ESTABLISHED 1844

IN FULL BLAST for FALL TRADE.

After months of study and careful buying my efforts have been crowned with success, and I am now ready for Fall customers. Some lines are complete, while in other lines some goods are yet to come. It is now the beginning of second year's business with you, and after studying your wants we feel sure we are in a position to better serve you than ever before. Our motto will continue to be "QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS, OR LIVE AND LET LIVE."

While in the Northern markets I changed my plans and brought on a nice line of cheap clothing. The bargains were so tempting I could not let them pass. These bargains are now on our counters and the price you will find to be very reasonable, much lower possibly than you ever saw the same materials before. We want you to inspect the lines and then we feel sure our interests will be safe in your decisions.

12 Suits made from a fair grade of worsted that should bring $4, our price only $3. All sizes.

18 Suits from same material in better grade that will please the most fastidious taste. We will throw these on the Bargain Counter at $5 per suit. A better bargain never offered.

In chevots we certainly have a very strong line in new colors and cuts. These range in price from $5 to $10 per suit, every design is a real bargain and should be of interest to those desiring good clothing at a small price.

The above will give you an idea of our line, so when you want a suit to cost not over $10 come and see.

The Boys Have not Been Forgotten.

We have a fine line of Boys' Suits from the tot to the grown boy, and want you to bring the gents in and let us fit them up. The values are great, the styles superb.

Pants! Pants! Pants!

Do you wear them? You do. Well, we have excelled our anticipations in this line and are prepared to show you an immense line from the cheapest to the best. We will not ask you an enormous profit, but will sell you the best materials for the money that human intelligence can imagine. All the new weaves and designs. Pants from 50c to $5 per pair. You would do well to get our price, then be posted.

By special efforts we have secured a line of large waist Pants for tall, thin men, and by next week we will be enabled to show large sizes (40 to 46) for fat men.

Come, inspect the Largest Line in Town.

KENDALL'S Leader of Low Prices.

LOWNESVILLE NEWS.

Reunion of Company I, 14th S. C. V. -Speeche, Dinner, Etc.

Lowndesville, Sept. 9, 1901.

Mr. Jas. T. Lattimer went to Abbeville Monday on business.

Rev. J. L. Daniel went to Abbeville to meet his family who had been with relatives in Laurens for about two weeks.

Mr. Herbert Brooks, High School assistant in this place, for the next scholastic year, came in Tuesday and has since been forming the acquaintance of his future patrons and others.

Miss Sallie Giles of Anderson came down Wednesday morning and has since been with the family of her uncle Mr. Wm. Moore.

Some of the old soldiers of Co. I, 14th Regiment of S. C. Volunteers met here on Tuesday and made the necessary preparations as to stand, tables and seats for the reunion on Thursday. The ground selected for the reunion is the spring was the most suitable place for such an occasion to be found, as to shade water, etc.

Mr. D. M. Lipcomb of Ninety Six, accompanied by Miss Louise Murphy of Anderson, who had spent sometime with friends in Columbia, came Wednesday evening.

Hon. A. C. Lattimer and his daughter, Miss Anna Lattimer of Beaton came over Wednesday.

Mrs. Will Mattison of Deans was with her sister, Mrs. A. V. Barnes for a day or two last week.

Dr. J. C. Harper and Mr. B. A. Davis of Starr came down Wednesday and remained till Friday.

Rev. Foster Speer left Thursday morning for Central where he went to take charge of the High School at that place, having been elected principal.

Thursday was a big day for our town. More interest was shown in the reunion of Co. I, 14th Regiment, S. C. V. than any of its predecessors. On the above morning, early in the people began to come in along all roads centering in this place, and by 10 a. m. a crowd supposed by judges, to be about 500 had gathered around the spring.

Mr. J. E. Moseley, master of ceremonies called the meeting to order and Rev. J. L. Daniel opened it in an impressive prayer. Then Gen. M. L. Bonham, one of the most prominent and distinguished lawyers at the Anderson Bar, was introduced. Although he was too young to take part in "our little unpleasantness" of 1865, yet his honored father did, and the son had learned from him some of the lessons taught in that hard school, and had had imparted within him a lofty patriotism as well as an exalted opinion of the sacrifices made, and the hardships endured by those who took part in the struggle in which the gathering of the day was commemorative, and naturally our people expected great things of him in the way of a speech to the old soldiers, and they were not disappointed. He is a fluent speaker, a fine orator, and his address was such an one as was looked for, and such an one as was most pleasing to his hearers. The general is highly esteemed by all of our people and they would be glad to have him with us often.

The next speaker was Hon. I. H. McCallis, who although not informed of the expectation that a speech would be looked for from him, till two or three days before the meeting, yet he discharged the duty in a highly creditable way to himself, and pleasing to all present. Neither was he, because of his age, "at the front," but he too, is fully aware of the troublous times, and is fully alive to the needs of those who are left behind and were at the front, and never fails to relieve their wants when he learns of them. He is fully alive to the needs of those who were engaged in the war upon the part of our own dear Southland, and of his means has ever liberally contributed to the necessities of those engaged in the war, and many others whose needs were known to him.

