The Daughters of the Confederacy will give a dime reading Friday evening at the residence of Mr. R. M. Haddon. An interesting program has been arranged and a cordial invitation is extended to all. The proceeds of the entertainment will aid in the erection of the Confederate monument in this city. Come out and help a good cause.

The voting for the "Queen of the Carnival" will soon begin at Milford's Drug Store. Each young gentleman pays ten cents for the privilege of voting for his favorite. There are a number of beautiful young ladies in Abbeville and the ballot is certain to be close and exciting.

Mr. Frank Gibert, of Lebanon, is clerking at E. A. Templeton's, where he will be glad to serve his friends.

Mr. Charles Allen is quite sick at his mother's home. His friends hope that he will soon be convalescent.

The Graded School opened on Monday with a full attendance. A number of children from the country entered, and everything seems to point to a successful year. The arrangement of the teachers is as follows:

First Grade—Miss Winton Parks.
Second Grade—Miss Clara Wham.
Third Grade—Miss Mary L. Robertson.
Fourth Grade—Miss Jennie Perrin.
Fifth Grade—Miss Kate I. Harris.
Sixth Grade—Miss Hattie Brogden.
Seventh Grade—Mr. Rook.
Eighth Grade—Miss White.
Ninth and Tenth Grades—Miss Lulu Griffen and Mr. Gilliam

Mr. J. S. Graves has given to the Long Cane Cemetery Society a pump for the new well. This is a great convenience, and the help is much appreciated by all the members of the Society.

DESERVED PROMOTION.

Mr. Dick Sign is Now Conductor on the S. A. L.

The Seaboard Air Line Railroad has given profitable employment to many Abbeville boys, and none have been more faithful, or more deserving of promotion than Flagman Dick Sign, who is now freight conductor on that road. For years Mr. Sign was employed as boiler maker and in other departments of the shops. Afterwards he became flagman, and for several years Dick Sign, with a single exception, answered every call that was made upon him, and sometimes the business of the road was such as to make the demands very exacting and quite trying on his physical endurance, but he was determined to be faithful, and stuck to his business through sunshine and rain, as well as through heat and cold. The officials of the road were so well pleased with his efficiency and his fidelity that he was promoted last week to Conductor of a freight train. When he has proven his ability for still higher places we shall expect him to be promoted again. The Press and Banner rejoices at the success of any Abbeville boy, and Mr. Sign's promotion is especially gratifying to us. Attached to the office of conductor is a good salary, which will be very acceptable to him and to his family. Hurrah for Conductor Sign and the S. A. L.

Haddon's opening at Due West store Friday and Saturday of this week. Ladies of Due West and vicinty are cordially invited to attend. W. E. Edwards, Manager.

Remember Haddon's opening at Abbeville next week on Wednesday and Thursday, 24th and 25th inst.

EAST END.

What "M" Sees and Hears on His Rounds in Country and in Town.

Abbeville, S. C., September 15, 1902.

THE PRIMARY IS OVER.

And Abbeville is ahead on candidates. Over fifty four thousand people of the third district rejoiced at the election of Hon. A. C Latimer, U. S. Senator. Over 8,000 people rejoice at the splendid vote that elected Hon. Wyatt Aiken as Congressman. 45,739 friends rejoice at the magnificent vote received by Mr. A. W. Jones, which elected him to the office of Comptroller General. Hon. Frank B. Gary received a highly complimentary vote for Lieut. Governor and was only defeated by a small percentage of the votes cast for this office. Had his friends known his strength and popularity as they now do he too would have been elected. Mr. Frank C DuPre received a most complimentary vote surprising his most intimate friends, and in his election over our worthy friend, J. S. Gibert for School Commissioner the people have a man who will no doubt guide the affairs of this important office to the entire satisfaction of the people and with credit to himself, even as his popular predecessor. Mr. David Gilliam received a handsome vote for the office of County Supervisor running neck and neck with Capt. Nickles until the last and when he saw he was defeated he spoke out like a man, shook hands with, and congratulated his opponent, this was equal to the manly conduct of Col. Talbert toward Capt. Heyward. Mr. W. S. Coturan also received a splendid vote as representative, but DeBruhl and Carwile came in on the home run. Look over this list with those mentioned before and say whether or not the people of Abbeville County are not to be congratulated. They are all good men and true and will serve the people with fidelity, looking always to the best interests of their constituents. Three cheers for Abbeville and her candidates.

