Reply to a Dispensary Advocate.
The editor of the Abbeville Press and Banner is somewhat troubled about the circulation of a report that a petition had been started at McCormick for an election to vote out the dispensary in Abbeville County. He seems to doubt the truth of the report from the fact that we are so far away if the dispensary is a nuisance, why not look distantly for it in the nearest town where we could get it from Augusta more conveniently than from Abbeville; and, lastly, he does not believe it best to have a dispensary in the town where we would have to interfere in a matter where we are so remotely interested.

Now, to place the Press and Banner at ease about the report, we will say that this petition is being circulated, but the petitioners are not intending to do anything about it. They are prompted by what they feel to be their duty as citizens of Abbeville County in the case of God and humanity to have stood still when an opportunity was presented to erase from our statutes a law that has proved to be a curse and a hindrance to our community.

We are not drinkers of liquor, as you suggest. There is no town of the same size in the State where less whisky is drunk. But we are anxious that the people of the County should have it; and we believe that by voting out the dispensary the cause of temperance and also the cause of Christianity.

We believe you are blind to your own good when you demand the system by which the State sells liquor to the citizens. Was it not him who put the bottle in his neighbors' mouths? You would teach children that it is right to be kept for the State of South Carolina! Stop and think, brother, and then come out and help us do good by voting out the dispensary in our county.

W. O. Sturkey.

BLIND TIGER IN THE PULPIT.

He Made a War-house Out of the Vestry Room.

Yorkville Correspondent in The State.
Harry Ward, a well known negro of this place, who has been for some years the sexton of Episcopal church, was caught "blind tigering" last Saturday. He was seen handing around a bottle in Heath's hitching lot and Policeman Sanders gave a couple of young men a dollar to see if Harry would sell to them. He tumbled to it and it was discovered that he kept his liquor in the vestry of the church, sealed in a box which was found in the vestry room in a wardrobe where the minister kept his robe and vestments. Harry was turned over by the town authorities to Magistrate Comer and will no doubt receive the full limit in dollars and cents.

ONE DISPENSARY SOLD OUT ITS STOCK OF WHISKEY.

Had Rush Made on Greenville Grocers in Anticipation of the Final Closing.

Special to the State.
Greenville, Nov. 18.—An hour before the "blind tiger" was to be sold, Police had to be called to clear the crowd at the north Main street dispensary. Many old "hook" shops would close tonight for good; and all day there has been the greatest rush on the dispensary practically selling its entire stock.

At the north Main street dispensary the surging crowd of customers was so great that the jam of people cracked one of the large plate glass windows.

It is said, are buying cheaper grades of whiskey and buying it for fear the stock will run out before the dispensary is finally closed.

At the two dispensaries today are nearly double any day in the history of the institution here.
