

Madame de Stael and Suffrage.
Madame de Stael is responsible for a contribution to the woman suffrage question which may interest those who have done and suffered for the cause of late. "I have no taste," said Napoleon, in talking to her, "for women who meddle with politics." "You may perhaps be right," replied Madame de Stael, "but since people have taken the freedom to cut off their heads on account of politics, they ought at least to be allowed to understand why."—Westminster Gazette.

TWO TERRIBLE YEARS.
The Untold Agonies of Neglected Kidney Troubles.

Mrs. James French, 65 Weir Street, Taunton, Mass., says: "When I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was so run down and miserable that I could hardly endure it. Terrible pains in the back attacked me frequently and the kidney secretions were much disordered. I was a nervous wreck and there seemed no hope. Doan's Kidney Pills brought my first relief and six boxes have so thoroughly cured my kidneys that there has been no return of my old trouble."

The Old Subscriber.
We sometimes wonder if newspaper men generally appreciate the old subscriber at his true value, says the Lansing (Iowa) Mirror. We mean the old stand-by who takes the home paper year after year, through evil as well as through good report, and pays his subscription regularly just the same as he would any other honest debt. As a general thing the old subscriber is patient and slow to wrath. He will overlook many little slights from the editor, slights which the man who borrows his reading would not stand for a minute.

NO RELIEF FOR 15 YEARS.

All Sorts of Remedies Failed. To Cure Eczema—Sufferer Tried Cuticura and is Entirely Cured.

"I have had eczema for over fifteen years, and have tried all sorts of remedies to relieve me, but without avail. I stated my case to one of my friends and he recommended the Cuticura Remedies. I bought them with the thought that they would be unsuccessful, as with the others. But after using them for a few weeks I noticed to my surprise that the irritation and peeling of the skin gradually decreased, and finally, after using five boxes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, it disappeared entirely. I feel now like a new man, and I would gladly recommend these remedies to all who are afflicted with skin diseases. David Blum, Box A, Bedford Station, N. Y., Nov. 6, 1905."

The American Honey Gatherer.

One hundred and sixty million pounds of honey seems like a good deal for bugs the size of bees to collect every year, and yet this is creditably reported to the Department of Commerce and Labor by Vice Consul Charles Karminski, of Seattle, to be the regular annual supply of the world. Germany, he says, leads the nations with 20,000 tons a year, followed by Spain with 19,000. Austria is a good third, with 15,000, and France brings up the rear of the principals with 10,000 tons per annum. Several other European countries are credited with a few thousand tons, but the United States is not even mentioned in the list. So far as the reader might gather there might be no bees in this country at all. As a matter of fact, however, the American bee is quite busy, so say Government figures, for according to the census of 1900, the bees of 1889 produced 30,600 tons of sweet stuff.

The Caressing Irish Voice.
There is no voice in the world which I think so soft—with so much of a coo and caress in it—as the Irish voice. I am not going to be guilty of the folly of trying to make out that my countrymen are angels; no, I know they have plenty of faults; but in the ordinary intercourse of life there is no people who have pleasanter, more courtly and more engaging manners.—T. COFFEE COMPLEXION
Many Ladies Have Poor Complexions From Coffee.

"Coffee caused dark colored blotches on my face and body. I had been drinking it for a long while and these blotches gradually appeared, until finally they became permanent and were about as dark as coffee itself."

"I formerly had as fine a complexion as any could ask for."

"When I became convinced that coffee was the cause of my trouble, I changed and took to using Postum Food Coffee, and as I made it well, according to directions, I liked it very much, and have since that time used it in place of coffee."

"I am thankful to say I am not nervous any more, as I was when I was drinking coffee, and my complexion is now as fair and good as it was years ago. It is very plain that coffee caused the trouble."

Most bad complexions are caused by some disturbance of the stomach and coffee is the greatest disturber of digestion known. Almost any woman can have a fair complexion if she will leave off coffee and use Postum Food Coffee and nutritious, healthy food in proper quantity. Postum furnishes certain elements from the natural grains from the field that Nature uses to rebuild the nervous system and when that is in good condition, one can depend upon a good complexion as well as a good healthy body. TOOK SPECIAL TRAIN TO BE BUNCO VICTIM

Ohio Banker Lost $76,000 at Faro in New York City.

"BIGGEST SUCKER EVER BORN"

Millionaire Davis Says Other Wealthy Men Were Swindled of $1,000,000 and Two Financially Ruined—Loser Appeals to the Courts.

Pittsburg.—D. C. Davis, millionaire banker and oil operator, of Marietta, Ohio, lost $76,000 in a clever little bunco game in New York some time ago, and in Alderman Toole's court he told the story of how he was victimized into not only losing his money, but, after $51,000 had been dropped, how he chartered a special train to go back to Marietta after $25,000 more.

