What "M" Sees and Hears on His Rounds in Country and in Town.

ALL AROUND ROUTE NO. 8.

At this writing Mr. A. K. Watson is lying in a very precarious condition, having been stricken with proplexy last Monday morning, having fallen in his yard about 6 o'clock Monday morning as he was securing the feeding of his stock. He was carried into the house and has not spoken since. Dr. F. Hill was called over the phone and was soon at his bedside and did everything that could be done for his comfort and restoration. His children have all been summoned home.

This is indeed very sad and many friends hope for the best and sympathize with the family who are in such deep distress.

Mr. George W. Wilson and one of his cropers had words which ended in trouble. The facts as told us by one of Mr. Wilson's brothers are as follows: The cropper's name is Henry More, who is now residing in his own crop and picking for others and upon being remonstrated with by Mr. Wilson he was about to pick his cotton soon whereupon Mr. Wilson kept waiting until finally he got tired and reported to Henry to Mr. J. Link of Abbeville with whom Henry had taken a lien, whereupon Mr. Link went down one of his clerks and had what little cotton he had picked out and locked up. So when Henry came home Friday afternoon and found the key turned on his cotton he became very angry and brought his brother over late in the afternoon, and as Mr. Wilson went to his lot to see after feeding his stock Henry wanted to know what it meant and upon being told became very abusive to Mr. Wilson who was totally unprepared for him, but said he would go to the house and return and see him about his cursing and abuse and when he returned he found that Mr. Wilson was not home. Sheriff Lyon was phoned for and was soon on the scene, but his search was also in vain, whereupon Mr. Wilson came to town Saturday morning and found Henry in Abbeville and Sheriff Lyon immediately put him under arrest and all gathered in the Sheriff's office it seems that the negro disputed everything Mr. Wilson said so that Mr. Wilson lost his temper and went through of every consequence fired at the negro, the ball taking effect in his thigh. Who can conceive of a white man taking the "red" from one of his own race, let alone from a negro? The above facts as given us by one who knows. The sequel to the case is yet to come.

Misses Roxie and Belle McKenzie, Clara and William Ross and Miss Lillian McAnany returned last week from their trip to the "City by the Sea" where they were most charmingly entertained by their friend Miss Frances McNeil. They took in the sights of the city and last but not least viewed the "old ocean." They were delighted with their visit of which every moment was enjoyed.

The family dog of Mr. J. H. Penney of Sharon is now trimmed up in the up-to-date English style, his mane being backed, and his tail bobbed off short, all done too without his consent or knowledge by persons too who are not unknown to him. Mr. Penney was very much worried at the appearance of his horse but will in the kindness of his heart perhaps not bring suit against the parties, although it is a most provoking case. Miss Sallie Speer of Monticney spent last week with relatives and friends in the Lebanon section.

WITHIN OUR CITY GATES.

The circus has come and gone and for the large crowd in attendance we have never seen better order, every one quiet and in the best of spirits. As we came in from route 8 we saw no signs of rowdiness or intoxication but to the contrary all were happy and seemed to enjoy the day.

Our merchants tell us they did a business last Friday and Saturday unparalleled in the history of their 40 year experience in the mercantile career. This is encouraging and shows not only that Abbeville's merchants are wide awake but that there is no better market in the State than is offered by the merchants of Abbeville.

Mr. James A. Hill is the proud father of a fine daughter who came as a ray of sunshine to brighten the home last Thursday morning, Nov. 11th.

Mr. Thomas Johnson, one of the progressive farmers on Long Cape, was in the city Saturday.

The "Deer" show men is in the city "throwing away money," we hope he will realize it with a heavy hand, right and left so that all who grab may get their share.

Mr. Anthony Hammond will leave this week for Athens, Georgia, to attend the marriage of his friend, Miss Butler.

Rev. P. B. Wells is expected home this week for the Annual Conference soon to convene.

Father Mahoney as a lecturer has proved himself to be well fitted for his work and as a speaker has given much pleasure to his audience.

The singing which is rendered by a non-Catholic choir is of a high order and has already received much of its merited praise. The lectures will continue until Friday evening when the closing subject "Why I am a Catholic," will be considered.

MR. A. K. WATSON.

Paralyzed Speechless and Helpless. His many friends will be sorry to learn of the misfortune that has befallen that excellent citizen, Mr. A. K. Watson, who lives some seven or eight miles south of Abbeville. On last Monday he was paralyzed and we are told that he now lies at his home speechless and helpless. He was no better yesterday morning.

Mr. Watson is well known as a prosperous farmer, and this misfortune is a serious matter with him and his family. He is now about 57 years of age.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by Speed's drug store. Price 50c.

Letter to J. A. Dixon.

Abbeville S. C.
Dear Sir: Some people get disappointed in painting; it doesn't come out as they thought it would.

C. B. Edwards, of Edwards & Broughton, printers, Raleigh, N. C., painted his house Devos three years ago; he had used 30 gallons paste paint before and bought 30 gallons Devos. Had 16 left.

Paste paint is extra-thick—with white-wash.

Mayor W. W. Carroll, Monticney, Florida, says: My painter said it would take 35 gallons to paint my house; it took 20 gallons Devos. His house is the best paint job in town; and he says Devos is the whitest white of all white paints.

Johnes & Rodgers bought 5 gallons Devos to prime Mr. Pratt's house at Merkel, Texas. It painted two coats.

The reason for nobody guessing little-enough Devos is: they learned in a bad school: other paints.

Yours truly
