EAST END.

Rev. J. W. Arlet is visiting around among his people and is looking after the children especially as he desires to keep in close touch with the little folks. This is the week of prayer which began last Sunday night in the Baptist Church and will continue during the week in the different churches. Mr. W. D. Barksdale has moved into his "new quarters" in the new Farmers Bank building next to White Bros' grocery and is getting up in fine shape for a "bigger" business than ever in 1908. Mr. P. B. Speed is having a new glass front put in the store recently occupied by W. D. Barksdale and which finished will be opened by Dr. C. A. Milford. Mr. Calhoun DeBrul is now out of the postoffice and is contemplating entering college. Mr. DeBrul is missed as clerk in the postoffice as he was a hustler in every sense of the word. Miss Maud Hicks after a delightful stay with her friend Miss Antoinette Hammond left last week for home in Sparanburg. On last Friday morning we came within gunshot of seeing the tragedy on the blue hill we heard the music and afterwards saw the woman lying on the ground wounded and bleeding being shot down on the public road by another woman. The woman who was at the bottom of the trouble, and not as usual a woman. The E. F. D. Boys are now having a rough time of it, if wading through slush, water, and heavy roads count for anything. The old year has gone, and the New Year has come, and with it many changes as is always the case in country and in town. The many friends of Mr. W. R. Bradley here in the region of the moving picture show at the Charleston Hospital for treatment and sincerely hope he will soon be fully restored and at home again. Mr. E. B. Kennedy is teaching for him during his absence. Misses George, Nellie, and Helen Edwards entertained a number of their friends in a most delightful manner last Friday evening.

NEWS ALONG ROUTE 3.

We have several of our boys, and to whom we are indebted for many courtesies and many acts of kindness. There are with them of deep respect. That we see them move from route 3 but go where they will they may rest assured of our best wishes for their future happiness and welfare. Mr. Sam Ramey and family have moved from the Sharon neighborhood to the Foster Hammond place recently vacated by Mr. J. J. Link. Mr. W. J. Cheek and family have moved to the Sharon neighborhood and will farm this year with Mr. J. B. Wilson. The boys and girls together on route 3 after spending the holidays with their relatives and settled down to business. After a protracted absence of several weeks at Wilmington Miss Ellen Link is home again on route 3. Misses Cora and Hattie Watson the charming guests of Miss Jessie Schram during the holidays have returned to their home at Wilmington. Mr. J. E. Riley and family after spending Xmas with homefolks at Sharon returned last Friday to their home at Piedmont.

DEATH OF MRS. SALLIE A. MCNEILL.

On last Saturday morning January 4th 1908 at 2 o'clock Mrs. Sallie A. McNeill the beloved wife of Mr. Thomas McNeill died at her home in the Sharon section surrounded by her family and friends. The deceased was a kind hearted and noble woman, always ready to help those in need. She was a faithful and loving wife, an affectionate mother and a true friend having the highest esteem and love of all who were associated with her. She was a faithful member of the Lebanon Presbyterian church in whose faith she was reared. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death is a great loss to her family and to the community. Her funeral services were conducted at Lebanon Presbyterian Church on Sunday at 11 o'clock by her pastor Rev. J. B. Hill, assisted by Rev. J. W. Bailey of the Methodist Church. The church was filled to overflowing with friends who gathered to pay their last tribute of love and esteem to her memory. After the services loving hands bore her remains tenderly to the grave where she sleeps in the city of the dead. A large circle of friends and relatives mourn her death while the bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends. Sad and untimely was the death of Mrs. Sadie Hammond a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Wilson of Watson. She died at her home without warning last Friday afternoon while sitting by the fire talking to her babe. Mr. and Mrs. Hammond lived at Athens Georgia and were spending the holidays with her parents. Mr. Hammond had just ridden her good bye and was as far as Abbeville on his way home when he received the sad news and hastened back to find it alas, too true. This is indeed a sad sequel to a pleasant visit with loved ones. Ah! how true "in the midst of life, we are in death." Her funeral services were conducted on Saturday afternoon at Sharon Church and her remains laid to rest in the Sharon cemetery in the presence of many friends. Her death was sorrow mingled with that of the sorrow bereaved family, who have the sympathy of their many friends.

LOWNESSVILLE.

Lownessville, Jan. 6, 1908. Miss Annie Liddell has been in Atlanta for the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Spear, the first of whom is a prominent member of the Gaffney Bar, spent several of the Christmas holidays with the family of Dr. A. S. Speed. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harkness spent several days last week with friends at Anderson. Mrs. H. C. Fennell and her daughter Miss Minnie Fennell went to Iva on last Wednesday. Mrs. Berry Allen of Anderson came down week before last to the old homestead two miles out to aid her daughters Misses Meia and Vera, in preparing for an expected company. The honored guests from a distance were Dr. S. W. Page and Mr. J. E. Watson of Anderson, Miss Merriam Lee of Anderson and Miss Wessie Lee of Iva. They all left for their homes Monday. Mr. Alvin Harper and his sister Miss Louie Harper went to Newberry last week to attend the wedding of their uncle, Dr. J. C. Harper, of Greenwood. Miss Julia Rogers of Penning Creek, spent some days here week before last the guest of Mr. J. T. Latimer. The "maid forlorn" if there be such, and all others have crossed the line of watching and waiting for proposal matrimonial from the "warrior" sex. We can advise by the leap year prognostic and do their own courtship. Well, as a late issue of the State said "many young men might be snatched from the burly of bachelorhood by some lovely leaping year angel." The old year is ended and the new is upon us. Either from the pressure of inclination, public opinion, or some other factor, the Christmas days were usually a quiet with us. While a large crowd was in town for several days and a considerable amount was spent for Christmas goods, the hearts and spirits all were made glad in giving and receiving the festive presents, yet so far as can be learned, there was but a small quantity of "single" put off of the train at the depot here, and what was delivered, not enough to produce its usual effects, as the looks and actions of but very few were worse than usual. A large number were seen "celebrating" most too much to the detriment of the peace and quiet of the town. One of the darts of the darts of this community claims that while going home one night during Christmas, he was met up by two men, could not tell whether white or black, armed with guns and robbed of about twenty dollars, was then told to get out of town. Many accounts he did not believe, but that he ran himself nearly to death. The College boys and girls have returned to their respective places of duty and the town feels their absence. Mr. James M. Baker of Washington came last Wednesday and Saturday morning he started on his return home, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. Baker, went with him to spend perhaps some months. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nolley, the latest of our people to leave the ranks of "single" men, returned to their home here from the "land of flowers" yesterday morning, and will be for sometime at home with many friends at their boarding place, Mr. A. V. Barnes. The additional baggage at the depot here agreed upon at a conference between the railroad authorities and Mr. J. M. Sullivan of Anderson, was left on Saturday. This will add greatly to the facility of handling cars and freight. The repairs to the depot and the giving of more platforms will be a great and much needed improvement. The planters are having no little trouble in getting their cotton picked. It rains so often that it greatly hinders the winding up of the gathering of last year's crop.