CITY DOTS HERE AND THERE.

Capt. L. W. White returned last week from Northern markets, where he has purchased a large and attractive stock of goods which will make every department in his three store repiete with up-to-date and stylish goods suitable to the wants of the people of Abbeville City and County.

Mr. A. B. Morse left last Monday for Northern markets, where he will purchase his usual large and well assorted stock of general merchandise.

Miss Sarah Sibert, the charming guest of Mrs. John Lyon, and who has been attending the Summer School, left for her home at Troy last Monday.

Miss Hattie Green, of Due West, is enrolled as a pupil of the Abbeville Graded School. Miss Green is boarding with her brother, Mr. W. P. Greene.

Mr. M. T. Coleman, one of our wide awake and popular salesman, left last Monday for St. Louis.

Mrs Nannie Wardlaw, after a delightful stay of two months with friends in Winchester, Virginia, is expected home next week and will, we presume, remain as saleslady in the store of her brother, Capt. L. W. White.

Miss Olive O'Bryant, after a pleasant visit to friends in Anderson and Greenville returned home last week.

Many friends learn with regret that Rev. Edward McCrady rector of Trinity Church of this city has accepted a call to a church in Dallas, Texas, and will leave us soon for the Lone Star State. Mr. McCrady and family have hosts of friends in Abbeville, who have for them a warm place in their affections and will follow them with best wishes where ever their lot may be cast.

Miss Stella and Miss Estie Douglass, left last Thursday for Livingston, S. C.

Miss Allie May Power will leave today for Asheville, N. C. where she goes to attend College.

Mrs. W. R. Bullock, is home again to the delight of her many friends.

Miss Evans, after a very pleasant stay with relatives in the city, left yesterday for her home in Florence, being accompanied by her sister, Mrs. F. B. Gary, who will spend some time with relatives and friends in her old home. Miss Evans is one of our charming visitors, who is ever welcome, and who always receives a cordial greeting from many friends.

Miss Maie McIntosh, another attractive guest of the city, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Lewis Smith, left last Monday for her home in Charleston.

Miss Bessie Murray is now spending a most delightful time with relatives and friends in Greenwood.

Dr. J. W. W. Marshall has just returned from a pleasant trip to Cartersville, Ga., where he was the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. Calhoun.

Mrs. Theodore Furman of Atlanta, is in the city on account of the extreme illness of her uncle Mr. C. D. Allen.

Mrs. M. C. Owen on last Friday gave her Sunday School Class a delightful picnic at Klugh's park. Ice cream and cake were served and the little folks enjoyed every moment of the afternoon.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Eugene Wardlaw and Mr. Jeff Nickles are now salesmen in the store of Mr. W. D. Barksdale where they are ready to serve their friends with the best of bargains, and will extend to them a hearty welcome.

Mr. R. W. Mason of Verdery, may now be found in the store of Mr. Jones F. Miller, where he will be pleased to see his friends.

RURAL NOTES ON ROUTE NO. 3.

Mrs. Mary W. Parker left last Saturday for Greenville where she will be the guest of Mr. Thomas F. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker spent last Sunday with homefolks at Bellview.

Mrs. Mattie Wilson who has been sick so long is now better and is spending awhile with her brother, Mr. W. J. Edwards and family hoping the change will prove beneficial to her speedy recovery.

Miss Ellen Link attended church at Lebanon last Sunday and spent the night with her friends the Misses Gilbert returning home Monday.

Miss Lucy Evans one of Clemson's prettiest young ladies, is visiting at Lebanon.

Mr. B. G. Reese and J. S. Bowen from the Savannah side were in the city last Saturday.

Messrs Gilliam and McGill are now running their cotton gin on full time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McAllister were called to the city last Monday on account of the illness of their daughter, Mrs. T. H. Maxwell.

