The Wonderful Wilderness Country Whither Thousands Are Getting Ready to Travel With Rod and Camera This Spring--Inexhaustible Supplies of Trout and Salmon in the Maine and Canadian Regions -- One Man's Flecord 13,000.

State."

account of smallness of size, but think of sitting before one's open fire on a stormy evening in December and re-

with their accompanying train of ex-

If any one should inquire what part of Maine is the best fishing ground, logically be, "any old part of the long and sinuous rivers as the Ken-the Fish and the St. John, and gemmed all over its smiling surface with hundreds of water-sheets ranging in size from forty-mile-long

Five Trout Weighing 12 Pounds.

its lakes and streams, naturally ing army of rod-bearers, hundreds of thousands of "fry" are carefully put into those same waters by the employes of the fish commission. This is one reason why the fishing is always good "down in Maine." Business panics and waves of prosperity may play tag up and down the spinal column of the body politic as they will, but the fishing goes on in the lakes and streams of Maine with the regularity of Tennyson's brook, and every resort in the State is "the best,"

if the word of its regular habitues is

The "fishing fever," like the grippe, is no respector of persons. One of the most ardent enthusiasts of the States Senator, who has a famous camp at the Rangeleys. Doctors, lawvers and Indian chiefs (the latter usually in the guise of professional

Street bankers, merchant princes, gentlemen of leisure, bookkeepers, railroad officials, journalists and about every other profession and calling represented in this strenuous

American life of ours, are found upon this outdoor roll of honor, some of

in palatial private cars, the six-pound

Outfits may be secured or com-

opening of the 1908 fishing season

On account of the comparative absence of snow and slush last winter,

For this reason the guides are pre-

To the comfort and convenience of century accessories, in which the takes by May 1 or earlier.

or Bangor.

to be taken at par.

Watered, as it is, by such

No outdoor pastime that takes the; Some of the perennial fishermen devotee away from home is so uni- have "records" of catches that are versally enjoyed as fishing. It is an nothing less than astounding. There exhilarating, care-destroying sport is one authentic case of a gentleman that is practiced practically from one who in thirty-four years, each year end of the earth to the other; and in accompanied by the same guide, has our own country hundreds of thou- taken from the waters of the Rangesands who never indulge in any other ley region no less than 13,000 trout. form of outing and exercise religious- | Many of these, of course, have been ly set aside at least a few days in the returned to their natives element, on year for the enjoyment of this timehonored ansusement.

Every section of the United States has its peculiar kind of fishing. In calling the capture of 13,000 fish, the Gulf of Mexico the mighty tarpon is king; in California waters the leap- citing or romantic incidents! ing tuna is the special quarry of the angler; along the Atlantic coast the bluefish tempts the skill and tries the the answer might both truthfully and patience of American citizens as illustrious as ex-President Cleveland; and nearly everywhere throughout the land some species of the most nebec, the Penobscot, the Allagash, popular of all fresh water denizens. the trout, is found, and in many sections the lordly and much-prized Nowhere on the continent, however, is there a most distinctively "fishing country" than in the State of Maine. New England as a whole, indeed, might well come under that designation, for the marvellously rich fishing country of the Pine Tree State is admirably supplemented with the lake and river-gemmed Commonwealths of New Hampshire and Vermont adjoining, while in New Brunswick, Quebec, Nova Scotia and other portions of the great Canadian wilderness contiguous, the opportunities for the angler are practically unlimited.

Even as this article is being written, a great host of fishermen (and not a few of them are of the fair sex), are quietly and eagerly making the necessary preparations for the annual descent upon the New England or Canadian wilderness, their brains on fire with visions of the "big fellows" they know are waiting for the cast of the fly or the trolling of the bait.

