The Society met in the Methodist church, evening March 13, 1904, to celebrate the Centenary of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

At this meeting several addresses were delivered and an effort made to increase the membership, which resulted in the addition of twenty-eight (28) new members. A collection was also taken amounting to $20.05.

A communication from Rev. T. H. Law was read, representing the Amer-ican Bible Society was in pressing need of funds; whereupon the Treas urer was instructed to place fifty dol-lars in the hands of W. A. Templeton, Treasurer of the Abbeville District Bible Society, twenty-five dollars of which should be a donation to the American Bible Society and the other twenty-five dollars placed to the credit of this Society to buy Bibles as they might be needed.

The Abbeville Auxiliary Bible Society held its annual meeting in the Presbyterian church, 20th July, 1904, tary. 8:30 o'clock, p. m., on which occasion an admirable address was delivered by Dr. Wilkins of the Baptist Church.

The amount received at this meeting on account of new membership is $6.00. The amount of collection taken, $4.16. The whole amount of funds raised by this Society since its organization, from all sources is $101.21.

The officers of the Society at present are: Rev. J. L. Wilson, D. D., President; Rev. P. B. Wells, First Vice-President; Rev. W. B. Sams, Second Vice-President; Rev. J. M. "In regard to the platform, it is quite remarkable that the party was able to form one which appears to be generally good out of such a diversity of opinion as existed among the delegates to the national convention held at St. Louis. But I think the fight will not be on platforms, but on Roosevelt as a man. He is the Hamilton style of political leader as opposed to the ideal leads " 'the Jefferson type, which is my weal. Roosevelt would make a typical head for an empire and a wonderful improvement on the czar of Russia."

Woman's Leap Year Privilege.

The question is often asked, "Why is it women are permitted to propose during leap year?" Never having experienced the pleasure of such a proposition from a maiden, confides the editor of the Easley Progress, we are unable to explain her privilege during leap year, but here is an answer given in a contemporary.

"It appears that in the year 1288, a statute was published by the Scotch Parliament ordaining that during the reign of "Her Maist Blessitt Marjisty Margaret" every maiden or lady of high or low estate should have liberty to speak to the man she liked. If he refused to take her to be his wife, she would have the privilege of fining him 100 pounds or less, according to his estate, unless he should make it appear that he was betrothed to another woman, in which case he would be free to refuse. After the death of Margaret, the women of Scotland became clamorous for their privileges, and to appease them another act of Parliament allowed them to propose every fourth year."
