Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pang of this deplorable disease.

In Germany--with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt--I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I uniformly cure all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need--no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend LOWNESSVILLE.

Jas. Shelby's "new show" crowd came in yesterday a week ago. The next day it gave two performances, the one at 2, the other at 8 o'clock p. m., both of which were pretty well attended. Somehow the darkies did not show their usual eagerness, determination at all hazards to be there. They for several years, wherever and whenever it was possible to get the price of admittance, were always on hand and have been largely in excess of the whites, but not so this year. While the show failed to come up to its posted papers, yet the spectators in the main were well pleased and especially the free ticket fellows came out all right, if they did not get much, it did not cost anything.

Mr. Roscoe Horton of Monticello has spent some days with kinspeople here and around.

At a late meeting of the Trustees of the graded school in this place Misses Alice Harris and May Blankinship both of Fort Mill, and late graduates of Rock Hill, were elected assistants in the school here for another year.

Mr. G. W. Speer, a prominent lawyer at the Gaffney Bar, came in Wednesday evening for a few days stay.

Mr. Robert Witherspoon, whose place of birth and raising was Anderson County, and a recent graduate of Clemson College, in the electrical department and who is engaged in the Government service in New York being on a visit to his home folk spent a night and a part of two days among friends here.

The hearts of the planters covering unusually large area, were made glad Friday by having refreshing, and in places, needed rains. While cotton was "holding its own," and is said by was "holding its own," and is said by many to be quite promising, yet old corn and other field and garden crops were losing because of too little moisture.

Mr. Foster Jones and Mrs. Bessie Allen of Star have been here for the past day or two, the guests of Mr. E. W. Harper.

Mrs. J. R. Blake and Mr. Erskine Blake of Abbeville came up a few days ago, and have since been at his uncle's Mr. H. A. Tennant.

A Rural Route Inspector Mr. W. B. Brannon was in this place and in the surrounding country, inspecting the two routes in force, and travelling over proposed new ones, two in number, last week.

Mr. B. Berry Allen of Anderson has been here for several days, at his old home with his children.

A union meeting was held yesterday and the day before at Midway Baptist Church, a few miles out which was attended by a few of our people.

A HAPPY WEDDING.

Wednesday at 9 p. m. there had gathered at the home of Mrs. Kittie Kay, a large crowd to witness the nuptials of Mr. W. W. Speer and Miss Eula May Kay. The inside of the dwelling had been put in holiday trim, flowers, potted plants and evergreens had been placed so as best to meet the demands of the occasion, in supplying an additional attraction, in being especially pleasing to all lovers of the beautiful.

At the above named hour the groomsmen and bridesmaids entered the parlour and took their respective places. The first consisted of Mr. G. U. Speer of this place, brother of the groom and best man, Messrs. R. H. Mooney, of this place, Tom Hill, Anderson and Will Armstrong, Honca Path. The ladies performing the most conspicuous part in this interesting ceremony were, Mrs. W. C. Tennant of Atlanta, sister of the bride and dame of honor, Miss Elizabeth Kay, another sister and maid of honor and Misses Emma Bowman, Ethel Speer and Irene McKinney, brides maids.

The solemn ceremony binding two hearts and lives in one, was most impressively performed by Rev. Foster Speer of Whitmire, a brother of the groom.

The bridal couple were made the recipients of quite a number of beautiful, costly and durable presents, but few, if any of the invited guests, who did not testify to the esteem in which they were held; and in after years, when life's sunshine and shadows have intermingled in their pathway, they will be to them reminders of Auld Lang Sine.

In due time the dining room with its aided vanda was opened for the satisfying of "the wants of the inner man" All of those who have partaken of the hospitality of the Hostess well know of her success in a culinary line and it is needless to give a description of the menu. Suffice it to say that everything was up to date in preparation and variety and more than sufficient profusion to satisfy the demands and taste of all present.

At a quiet late hour, the honored guests returned to their homes, with thankful hearts for the very pleasurable and willing away of several hours which they will delight to recall in the years to come.

The bridal couple left the next day for the Jamestown Exposition where they will spend a while.

Mr. Louis Bell the Depot Agent here went to Calhoun Falls Saturday, came back the next day accompanied by his cousin Miss Ethel Brownlee of Whiggorn, Ga.

EAST END.

HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

Major Nance celebrated his 73rd birthday last Saturday with his children, and a few of his grand children who gathered together at his pretty home on Magazine hill to gladden his heart and make his birthday one of pleasure and happiness. The Major was feeling his best and enjoyed the day to the utmost.

A splendid dinner was prepared and served in that beautiful home which is one of the Major's noted characteristics. No one can be more affable and hospitable than Major and Mrs. Nance in their home. We wish the Major many returns of this happy day, and hope he may enjoy yet many years of happiness and pleasure that will be filled with both temporal and spiritual blessings.

The many friends of Miss Kate Marshall will be glad to hear of her convalescing after an illness of several weeks.