Moosehead Lake down to the most di-One can get ready for a fishing trip, minutive of ponds, Maine could even to the wilds of Maine, within scarcely be anything but a fishing a reasonably short space of time, but country of highest repute. there are lots of Waltonites who prefer to devote weeks to those delicious preliminaries, because it adds just so prolific of the finny tribe, are kept so much to the long drawn out sweetness thorities that, to all intents and purof the "spring fishing fever." poses, they are practically inexhausti-

Down in Maine the piscatorial season will be in full blast about the first | ble. For the thousands of trout, togue. of May, for it is about that time that bass, pickerel and other game fish the annual telegram which gives to that are taken from the waters of thousands of Americans such an elec- Maine every year by the great invadtric shock-"the ice is out"-finds its way into the newspapers of the country, or is displayed on straw-colored blanks in the windows of railroad them gliding in from the windy west ticket offices

From the Rangelev Region

And the railroads! How much they trout which they land, almost from have done not only to popularize the the platform of their Pullman, being sport of fishing, but to make it so later done to a turn by a high priced easy a pastime, that even frail women chef of ebon bue. may now journey into "the heart of the ancient wood" and have just as pleted in Boston, the great gateway good a time, and just as good sport, to the New England fishing, hunting as their husbands and brothers, with- and vacation country, or in Portland out the least bit of discomfort.

Piscaterial Pilgrimages.

Of the big delegation of amateur fishermen that will shortly be start- are very promising, and inquiries at have mercy on us." ing north and east from the cities and railroad ticket agencies are reported towns of the South and the Middle to be fully up to the average. Atlantic States, by far the larger percentage will go to the imperial State of trout, salmon and "big game," the ice in the Maine lakes formed Maine. There are American fisher- very clear, which enables the warm men-some of them of national repu- rays of the spring sun to penetrate ention-who have annually been making piscatorial pilgrimages to the dicting that the ice will be out of same fishing ground for twenty-five, Moosehead. Rangeley and the other touches their eyes. thirty and even forty years.

Of course, for those who prefer it. there is still the primitive lean-to of | modern travel by rail-(one may branches, the canvas tent, and the nowadays leave New York or Boston spruce-bough bed, with the nocturnal in a parlor or sleeping car and be reunion and story-telling around the transported to the edge of river or camp fire. The woods to-day, in fact, lake in the midst of the almost priis all things to all men, and it is liter- meval wilderness) - has been added ally a case of paying your money and the modern fishing camp and its 20th-

Nowhere in this great democracy downy couch, the piano, the up-toof ours is there a more democratic date culinary department, in fact, corner than the woods of Maine. most of the luxuries of civilization There everybody is on a footing of so- save elevators, are to be found, bancial equality for the nonce. It ishing all the terrors that "roughing is a fine place not only to get attained it " inspires in the minds of many, to nature, but to human nature. and making for ease and comfort

THE PULPIT.

AN ELOQUENT SUNDAY SERMON BY THE REV. L. O. ROTENBACH.

Theme: Dead Eves Opened.

Brooklyn, N. Y .- At Bethany Presbyterian Church the pastor, the Rev. L. O. Rotenbach, preached the third sermon in the series on "Miracles; the Wonders of Jesus and Their Lessons For To-day." His theme was. "Blind the infirmities of another and touches Eyes Opened." The texts were in him where his need is. The texts were in "He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of town," and Matthew in 9:29 and 20: "According to your faith be it unto you; Jesus had compassion. Mr. Rotenbach said:

The texts bring before us three scenes in the healing mercy of Jesus. The first is yonder where lies the city of Bethsaida, near the Sea of Gali-lee, close by the Jordan. Jesus is in and hopeful, still is inadequate. But that city; you can see Him together company of people yonder. See, they are leading a blind man. They bring ship clears the spiritual vision. to Jesus and beseech Him to touch rim. Here is faith on the part whilst you yield your will, life and of that company and neutrality apparently on the part of the man. What he needs is faith. Jesus undertakes even as He sees you. to arouse that. He takes the blind In that second pic man by the hand, leads him out of the city, one side by themselves, the ficient power of Jesus. His question man and Jesus.

Now, notice the process, for such it | this?" is. The Master moistens his eyes with spital, places His hands over "Seest thou aught are placed over his eyes, and now sees clearly!

