The machine for you is

The McCORMICK

The money, wit, and brains of half a century has made every nut, bolt, and blade of this machine as near perfection as is possible to approach. The experience of the majority of farmers is that the McCormick has stood at the head, is standing at the head, and will stand there as long as there is a blade of grass or a stalk of grain to be cut.

I have just received a car load of these McCormick Mowers. A machine on exhibition at my store. Call and see it.

"There is a time for all things."

With us this is a time for offering Bargains and we feel that we can very quickly convince any one of this fact—if only the opportunity is afforded us to show the moving prices marked on our Clothing. The effect of such Bargains as we are offering in Clothing dispel the hard-times-cry and brings forth the ready cash like the Spring showers on a newly planted crop. Some of this Clothing is carried over stock, but so well kept, as not to be noticed if not told of it.

We feel sure of pleasing. The prices are right.

Through the Country from Athens, Georgia.

Messrs. Will Lyon, Paul B. Wilson and W. C. Watson left Abbeville last Sunday for Athens, Ga. They went to bring to Abbeville an automobile which Mr. Waldrop had bought. They started about four miles from Abbeville and were soon scorching the air in the big touring car toward Carolina. Things were quiet until they were in four miles of the city of Elberton, when, unannounced, one of the young men acquired of a negro with a scowling face and a scowling eye, "You, sir, keep straight on" was the reply to the question, "Tamp Florida, where they would have been by this time had they not stopped. They did that, however, and went on for another, as they thought, to be in South Carolina and enquired how far they were from Elberton, and discovered they were some forty miles from Elberton. The trouble arose from asking the fellow with a scowling eye and a scowling eye, "You, sir, keep straight on" was the reply to the question, "Tamp Florida, where they would have been by this time had they not stopped.