Our Postmaster, Mr. Thomas Tolbert has been quite sick for the past week, confined to his bed, and under the care of Dr. Neuffer. His father Mr. Tom Tolbert is in the office assisting in the conduct of the same during his son's illness.

Messrs DeBrali and Johnny Tolbert have been carrying on the business of the office all right in his absence. These two clerks are "busters" and fully up to their duties making up all incoming and outgoing mail and getting off the carriers on full time. We hope Mr. Tolbert will soon be well and return to his duties.

A friend in need is a friend indeed; such was Judge Hollingsworth to us on last Saturday. He came to us on Monday and said, "Your faithful horse seems tired and if you will leave him at home Saturday, I will have my horse and buggy at the office on good time which you can use without charge, and whenever I can help you let me know". We would like to know how many friends have acted in this kind and generous manner to the R. F. D.

Judge Hollingsworth has a kind heart and fine feelings and seems to find ample satisfaction in the hardships of the rural carriers and their poor tired and jaded horses.

This is only one of the many times this kind thoughtful and generous friend has thus treated us, and he may rest assured his great kindness will be forever remembered. We will ever remind us that in him we have a true friend.

On last Friday afternoon we witnessed one of the heaviest rain storms that has fallen in many years. The blue hill branch was at its best, sweeping everything before it and causing many to be driven over the foot bridge causing many to return to their homes by the factory.

This is a dangerous creek when up and puts the traveling public who live that side to no little inconvenience. How would a nice bridge look over that stream? During this storm we side tracked at the home of Mr. Marion Link, where his son Master Hunter showed us great interest in giving our mail, horse and buggy good shelter, and a bundle or two of oats for our horse for which we were truly grateful.

Master Arthur McDonald is the happiest boy on Magazine hill, being the owner of a fine goat given him by Major Parker last week. He will never tire talking of the Major's great kindness which is not only appreciated by our little son, but the entire family.

The E. F. D. boys will be off tomorrow (Thursday) to celebrate the 4th, so excuse us if you please and we will be on hand Friday. Mr. Will Syman is getting on nicely with his building and is doing much of the work himself.

Mrs. M. B. Syman who has been at the bedside of her aunt, Mrs. McKee who is still in ill, is expected home this week for a little respite.

Miss Antonette Hammond left last Sunday for Atlanta where she will attend the funeral services of her friend, Mrs. Mattie Devers, nee Miss Mattie Jennings, once of this city. Miss Antonette will be filled with sorrow to learn of her death, and who extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved parents and husband.

Mr. Worth Becham is clerk at the Eureka and if he makes as good a hotel clerk as he did in the Post Office there will be no room for complaint.

Mr. C. D. Brown and family and Mr. Speed and family returned from the Jamestown Exposition as well as visiting other cities. They had a most delightful time.

Mr. Miller and family accompanied by Miss Ellen Gambrell left yesterday for Jamestown Exposition.

Rev. Zimmerman of Columbia preached a most excellent sermon in the Methodist church last Sunday to a thoughtful and appreciative congregation.

Miss Nellie Jay and Miss Florence Cottrill of Greenwood spent Saturday and Sunday in the city the guest of Mr. Samuel Eakin and family.

Miss Virginia Morgan and Miss Stevens of Monroe, La. are the charming guests of Mrs. W. C. DuPre.

Mrs. Sam Visanska and babe with Mr. Walter Visanska returned to Atlanta last Sunday after a pleasant stay with home people.

NEWS ON ROUTE 3.

Miss Agnes Adams, after a delightful visit to her friends the Misses Evans of Lebanon, returned last Monday to her home at Lebanon.

Miss Annie Nelson spent last week most pleasantly with her sister, Mrs. Nellie Gilman and son, King of Watts.

Mrs. A. J. Woodhurst, after spending some time with her son, Mr. K. Woodhurst and family returned home last Sunday.

Mr. Charlie McNeill with Misses Belle and Pearl Smith of Lebanon attended the Messrs. Clifford Nelson, Lester Edwards and Lucius Ables.

Birth--At Lebanon, June 30th to Mrs. Walter Ables a fine daughter.

Mrs. Ira Cannon of Hodges is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. J. Edwards, who has been quite sick for several weeks, but is now convalescing.

Remember the picnic at Fern Cliff school house next Saturday the 6th inst. Everybody is invited to come and bring well filled baskets.

Mr. Ada C. Kennedy was one of the many visitors that thronged our city last Monday.

Dr. W. E. Link is still improving and is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wilson at Glendale.

Route 3 is thoroughly "wet" and the rains having fallen all over the Circuit and the farmers will now be hustling to kill that "young grass" that has sprung up as it were.

"M" was caught in a severe electrical wind, rain and hail storm last Tuesday and was blown down, lands overturned, and bottom torn down down, but no serious damage done.

Miss Maggie Knox, after a pleasant stay of several weeks with relatives and friends on route 3, returned to her home in the city last Saturday.