Here, now, is the second picturetwo blind men of their own volition are following Jesus. Let us get the setting. The Master is teaching with Jairus, a ruler, comes beseeching Him. "My daughter is dead; come, Thine hand upon her and she woman makes her way, reaches out her hand timidly and touches the hem the house of Jairus professional mourners have taken possession. Jes-us puts them out. "The maid is not dead but sleepeth." They laugh at Him. He goes in, takes her by the hand, and lo! she rises, and the fame of it went everywhere.

That is the setting, and now as Hedeparts from thence, these two blind men keep following Him. We can see them go. How pathetic the sight! We can hear them creeping out after Listen, "Son of David have mercy, have mercy, have mercy." But He heeds them not. Now, at length they approach the house where He is remains outside. But these two blind men, what will they now do? They are keeping right on eagerly through the crowd. They are at the door now. What! they have gone into the house and right up to Jesus.

He asks, as He looks upon their Why, He has healed that woman in raised from the dead the daughter of after Him all along the dusty road, at last they stand by His side? "Yea, Lord," and as the answer bursts from their eager lips, He touches them, "According to your faith be it unto you." and their eyes are opened. Faith is triumphant.

Now, over there we have the third Again we need the setting to bring out the force and the beauty Jesus is going up to Jerusalem. It is the week before Passover -a week before the cross. As He goes He takes His disciples one side and says: "Behold we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man shall be Him to death and deliver Him to the Gentiles to be mocked, scourged and crucified, and the third day He shall rise again."

Then comes to Him the mother of Zebedee's children. Her request is that her sons might sit one on the right, the other on the left of Jesus in His kingdom. The ten, you remember, are incensed, but Jesus calls them unto Him, saying: "Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles lord it over them, but it shall not be so among you. Whosoever will be great among you let him become your servant; even as the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve and to give His life a ransom for many."

After these two events Jesus, His sport, and a regular victim of the disciples and a great multitude de-'spring fever," is a noted United part from Jericho. He is in the midst of one of those great pilgrim bands have come from Galilee, augumented in numbers as they have drawn nearer to the city of David. guides), captains of industry, Wall

Their people believed on Him-as a prophet, and in a vague way as Messiah and the coming king, who even now, when they arrive at the city, may be crowned, as once before they sought to crown Him by force. On sweeps the procession—a crowd before Him, another behind, Himself and disciples with others in the middle. He perchance engaged in teach-

Suddenly a sharp cry breaks in upon them. At the roadside ahead sits blind Bartimaeus and a companion begging. They hear the advance of the multitude. "What means this?" "Jesus of Nazareth passeth by." once all he had felt, hoped and believed of Jesus burst out in one great cry: 'Jesus, Son of David, have mer-The multitude, impatient Present indications for an early bids them be still. No, no, louder yet rises their cry: "Jesus, Son of David,

> That cry reaches Jesus. He stops, commands that they be brought to Bartimaeus leaps forward throws aside his cloak, a lane opens through the crowd and now they are before Jesus. "What will ye that I shall do unto you?" "Lord that our eyes may be opened." See the wondering multitude, those eager blind ones and Jesus. Is it a wonder that He is moved with compassion? He sight immediately, follow Him, glorifying God, whilst the multitude sings praises unto God. These three scenes are given us not so much to please or interest us, as to touch our hearts and to instruct our faith. There is a manifest progress also. In the first the blind man is lead of others to Jesus. In the second they follow after Him of their own eager volition, and in the third Jesus has them brought to Him. each is an advance of faith, and faith is the medium alone through which we may receive divine things. We have in the first scene the great truth of the guiding presence of Jesus. We read: "He took the blind man by the hand and led him.

Tender and beautiful is this minls. try. Jesus Eimself leading the blind. Can you catch the significance? Can' you see the leveling force of the Gos-"All ye are brethren." and Jesus proves it by taking the hand of the blind.

