BIBLE SOCIETY.

Eighty-Fourth Annual Session. The Abbeville District Bible Society met in its 84th annual session in the Presbyterian church 11 a. m., July 31st, 1807.

The meeting was called to order by the President Dr. F. Y. Pressly, and opened with prayer by Mr. C. V. Hammond.

The Society having lost its Secretary in the death of Mr. L. W. Perrin, Rev. E. B. Kennedy was asked to act as Secretary pro tem.

The minutes of 1806 were read and accepted.

cepted.

The President stated that he had been notified that both Rev. T. W. Slosn, who had been elected to preach the annual sermon, and Rev. A. C. Wilkins, his alternate, would be absent from the meeting, and that he had secured Rev. D. G. Caldwell to preach the opening sermon.

The Society then listened to an interesting and instructive discourse from John 17:17 "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth."

turned to God who gave it and his remains were interred in Upper Long Cane cemetery, there to abide until the resurredion. Faithful in the discharge of public and private trusts committeed to him, in none perhaps, was Mr. White more faithful to than this Scoiety. His splendid business attainments, notable energy and absolute honesty and trothrinness flited him for leathership whelever these qualities are recognized. A regular attendant at our annual meetings, his voice was heard whenever the interest of the Scoiety suggested it was time for him to speak. Given to hospitality, his home furnished entertainment annually to our visiting members. Diligent in business, the aliairs of this Scoiety received his attention even though his private affairs suffered thereby. Therefore,

Resolved: The Abbeville Branch of The American Bible Scoiety has, by the death of Lebnard Waller Whits, lost a faithful and devoled member whose presence, counsel and labors we will miss and whose example we should emulate. A page be inscribed in our minutes to his memory and a copy of this meeting for business, we gaze eagerly in the direction of our Secretary's chair, for a familiar form and noble presence, For many years past, his hand has written and his voice has read our minutes. Twas he, who regulated and controlled our deliberations and through familiarity with the plans and purposes of our parent Scoiety, directed our work for the furtherance of those plans and purposes of our parent Scoiety, directed our work for the furtherance of those plans and purposes. With legal mind and training, his work was always done "decently and in order." We see him not, for God took him in a moment, in the twinkling of sneye; and the place he has filled so long and so faithfully, Will be filled by another.

The items of unfinished business were taken up and reports heard as follows:
1. Dr. Neel reported that he had obeyed the order to try to reorganize the Boolety at McCormick but failing to seems the cooperation of pastor there had not succeeded.
2. Mr. R. S. Galloway reported that the Committee consisting of himself and Rev. Cartledge appointed to reorganize the Society at Donalds had not succeeded. On motion this Committee was retained.
3.3Mr. J. P. Knox reported that the Committee to reorganize societies at Hocky River and Lowndesville had failed. Owing to the very small size of the congregation at the rery small size of the congregation at the former and some obstacles at the latter. The following tributes to decessed members were presented by Mr. Harden and adopted by the Society by a rising vote:

As we meet annually to transact the business of this Society, instinctively we glance over the audience for faces familiar by reason of fatthful attendance through many years. Some have been statedly present, because not annually appointed to meet with us. Others through providential causes are occasionally detained from attendance on these annual occasions. Others yet through official connection or ardent devotion or for both reasons, have been so regniar for many years past, as we look over this assembly, we linger, gasing for faces which will never suffuse our countenances with a smile of earthly recognition again.

In the twinking of an eye; and the place he has filled so long and so faithfully, will be filled by another.

Lewis Wardiaw Perrin, died suddenly, June 25th, 1907. These who knew Mr. Perrin are familiar with his-life, walk and conversation. A man of faith, his allegiance, to his Master was in no sense half-hearted. In church and conservative, while he never compromised with doubtful expedients. His familiar presence at all meetings for religious worship; regardless of denominational differences; his outspoken denoteation of all violations of law and order, marked him as "a man among men," one to be emulated, esteemed and loved. Perhaps in all of his labors of love, none was more dear to him than the labor he devoted to the interest of the Abbeville Branch of The American Bible Society. The last conversation the writer of this tribute held with Mr. Perrin, referred solely to our beloved Society, its work and its prosperty. Therefore,

Resolved by the death of Lewis Wardlaw Perrin, this Society has lost a valued officer and member, faithful and devoted to its interest, worthy of emulation, whose absence we mourn. That a page be inscribed in our minutes to his memory and a copy of this memorial be furnised his family.
