

THE ROSENBERG MERCANTILE COMPANY.

A man is judged by the Clothes he wears. The Clothes need not be very expensive, but must be of a becoming pattern, fit well and hold shape.

IN buying a suit the safest plan is to buy from a reliable firm. This is the way we do in buying our goods to sell. We buy only from established houses, who have made their reputation by making high classed clothing, and we back every garment we sell by our personal guarantee. We have been in business long enough to know that it pays us to give our customers the very best values for their money.

THE ROSENBERG MERCANTILE COMPANY.

BY this method of doing business our sales have showed a steady increase from year to year. If anything you buy from us does not prove as represented, we will give you your money back. The house we buy from will refund it to us. This is the reason we buy from houses of reputation. You buy from us and get your money's worth or your money back.

Mr. Rykard Doubts.

No Says That Neither Peary Nor Cook Have Been at the Pole.

Anent all this talk of the North pole, Mr. J. W. Rykard of this city has something to say.

During the recent unpleasantness between the States, members of the Union army extended to him an invitation to accept their hospitality. He didn't much want to go exactly at that time, but the Yankees were insistent, and not desiring to be rude, Mr. Rykard went home with some of the fellows who had quarters in Chicago, on the borders of Lake Michigan in the state of Illinois. The Yanks gave him and others a regular house party for a time which was much longer than the "house parties" of this day and time, and they paid daily attention to Mr. Rykard and his associates. They were so interested in the entertainment of their guests that they sat up with them during the silent watches of the night—except in cold weather. The temperature of the weather in the land of Mr. Rykard's hosts on occasion ran down to 30 degrees below zero, when those who were keeping watch to prevent harm from coming to their guests were forced to go in doors, leaving guests to their fate. Mr. Rykard and other guests didn't go to the pump in their shirt sleeves. The water froze, and no living creature could long withstand the cold wind.

If military sentinels, or guards, were compelled to go in doors to the fire when the temperature was at 30 below zero, Mr. Rykard does not believe that any living creature could long survive exposure to 117 degrees below zero. Mr. Rykard does not see anything to prevent a man's feet from becoming cold in such exposure, and he doesn't know how a man could lie down on the ice without "catching cold." No, Mr. Rykard doesn't believe that either Cook or Peary has been to the pole.

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY.

Miss Addie Cason entertained most delightfully last Friday evening at her home on Main street in honor of her guest Miss Annie Nelson, of High Springs Fla. Charlie King, Jimmie Woodhurst, Will Douglas, John Calvert, Joe Ashley, Leonard McIlwain, Walter Richardson, Grover and Mance Hollingsworth, Lucian Schroeder, Tom Robison, Edgar Eskina, Theo White George McKay, Mr. Martin and Mr. Elio. Games were played and the evening passed off most pleasantly.

DOMESTICATED BALAAMS.

Swift Footed Horse Kindly Waits For His Master.

Our neighbor across the Saluda, the Laurens Advertiser, was correct in construing our remarks about the speed of our balaams. We were however, a little careless in our speech, and didn't think anybody would take us "too seriously." In fact, our balaams have become so domesticated under the lien law, that we have to be on our guard to keep from head-on collisions. Not so with all of our horses. Mr. S. T. Cromer had a horse hitched to a wagon one day last week. He left it standing, with no one to watch it. For some reason unknown to us the horse walked off with the wagon. Mr. Cromer began to run for it. The horse took fright and ran for life. Mr. Cromer in trying to catch the animal, fell and nearly broke one hand, a rib or two was jarred, and in the fall he came near tearing his breeches. When the horse reached the brow of the next hill, he stopped and waited for Cromer.

Asks the Abbeville Press and Banner: "If an automobile is required to honk, honk, honk, as it goes around a corner or passes a deaf man on the side walk, why should not a balaam animal be required to bray when he turns a corner or speeds along a straight line in passing an automobile?"

BELLEVUE.