Can you also realize the positive directness of Christian service? "Bear ye one another's burdens," is the injunction, and we have Jesus taking the blind man and leading him. He for the time is eyes for him. Your Christianity is halting, my brother, if you have not in your life that first hand ministry, which feels him where his need is. There is here also the perfecting service of Jesus. His dealing with this man is a process. He leads him by the hand. He moistens his eyes. He places His hands over them, asks then "Seest aught?" "Yes, but faint-Places hands over eyes again, their sight comes clearly. So He deals with you and me. Our first experience of Him whilst joyous how patient and forbearing is He with His disciples. Now, notice that with our weakness and hesitancy.

> Let Him keep in touch with you, love to Him. He will finally perfect your vision and you will see Jesus

> In that second picture we have a startling manifestation of the all suf-"Believe ye that I am able to do

A great faith grasps this and holds it tenaciously. Those two blind men followed Him along that weary way. at all?" The man looks up. Here They kept on until they came to Him is faith's beginning: "Yes, yes, I inside the house. Can you see them? see men, but I see them like unto trees walking." Again those hands into His eyes? Can you hear their are placed over his eyes, and now answer: "Yea, Lord, yea, Lord, we Jesus makes him look up also. He believe that Thou art able." "According to your faith" is His answer and they see Him-Jesus.

Do you desire the triumph of a great faith, a faith that sees Jesus? Then you, too, must believe that "He is able." You do believe it? Yes, to be sure you do—in a way. But do you believe it with all your soul by a shall live." He goes to grant the faith that grips your life? Do you request, when through the throng a believe it with a faith that impels believe it with a faith that impels you, as it did those sightless ones along the roadway, weary roadway of His garment and is made well. At of your life, through the thronging crowds whose carelessness and indifference besets you on every hand, Jesus Himself?

You have been trying to do things for yourself. Hadn't you better let Him do them, for He is able? Some things He alone can do for you; trust Him. Commit your way unto Him -for remember "According to your faith will it be done unto you. In this third scene we have preeminently the compassionate personality of Jesus. We read: "Jesus had compassion." In fact all through this scene it is Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, and to remain. He goes within. Crowd therefore faith, faith, faith. First, we have Jesus of Nazareth passeth

by. Remember He is always passing by, in the great throngs to-day, as Do you feel your great need of Him? Cry out to Him. Bartimaeus did that and his companion. Are sightless eyes: 'Believe ye that I am able to do this?' Do they believe! couraged by the very ones from whom you have reason to expect? Cry out the way a little while before when yet much the more—those two by the she had but touched Him. He has wayside did that. They received wayside did that. They received sight and then followed after Jesus. Jairus by simply taking her by the Do that, just that, the way will open, hand, and they had kept following Secondly, we read Jesus stood still. Secondly, we read Jesus stood still. He always will, provided the right though utterly ignored by crowd and note is in your cry. Remember He was by Him. Do they believe now when in the midst of a multitude going to in the midst of a multitude going to Jerusalem — perhaps they will crown Him King. Yes, palm branches will they strew in His way and cry: "Ho-sanna in the highest, blessed is the King that cometh in the name of the Jerusalem to accomplish His decease. I his usual surname; and he has been As that conference upon the Mount known ever since as Daniel Defoe. of Transfiguration revealed the weird shadow of the cross already is creeping over Him-and yet He hears that Suffering? Yes. But He finds that in Demonstrating Nervous Diseases. betrayed; and they shall condemn everywhere. There is something Him to death and deliver Him to the Gentiles to be mocked, scourged and it? No. "Jesus, Son of David, have University of Turin, Italy, has sucit? No. "Jesus, Son of David, and mercy." This one had faith in Jesus, but he mercy.' not merely as a great rabbi, but he had faith in Him supremely as the promised deliverer of Israel, the Messiah. It meant Jesus—Thou Christ— have mercy. No wonder He heard and stopped and called them to Him. always has. Let there be the cry of conscious need, which believes im- ably illustrate the characteristic plicitly in Him as redeeming Saviour -then always has He great compassion. It is always "the old, old story > of Jesus and His love." My brother man let Him be such a Saviour to you as we have seen Him in these three pictures of tender ministry. Let Him lead you by the hand —a living presence. Let Him draw out your faith till you can say with joy: "He is able." Let Him hear your heart's cry of a great faith that wins His compassion.