Many friends ask daily after Mr. W. T. Penney and wish for him an early recovery to health.

The friends of Miss Josie Lyon will be glad to learn that she is improving, being able to sit up a little.

MANTUA MAKING.

Miss Lou Vose is prepared to serve the public in the most artistic line of this work at her home on Magazine hill.

BRUSHING UP.

If our city council would give horse-rack, trees and telephone posts a coat of white wash it would add greatly to the appearance of our city, besides would do the trees much good.

THE COUNTY FAIR

Will be on next, only a short time now to get ready. Keep it in mind and let the visitors see what Abbeville can do. It remains with the people whether it shall be a grand success, or a signal failure—which shall it be? Of course it will be a big time for homefolks as well as visitors and is bound to be a grand success.

The Summer School.

The County Summer School which has been in session here for the past month, closed last week. The school was in charge of Prof. R. F. Gilliam, principal of the Graded School of this place, and Miss Lucas of Walterboro, two accomplished and successful teachers. The Art department, which was a new feature of the Summer School, was a decided success, marked progress and splendid work being done.

A Card.

Abbeville, S. C., Sept. 15th. 1902.

Mr. Editor: Permit me through the columns of your paper to express to the voters of the Third Congressional District my sincere thanks and gratitude for the uniform kindness and generous support extended me in my recent race for Congress.

While, as a matter of course, to those who stood so faithfully by me and gave to me that substantial aid without which I could not have been nominated, I owe the greater debt of gratitude, for those who gave their support to some one of my competitors I have nothing but the kindest feeling, for while doing all they could for the man of their choice, they invariably treated me with the greatest kindness and respect.

I am proud and delighted to be able to say that as between my competitors and myself there existed at all times during the campaign, and still exists, nothing but the most fraternal feeling, which, I trust, shall always be the case.

To be the nominee of the historic old Democratic party of the historic old Third District for a seat in the Congress of these United States is indeed an honor which I highly prize and for which I am truly grateful, but when I consider that I was the choice in preference to some one or other of the distinguished gentlemen who were my competitors, it makes it, if possible, all the more to be appreciated.

Appreciating them as I do, this high and responsible trust reposed in me by the voters of this Congressional District, it shall be my effort, so far as the power in me lies, to meet to the fullest extent, in my course as their representative in Congress, their highest hopes and expectations.

Very respectfully,
Wyatt Aiken.

DUE WEST LETTER.

Colleges Open—Bible School Meeting—Good Farming—New Senator.

Erskine College and the Due West Female College begin the year's work Wednesday Sept. 17th. Beginning with Tuesday, students may be expected on every train this week. The indications are that both institutions will open with a good roll of students.

The Seminary will likely have more students this fall than have been in attendance for several years.

The family of Mrs. M. J. Bowie are now in the house on Cleveland Street recently bought from Mr. M. B. Clinkscales by Miss Ann Russell.

Mr. John Wardlaw rented a house in Due West last week. He comes here for the educational advantages of the town.

Miss Statia Wideman goes to Concord, N. C., in a few days to teach a private school. She has had considerable experience as a teacher and her services are always in demand.

Mrs. J. D. Watson and children of Bradley, have been with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryson for some days.

The pastors of the Due West Bible School are invited to meet at the school building Saturday afternoon, Sept. 20th, at four o'clock, to consider matters of business relating to the welfare of the school, which will begin on the first of October.

Miss Luna Tribble has begun her school work near Blairs, in Fairfield County.

Miss Carrie Wideman is teaching again at Woodruff.

Miss Fannie Wideman has taken up her work at the graded school at Chester.

Miss Margaret Giffin went to Abbeville Saturday to begin work in the Abbeville graded school.

Rev. Mr. Copeland of the Baptist Church was in Due West last Monday. Mr. Copeland recently conducted a very successful meeting at Mount Bethel church and baptized more than eighty converts.

Miss Lula Blackwell will teach school again at Big Springs in Anderson County. The patrons of the school were much pleased with her work the last session.

Miss Mackie Blackwell has completed the summer term of the school near Easley and returned to her home a few days ago.

