abuse him. When the News and Courier seems oblivious of McLaughlin's friendship, and then proceeds to criticize unkindly the Senator, his friends will stick the closer to him.

"The News and Courier Will Elect McLaughlin."
These words we have heard more than once on our streets. Of course the Press and Banner does not know how a large per cent of our fellow-citizens will vote in the fight on McLaughlin. It may be that many voters do not themselves know, how they will vote, but we do know that up to this time we have heard of no man in this County who had made up his mind to vote with the enemies of McLaughlin. He would not, of course, get the whole vote, but we were speaking of what we have heard. Among the names of those who have expressed themselves as friendly to McLaughlin could be mentioned some most excellent citizens in this County who were at one time so intensely Tillmanite that they would not allow an anti-Tillman paper in their houses.

The Difference.
In the years that are gone Mr. Tillman, if we are not mistaken, was very severe in his denunciation of Hampton for his proposed interference at Aiken in the Congressional race. Now, those who take Senator McLaughlin for a fool, desire him to let Tillman put in his lip against him in joint discussion. Tillman will find that his gratuitous intermeddling in the race that doesn't concern him will be a very unprofitable business, even as it was to Hampton.

TROY'S TOPICS.
Popular Preacher - Good Church Worker - Children in the Wood - Church Union - Visitors.
Troy, S. C., May 8th, 1901.
The hot weather made a "swop" down on us, but the farmers are glad to see it, as most cotton had to be planted over.
Mrs. J. C. Kline and children from Abbeville have been down among relatives for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sheppard from Liberty Hill were pleasant visitors here last week.
On the fourth Sabbath of this month at Hopewell there will be two services with the "Sacrament" dispensed. Lunch will be on the grounds. It is a great pleasure to know that Rev. W. J. Wylie will serve this dear old church until September. "May peace be within her walls, and prosperity within her palaces."
There will not be service on Saturday.
Mrs. D. W. Dowlin is back from Laurens, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Willie Borsides.
Mrs. T. H. Robinson and little girl from Corsicana, Texas, are here to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robinson.
Mr. A. B. Kennedy will soon rebuild on his lot recently made vacant by fire.
Messrs. White and Puckett have moved in their new store and things look quite "starchy" around them.
Mrs. Eliza Boozer is down from Greenwood visiting her nieces, Mrs. N. Dandy and Mrs. Alice Bradley.
We see the name of Bradley suggested as a good place to hold the A. R. P. Young People's Convention. We say yes, and amen, for we are sure those good people irrespective of denomination will give you a cordial greeting. Mrs. J. M. Cuddy of our town is one of the committee.
Mrs. J. D. Neel fell recently receiving painful but not serious injuries.
Miss Lizzie Harvey, who is successfully teaching school near Greenwood, gave her pupils an "outing" and day of picnicing in a pretty grove near her school house. All the neighborhood turned out, and a "big time" generally was had. We can speak that we do know she is an exceptionally good teacher, and may she have her instructive work with many visible results.
There is a plan under way of uniting Old and New Abbeville and Hopewell churches in a group, and calling them a pastor, which is a good union. "In union there is strength." Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Morey who spent the winter here, and are pleasantly remembered by all, left not long since for their home in Washington, D. C. where they have a daughter, Miss Nellie, has a splendid position in our State capital.
The days of excursions, picnics and amusements is high at hand, and in a few weeks rest and recreation for worn out school marms and tired people, will bring the "school room" now looks dull and dreary.
Miss Nellie Presley after spending a week at Abbeville with her sister, Mrs. W. T. Bradley, has returned home.
The ladies of Lebanon Missionary Society say they had a gospel tract church service on the 4th above church a few days ago. He is a splendid A. R. P. preacher and an excellent "people's preacher."
We are glad to know Mr. J. N. Robinson has quit business at McCormick, and come back home to stay. He knows where the "wells" of South Carolina lie.
Mr. Albert Blum, a good citizen of our town died yesterday morning. He has been in feeble health a long time. He was a native of Switzerland, but had been amongst us for thirty years. He was a member of the A. R. P. church. He leaves a daughter, two sons, and a kind and good wife, besides many friends. He will be buried here. Nick.