Mrs. W. P. Conner, of Memphis Tenn; and Mrs. Hearst of Greenwood, have been with relatives in this community for several days. Our Bellevue girls are at home again, after a pleasant visit to friends at Clemson, and Iva, they report a delightful time. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Morrow, and Mrs. Wardlaw were guests of Mrs. Clement, of Mt. Carmel on Thursday. The Misses Wells of Mt. Carmel spent Wednesday with Miss Eloise Horton. Miss Carrie Cowan is at home after spending sometime with relatives in Lebanon and Warrenton. Rev. Mr. Buss, pastor of Buffalo, preached in the afternoon of the second Sabbath. Miss Fannie Morrow of Spartanburg, has been on a visit to Mrs. Britt. Mr. John Morrow came home from Iva on Saturday, and will be in Bellevue for a short time. Miss Sara Britt left Monday, for Limestone, N. C. Messrs. Wazland Britt of Sandover, and Ernest Hanvey of Long Cane are at Clemson this season. Miss Mamie Cromer is in Sandover, and will open her school on Monday. We have had fine rains during the past week, the first we have had in sometime. Our farmers are getting their cotton picked out rapidly, some being ginned and sold; on account of the dry weather very little will be made, but it is bringing a very good price. Mrs. J. C. Kennedy, and Mrs. Addie Robinson were in Bellevue last Wednesday. Mr. O. A. Morrah was the guest of Mrs. Lillie Wardlaw on Thursday. Mr. Adam Wideman is with relatives in Troy. Morrah and Wardlaw are getting their ginnery in running order and will soon be ready for ginning cotton. Mrs. J. B. Britt is in Abbeville for a few days. Mrs. Ada Kennedy was the guest of Miss Onie Kennedy Thursday. Mr. Hagan of Lethe, has bought the Clement house in Mt. Carmel.

THE CONSUMPTIVE'S RIGHTS.

New York World. The District of Columbia law under which a consumptive has been arrested and sentenced for frequenting a saloon is an extreme example of the new legislation against tuberculosis. As a result of the social movement against the disease hovels and hospitals decline to receive its victims as guests of patients. Ministers will not marry them. Health resorts discourage their presence and a California city has threatened to deny asylum to visitors from the East who have the disease in an advanced stage. All of this is evidence of a determined and praiseworthy effort to reduce the risk of infection. But consideration of equal justice should not be overlooked. Is the consumptive a man and brother or a leper that he should be subjected to social ostracism? If we are to create by law a parish leas in which by the nature of their disease many refused people must be included, we at least should compensate those from whom the privileges of society are withdrawn. If consumptives are to be segregated adequate provision should be made for their accommodation in hospitals, and mountain camps and for their sanitary housing under some form of the community plan. The Cleveland experiment on this line reveals a sense of society's moral obligation to the consumptive. In our "war on the white plague" it is well to bear in mind the rights of the conquered under the rules of civilized warfare.

RHEUMATIC FOLKS.

Are You Sure Your Kidneys are Well? Many rheumatic attacks are due to uric acid in the blood. But the duty of the kidneys is to remove all uric acid from the blood. Its presence there shows the kidneys are inactive. Don't dally with "uric acid solvents." You might go on till doomsday with them, but until you cure the kidneys you will never get well. Doan's Kidney Pills not only remove uric acid but they strengthen the kidneys and then all danger from uric acid is ended. The following testimony will convince the most skeptical Abbeville citizen: Mrs. Lucy Tucker, 23 Mill Row, Laurens, S. C., says: "For several years I suffered from kidney trouble. My back ached a great deal and I had rheumatic twinges in my sides. Headaches often bothered me and at times I was so weak that I could hardly do my house work. Believing that all this trouble arose from disordered kidneys and having heard Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of for such complaints, I procured a box. Since using this remedy I have improved greatly and I have no hesitation in saying that I believe it to be the best kidney preparation to be had." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