> > The King Revealed.

A weary, dusty traveler came once to the door of a widow's cottage in Scotland, asking for food and shelter. It was a perilous time, and the woman knew not whether to count the stranger a soldier in need or a treacherous spy who sought her ruin; but when, by a few careful questions, he was convinced that he could trust her, he threw aside his cloak, and there shone upon his breast the badge of royalty. Then the widow knew that it was her exiled king, the noble Bruce, returned once more to claim his rightful sovereignty. Her heart was opened wide, and she gave him all she had, of food, and arms, and her two noble boys to bear him com-pany as he renewed his struggle for the throne. So to the few most trusted ones our King, who comes in His humility, reveals His royalty, and they have the high privilege not only to see His glory, but to nelp Him to win His own.

Visions and Ideals. Carrying with us a sense of divine companionship, conscious of our heritage from generations past, may we never stand bewildered between our visions and our tasks, but find in them and in every opportunity for human help the heavenly call to us to be artists in divine things, making real in human lives and institutions our visions and our ideals .- Rudolph

Freeman. Think No Evil. Remember that charity thinketh no evil, much less repeats it. These are two good rules which ought to be written on every heart-never believs anything bad about anybody unless you positively know it is true; never tell even that unless you feel that if is absolutely necessary, and that God is listening while you tell it .- Henry

The Dove of Peace. High above the storms rides the dove of peace and its message lives despite the wind and wave.

Van Dyke.

Eighty miles an hour is the speed of a hurricane movement.

Some of the larger boats of the Atlantic service carry as many as 150 firemen.

The population of Greater New York is 4,400,000; of Greater London 6,100,000.

According to the Rev. B. L. Agnew the average salary of Presbyterian ministers is $700 a year. William Newberry, of Quincy,

Mich., is ninety-five, but he has never used spectacles to read or work with.

Lamar Jackson, a full-blooded Choctaw, has been appointed to a cadetship at West Point from Okla-

Hezekiah Wilkins, who fused the first heat of iron made west of New York, died at Detroit recently, aged eighty-seven.

To go further afield, mere children of ten, nine and even eight years of age are, by Indian custom, often married. This applies to the girl only, although native boys of from twelve to fourteen become husbands and the nominal heads of households.

Consul Brittain, of Kehl, explains the new method of keeping clean the congested business streets of the larger German cities. Metal tanks are inserted at intervals to the level of the street, and covered with iron lids. Into these the offal is easily swept. In the night the tanks are hauled to the dumping grounds.

While giving a geography lesson, a teacher called upon a precocious youngster named Johnny to tell what he could about "zones." Johnny responded as follows: "There are two kinds of zones, masculine and feminine. The masculine zones are temperate and intemperate, while the feminine zones are both horrid and

The deepest well in the world is probably the one at Sperenberg, Germany, some twenty miles from Berlin, sunk for the purpose of obtaining rock-salt brine. A bore-hole of sixteen inches diameter was carried. down to the depth of 280 feet, where the salt bed began; after a further descent of 680 feet the bore was reduced to thirteen inches diameter, and then continued till the extraordinary depth of 4119 feet was reached

The real name of Defoe, the author of "Robinson Crusoe," was Daniel Foe. His father, a butcher of Cripplegate, was James Foe. Both father and son were busy men among Dissenters about the year 1700, and the son, to distinguish him from the father, was always called Mr. "D" Foe. His letters to Lord Halifax, written in 1705, are signed in three different forms-"D. Foe," "De Foe" Lord," and yet-He hears that cry. | and "Daniel De Foe." He after-Remember He is on His way to wards adopted De Foe or Defoe as

MOVING PICTURES OF CLINICS.