Next in order of the old horse, Gen. R. R. Hemphill of Abbeville. He is well known to the able Editor of the Abbeville Medium. He is at all times prepared and at home before a crowd. Although he was in the front at the outbreak of the war, being fired by that military spirit, that spirit of home defense, which found a lodgment in the breasts of all classes and sizes of our people in '61 shouldered his musket, and went to the front, and valiantly did his part in extending for the right. His experiences during four years eminently fitted him to fully realize the hardships of those years and to get into a fellow feeling, a kindly sympathy for his still living comrades of the days long gone by. There is no man in the State better equipped for an occasion like the one of last Thursday than Gen. Hemphill. His speech was very refreshing to the remaining members of Co. I who were present, as he remembered and related reminiscences of the active and trying part taken by his old comrades. The day had not reached us, and it is to be hoped that it never will, when the gallant deeds of our soldiers, of '61, will fall to the ears of the generations to come with the greatest interest and beget a spirit of emulation, which shall be the pride of our nation.

Each of the speakers very feelingly referred to the gradually thinning ranks of the old veterans, and called for a more generous response upon the part of the State, to the increasing wants, as the years go by, of the survivors of the "Lost Cause." It is a shame to be told, that in this State, that the temporal condition of at least some of the defenders of our homes is so pitiable. This ought not to be. The fact is not said because of interest or selfish motives, but through sympathy for those in need.

At the close of Gen. Hemphill's speech the chairman cordially invited all of the Confederate veterans present to repair to the table, and partake of the dinner provided.

He went and found a table loaded with everything to make up a first class dinner, other tables were equally well loaded for all others present.

Twelve carcasses were well barbecued by Mr. Joe Egan, Manager.

Every crowd that came, large or small, brought a box or basket well filled with every thing that is good to eat, and they were all put to use.

The contents of several boxes and baskets were not touched.

After the large white crowd was well filled the negroes present, about 25 or 30 were given the remainder.

This report would be incomplete without making mention of one, to whom, in an especial manner, the credit of the splendid success of the reunion of Co. I, is due.

Mr. E. W. Harper is the greater part of the oldest living son of Maj. H. H. Harper who was elected by acclamation as the first Captain of Co. I. He contributed liberally of his time and means to the grand purpose of making of the late reunion of Co. I, a time of great pleasure not only to its few remaining members, but also to all others who might honor the occasion with their presence.

After the close of the reunion, Hon. I. H. McCallis in a few complimentary words introduced Hon. A. C. Lattimer who made an interesting and instructive political speech. He is well posted as to the public questions of the day and was given marked attention.

Sheriff C. J. Lyon of Abbeville was present on that day shaking hands with his many friends present.

Messrs J. K. Watson, R. J. McNeill and Robt. Mars of Mt. Carmel were with us for a day or two.

Mrs. Joseph Britt and her son, Dr. J. B. Britt, of Wileman were for several days with the family of Mr. T. B. Clinckscale, non-Indian of the first named. On their return home Miss Sue Lou Clinckscale went back with them.

Miss Pearl Dean of Leas came down about the middle of last week and is still with friends in this place.

Dr. A. J. Speer left here last Wednesday for some place in the mountains. He is supposed to be absent several days in a "Grove." More anon, perhaps.

A. Hall brought in the first bale of the new crop of cotton to this place last Thursday, 5th Sept. He sold it to Mr. E. R. Horton for $100.

The venerable Mr. J. J. Kennedy died last night at the home of his nephew, Mr. W. T. Cunningham at Monterey. He was in his eightieth year since last May, was born and raised near this place--was a life long Presbyterian, was well known and highly esteemed by all who knew him. There were none to be found to say one word against him. He was a good man and leaves a good record behind him. His remains were laid to rest immediately after the 11 a. m. service yesterday, in Providence cemetery.

Mrs. B. Berry Allen has been absent ten days from her home, at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Milton Earle Lee, who lived near Anderson C. H. Mrs. Lee died on the 29th of Aug leaving a devoted husband and two children.

She had many friends and classmates in this and Greenwood counties, who remember her as a true and tried friend, especially those who were with her in the Female Seminary taught by Gen. L. M. Ayer of Anderson.

Miss Meta Ad Vera Allen will return to Limestone College on Tuesday, the 19th.

The former has the chair of History and English and Miss Vera goes to prepare the College course. Mrs. Allen's mother will go with them as far as Anderson C. H.

Mr. J. W. Kirkpatrick of Honeta Path was very ill last week.

The real thing...

Particular people insist on having the finest flavored Teas. They are right, for really good Tea not only delights the drinker—it goes further. The O. & O. brand is the first pickings of early spring Tea tips. Has that fragrant bouquet, arising from a rich, full flavored cup. Great strength combined with good body makes it cheaper in the end. A taste tells the tale. Try it. We also have the nicest 50c mixed Tea in town.