Mr. James R. Young is at Columbia, Mo., studying medicine.

Miss Bessie Giffen has gone to Oxford, Ohio, to begin work in the Western Female College; in which she was a pupil before coming to Due West.

Mr. J. L. Boyd and family returned to Due West a few days ago. Mr. Boyd will have charge of the Wylie Home this session and the young ladies who attend Erskine College will take their meals in their own boarding house and not with the young men as they have heretofore done.

Mrs. Sallie Addison's family now occupy the dwelling of Miss Maggie Brown on Brown Street.

Mr. Woodhust, of Sharon, was here last week to make arrangements to move to Due West and run a beef market.

Mr. B. G. Pressly, of Tampico, Mexico, eldest son of Rev. Neill E. Pressly, D. D., will enter the Theological Seminary. His friends will be pleased to hear this announcement.

Col. Woodsides, of Louisiana, is here to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kennedy.

Rev. J. Knox Montgomery, of Charlotte, Rev. E P. McClintock, D. D., of Newberry, the President of the Board of Trustees of Erskine College, and Mr. Geo. S. Mower, the College Treasurer, will be here at the opening of the College.

Mr John Wideman spent last week with friends at Due West. He will be in business with Mr. E W. Watson at Bradley.

The sportsmen around town are finding good sport in shooting doves in the stubble fields and swamps. Mr. Homer McAdams and Mr. Geo. Collins are the crack shots.

Services in the A. R. P. Church last Sabbath had special reference to the public schools and the private schools of the County, an appropriate sermon being preached by the pastor on this text, "Righteousness exalteth a nation."

Thos H. Moffatt stood an examination last week at Chester for a scholarship in the Citadel at Charleston.

Mrs. J. C. Reid, of Sardis, N. C., is visiting the family of Prof. E. L. Reid.

Mr. Moses Ashley who is nearly eighty-nine years old, was in Due West on Monday. Although an old man he enjoys good health and has done the plowing on his farm this year.

Mr. W. N. McAams, one of the best farmers in this section of the County, brought in a stalk of cotton last week that measured ten feet and eleven inches in height. Another stalk from his upland measures five feet and four inches. Can you beat it?

Berto McDavid, who has been a newsboy on the railroad for several months, will return home this week to enter College.

Mr. Templeton, representing C. A. Reed, of Anderson, was here last week tuning the pianos for President Boyce at the Female College.

Wednesday, October 1st, the Bible School of Due West will begin its work for another term. Prof. Olin B. Cannon, of Newberry, is the principal. Miss Seaife, of Woodruff, is the teacher of the intermediate grade and Miss Helen Grier teacher of the primary grade.

Rev. J. A. Brown and family have gone to Virginia to spend a few weeks.

Tuesday afternoon a special train will arrive at Donalds from Charlotte with students for Erskine College, the Female College and the Seminary.

Mr. Eb. Ellis and Mr. Livy Caldwell are at Clemson college.

Rev. G. G. Parkinson, professor in Erskine Theological Seminary, returned to Due West last week. He spent the summer at his old home in Lincoln County, Tenn.

Rev. James Boyce, President of the Due West Female College, left for Charlotte, N. C., Monday morning. From that place he will accompany a crowd of young ladies coming to the College.

Mr. J. K. Hood, the newly elected Senator from Anderson County, is spending a few days with friends at this place. He wears his honors meekly and will make a Senator of which his County will be proud. Senator Hood is accompanied by his family.

Mr. Sam Knox, of Antreville, will have a daughter in Erskine College this session.

Miss Lizzie Jordan and Miss Marian Jordan have returned to Due West and are prepared to do dress making for the ladies in this community. They have rooms with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryson at the Pearson house.

The County Fair.

The time for the County Fair is rapidly approaching and everybody is looking forward with great pleasure and interest. There is much work being done among the officers, who are in charge of the fair, but they must have the co-operation of the public at large to make the fair a success. Let the exhibits be the best that we have ever had, and if the people of the entire county will come together, with the determination that success shall crown our efforts, things will be remarkably successful.