What is in that cry? Need? Yes. Prof. Negro Successfully Uses Them

Professor Camillo Negro, of the ceeded in using the cinematograph for clinical purposes. The attempts hitherto made in Paris and New York to apply this system of photography to the demonstration of nervous crises have not so far been success-Thirdly, Jesus has compassion. He ful in clinical application, but Professor Negro's demonstrations admirforms of neuropathy in a human sub-

While the professor is explaining each case the cinematograph is at the same time reproducing all the peculiar movements of which it is impossible to give an idea by a simple photographic plate. Particularly striking have been his demonstrations of cases of organic hysterical hemiplegia, epileptic seizures and attacks of chorea. Professor Negro's films will shortly be shown in London.

Street Names in China.

The name proposed as a substitute for the present commonplace title of Sixteenth street, in Washington, D. C., is the Avenue of Presidents. To this some persons object because of Its length. How would they like to import a few street names from China, where such poetic names as the following are in vogue? Street of Golden Love. Street of Everlasting Love, Street of Longevity, Street of One Hundred Grandsons, Street of One Thousand Grandsons, Street of Saluting Dragons, Street of the Reposing Dragons, Street of Refreshing Breezes, Street of Sweeping Breezes, Street of One Thousand Beautitudes, Street of a Thousandfold Peace, Street of Five Happinesses, Street of Ten Thousand Happiness, Street of Manifold Brightness and Street of Accumulated Goodness .- New York Sun.

Living In.

Recognizing as we have all along sistants are employed to take care that a large number of shop girls are not quite prepared for the reform which we advocate, the significance of Messrs. Swan & Edgar's example is in no way discounted because a few girls are "terribly upset by the change." The work of education is going on, and this event is a part of that work. -Shop Assistant.

Tradition.

Tradition is forever vindicating itself. Herodotus told of the pygmies in Africa and the supercilious modern the groofs - Statesman, Calcutta.

NO ONE CAN ALWAYS AVOID

Many people persist in riding on the street cars, insufficiently protected by They start out perhaps in the heat of the day and do not feel the need of The rapid moving of the car cools the body unduly. When they board the car

The rapid moving of the car cools the body unduly. When they board the car perhaps they are slightly perspiring. When the body is in this condition it is easily chilled. This is especially true when a person is sitting.

Beginning a street car ride in the middle of the day and ending it in the evening almost invariably requires extra wraps, but people do not observe these precautions, hence they catch cold.

Colds are very frequent in the Spring on this account, and as the Summer advances, they do not decrease. During the Spring months, no one should think of riding on the car without being provided with a wrap.

A cold caught in the Spring is liable to last through the entire Summer. Great caution should be observed at this season against exposure to cold. During the first few pleasant days of Spring, the liability of catching cold is great.

No wonder so many people acquire muscular rheumatism and catarrhal diseases during this season.

No wonder so many people acquire muscular rheughstism and catarral diseases during this season.

However, in spite of the greatest precautions, colds will be caught.

At the appearance of the first symptom, Peruna should be taken according to directions on the bottle, and continued until every symptom disappears.

Do not put it off. Do not waste time by taking other remedies. Begin at once to take Peruna and continue it until you are positive that the cold has entirely disappeared. This may save you a long and perhaps serious illness later on.

Bad Effects From Cold.

Mr. M. J. Deutsch, Secretary Building Material Trades Council, 151 Washington St., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I have found your medicine to be unusually efficacious in getting rid of bad effects from cold, and more especially in driving away all symptoms of catarrh, with which I am frequently troubled."

The specific of coughing that would sometimes last for a half hour.

"Now we can never thank you enough for the change you have made in our little one's health. Before she began taking your Peruna she suffered everything in the way of cough, colds and croup, but now she has taken not quite a bottle of Peruna, and is well and strong as she has ever been in her life." Material Trades Council, 151 Washington St., Chicago, Ill., writes:
"I have found your medicine to be unusually efficacious in getting rid of bad effects from cold, and more especially in driving away all symptoms of catarrh, with which I am frequently troubled."
"The reltef Peruna gives in catarrhal troubles alone is well worth the price per bottle: I have used the remedy for several years now."

been in her life. Pe-ru-na for Colds.