During the hearing Davis, who is a director in the German National Bank of Marietta, stated that he knew it to be a fact that many Pittsburgers have been swindled by the same scheme. He gave it as his opinion that the trio of alleged confidence men whom he accuses have cleaned up more than $1,000,000 in the past two years. At least two men are said to have been ruined financially by the scheme.

Davis told his story at the hearings of W. J. (Jake) Adams and Frank B. Ranger, of Pittsburg, and Frank Thompson, of New York. These are the men who Davis alleges defrauded him of the $76,000. At the conclusion of the hearing Alderman Toole stated that while he would reserve his decision for a week he would not doubt dismiss the complaints because of lack of jurisdiction.

Former Mayor W. E. Sykes, of Marietta, counsel for Davis, was arrested at the conclusion of the hearing on a warrant sworn out by Ranger, charging him with conspiracy to indict. He at once gave bail.

Davis said that he was first approached by Ranger and John E. Curry, of Marietta, last September. They told him that Thompson was the dealer in a faro game in New York, and wanted to get even with the syndicate which employed him. Davis was induced to take $25,000 to New York, and was to play in the game with the money. Thompson, it was agreed, would deal the cards so that Davis would win $100,000.

After arriving in New York Davis was taken to the Imperial Hotel, and from there to a house just off Columbus avenue, three blocks from the Majestic Hotel. The first night Davis lost his $25,000 the gamblers explained that a mistake had been made, and on October 20 Davis went against the game again with $26,000 and lost the money.

The next morning he chartered a train from New York to Marietta and, securing $25,000 more, hustled back to New York, determined to win at any cost. Again he lost. Curry, the witness testified, then took pity on him and told him that he was being swindled. Unable to get his money back, Davis sued the trio.

When Davis had finished, Curry was placed on the stand and declared that Ranger and Thompson had told him that Davis was the "biggest sucker" ever born.

LOVING JURY CONDEMNED.

Virginia Papers Advocate Incorporating "Unwritten Law" in Statutes.

Richmond, Va.—Virginia newspapers unanimously condemn the Halifax County jury for acquitting Theodore Estes and Judge Barksdale for not admitting testimony to show that no assault had been committed upon Miss Loving.

The Newport News Press says it is a shame to Virginia that a jury has been found within its limits which by a unanimous vote has freed a man without even a reprimand who had killed a fellow-mortals in the coldest kind of way and in the most deliberate manner.

The majority of the papers are again gravely discussing the advisability of incorporating in the statutes the so-called "unwritten law," by specifying under precisely what circumstances a man will be justified in taking a human life.

The Roanoke World says that if the "unwritten law" is to have so strong a place in Virginia jurisprudence it is high time that the rights claimed under it are specifically defined.

The Danville Register says that if the jury had been allowed to view the evidence which was declared inadmissible by the court they would have seen the case in an entirely different light.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER'S PASTOR SAYS WORKERS NEED A SUMMER VACATION

The Only Medicine That Will Rest the Body and Clear the Brain is to Be Found in the Quiet Places of the Country.

CITIES TOO BUSY AND TOO CROWDED FOR RIGHT LIVING AND RIGHT THINKING

New York City.—The Rev. Dr. Charles F. Aked, the high salaried pastor brought from England by John D. Rockefeller, preached his last sermon for the summer at the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, and advised the members of his congregation to get out of town, rest, forget troubles, debts, newspapers, telephones and business. City life of today, especially in such cities as New York, is almost enough to drive men crazy, said Dr. Aked, and the only medicine that will rest the body and clear the brain is to be found in the quiet places of the country.

"There has been no day in the history of the world when such counsel was more needed than to-day," he said. "There are no people on the face of the whole earth who have more cause to heed it and profit by it than we. Our cities are too vast and too crowded."

"Man, like the other animals, was meant for the fresh air and the open fields, for the storms, the snows and the sunshine. But he claps a stone box down over his head, sets it in the midst of a hundred thousand other stone boxes as ugly as his own, stretching away in bewildering squares and parallelograms, shutting out God's air and light, until he is ready to faint on a warm day and freeze on a cold one, and die of pneumonia—or terror—if the east wind blows upon him."

"This crowded, rushing, pushing, crushing city life gets on our nerves. We live too fast. We live faster than men ever lived before. We live more than twenty-four hours in the day and more than seven days in the week. We burn the candle at both ends, and then, for fear that our neighbor will get ahead of us, we light it in the middle, too. We are consumed by the fever of living. We exhaust our vital energies in unending stress and strain."

"We have no time to think. It is as much as we can be expected to do if we earn bread and cheese and lay by a pound or two against a rainy day. The great majority of us are just as capable of flying as we are of thinking. Leisure for quiet contemplation of the world which we live in is denied us. There is no grass beneath our feet, no blue sky over our head. The world of trees and flowers and singing birds is not for us. Art and poetry and gentle culture exist only in a world of dreams.