Spells of Coughing.

Mrs. C. E. Long, writes from Atwood, Colorado, as follows:

"When I wrote you for advice my little three-year-old girl had a cough that had been troubling her for four months. She took cold eastly, and would wheeze Mr. James Morrison, 68 East 16th St.,

The estimated value of dairy products for 1907 was $800,000,000, and

WAS DELIRIOUS WITH ECZEMA.

Pain, Heat and Tingling Were Excru-ciating—Cuticura Acted Like

Magic.

"An eruption broke out on my daugh ter's chest. I took her to a doctor, and he pronounced it to be eczema of a very bad form. He treated her, but the disease

she did not have a proper hour's sleep for many nights. The second doctor we tried afforded her just as little relief as the first.

Then I purchased Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, and before the Ointment was three-quarters finished every trace of that of poultry $600,000,000.

Sold by the best shoe dealers everywhere. Shoes in trated Catalog free to any address. Electric light was first exhibited outside | the Gaiety Theatre in 1864.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Diseases permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. $2 trial bottle and treatise free. Dr. H. R. Kline, Ld., 931 Arch St., Phila., Pa. Goldfish came from China, and the first were sent to England in 1691.

Garfield Tea, the herb medicine, insures a healthy action of liver, kidneys, stomach and bowels. Take it for constipation and sick headache. Write Garfield Tea Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., for free samples. spread to her back, and then the whole of her head was affected; and all her hair had to be cut off. The pain she suffered was

Eighty miles an hour is the speed of hurricane's movement. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children excruciating, and with that and the heat teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, 25ca bottle. Occasionally she was delirious and

One couple out of a thousand live to celebrate their golden wedding. Itch cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. Never fails. At c uggists.

The rubber tip on the end of leal pen-Many Old People Suffer From Bronchial Affections, particularly at this time of year. Brown's Bronchial Troches give immediate relief.

The coal trade of the United Kingdom gets, and there is no dew in that in 1905 employed 837,100.

the disease was gone. It really seemed like magic. Mrs. T. W. Hyde, Brentwood, Essex, England, Mar. 8, 1907." Twenty minutes of rain in a year is sometimes all that Southern Egypt

CHICKENS EARN MONEY! If You Know How to Handle Them Properly

Whether you raise Chickens for fun or profit, you want to do it intelligently and get the best results. The way to do this is to profit by the experience of others. We offer a book written by a 25 years in raising Poultry, had to experiment and spend way to conduct the business—CENTS in postage stamps. and Cure Disease, how to Market, which Fowls to Save indeed about everything you must know on the subject to make a success. SENT indeed about everything you must know on the subject to make a success POSTPAID ON RECEIPT OF 25 CENTS IN STAMPS.

Book Publishing House, 134 Leonard St., N. Y. City.

AN IMITATION TAKES FOR ITS PATTERN THE REAL ARTICLE

There was never an imitation made of an imitation. Imitators always counterfeit the genuine article. The genuine is what you ask for, because genuine articles are the advertised ones. Imitations are not advertised, but depend for their business on the ability of the dealer to sell you something claimed to be "just as good" when you ask for the genuine, because he makes more profit on the imitation. Why accept imitations when you can get the genuine by insisting?

REFUSE IMITATIONS-GET WHAT YOU ASK FOR!

The Remarkable Part. 'What was there so 'remarkable about Hercules cleaning the Augean stables?" asked the professor. "The fact." said the student after come thought, "that so large a Government contract could be fulfilled without anybody's being charged with graft."-Washington Star. Three hundred Berlin streets are planted with 44.000 trees, which are said to represent a value of $190,000. Nearly a thousand gardeners and as-

Clears The Voice

Hale's Honey

of Horehound and Tar

There is Only One "Bromo Quinine"

That is of them.

Laxative Bromo Quinine

USED THE WORLD OVER TO GURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

them. So there was no Minos and no Labyrinth—thi Evans unearthed for this signature on every box. 250.