LOWNEVILLE.

Rev. W. E. Atrial of Rock Hill came by this place Monday on his way to Conference at Abbeville and spent a day or two with his son Mr. Marion Atrial, who has been assisting in the bank here for some time.

Rev. R. W. Humphries and Mrs. Sallie Hunkabee went to Abbeville Monday, the one to fill his place in the gathering of Methodist ministers, the other to enjoy the companionship of friends.

During the past week several home changes have taken place among our townspeople.

Mr. J. F. Gibert who had occupied Mrs. Moore's house on Main since last winter, on Tuesday moved to the T. D. Cooley place on Main St.

Mr. Laurence Speer who had been at Dr. Speer's old home on Tuesday moved to the house vacated as above stated.

On Friday Dr. Speer, moved from the Latimer house to his old home in no doubt better satisfied than he has been for twelve months.

Mr. J. M. Tucker and family of the Fork moved in last week and are occupying the old Johnson home.

Mrs. S. F. Epps had the misfortune of loosing her barn by fire Monday night. The County hands in charge of Capt. J. V. Schroeder passed through this place Monday. The people of the Township are glad, that soon, the roads over which they have to travel, will be put into first class order.

Wednesday evening at a rural school near Mr. C. L. Clinkscales taught by Miss Rogers, while the boys were playing baseball, the better let the bat slip out of his hand, it struck Mr. Jeff Bowman's son on the nose where it joins the frontal bone badly breaking the first. Dr. J. D. Wilson was called in and rendered the necessary service. The little fellow is doing as well as could be expected.

As was reported in these columns some time ago Mr. D. L. Barnes, gave to his little Nephew Master Dr. Witte Harper a sheldan pony and a buggy to match. The owner has been having an enjoyable time driving around. Last week the little pony wanted it, is supposed, to play smart and that he could run away as well as a big horse and he did when the frolic was over and the fragments gathered up, it was found that no little time and labor will be called for to put things to rights.

DOTS FROM ARBORVILLE.

Miss Gillie and Master Allen Bowie spent last Saturday night and Sunday with Misses Lucy and Jessie Bowie. Master Allen says he doesn't like the cotton mill much; would rather be out on the farm. We agree with the young man. This thing of being harbored up in a cotton mill doesn't suit a boy who has been raised on the farm.

Everything is very dull just now, but we are looking forward to Christmas and Old Santa. We have not heard of any of our young men making any preparation for bringing in their best girls yet, but we think from Mr. J. H. Green's conduct there must be something doing.

Next Saturday is our regular meeting day at Arborville school house. This is our last meeting for this year. We hope all of the members will be present; there will be some important business to attend to, and new officers to elect. Boys, don't let your Union go down; stick till all is blue. Now is the time to stick and now is the time to work; with plenty of hog and hominy, we are prepared to work more.

Mr. R. Winn killed a hog last week that weighed seven hundred and eighty pounds, and Mr. Will Nickles killed two that netted four hundred and fifty each. This looks like Unionism. So much for Nubbin Ridge!

THOMAS PURDY PASCHAL.

Tribute to the Worth of a Good Man.

There died at the Margaret Wright Hospital in Augusta, Ga., on the evening of November 23rd, a man whose death caused a distinct loss not only to his own home and town but to the entire community at large. Thomas Purdy Paschal was a giant in frame and mind and in heart. Born in that perilous year of 1823 near Mt. Carmel, S. C. into a home which the misfortunes of war had made destitute, Tom Paschal even in his baby years became the breadwinner of the family, the comfort and support of his widowed mother. This responsibility so nobly begun never ceased. By strict integrity, perseverance, and wonderful business ability Mr. Paschal amassed considerable property and became one of the most popular and successful business men in that part of the state. Being a man of generous impulses, sympathetic and charitable, he was a true friend to all. This writer knows to his own knowledge, that last January before leaving for Hot Springs, Arkansas, to seek health, Mr. Paschal himself saw that the poor folks around here provided for. For his benevolence he gave to his negroes work to enable them to live through the winter, even when he did not need the work done. Only the angels know what good to the world Tom Paschal's life was. He was a father to indeed to many fatherless children, and to the widow a helper. To his own loved ones Tom Paschal was a tender and affectionate son, a true and loving husband, and to his only child a devoted father. Tom Paschal lived that practical religion which he knew was so necessary to comfort and existence in this life. About a year ago Mr. Paschal's health failed the struggle was too great for even his big mind and body and on the 29th of September he took his bed, and later was carried to the hospital. With a fortitude which was characteristic of the man, he fought his last brave fight against that fearful disease, diabetes, but in vain, and like a babe he fell sweetly to sleep on Tuesday evening, November the 23rd at 8:30 o'clock.

His funeral was preached by his beloved pastor, Rev. S. A. Patterson of the Associate Reform Presbyterian Church at Mt. Carmel, S. C. on Thanksgiving Day at noon. He was buried in the cemetery by the Knights of Pythias of which order he was an active member.

In 1895 he was married to Miss Lilly May Williams, youngest daughter of the late Capt. D. R. Williams of Greenwood, S. C. His wife and child, also his aged mother survive him.

One who knew him, and appreciated his true worth.

Eating for Strength.

The greatest pleasure to be derived from eating is the pleasure one gets in the knowledge that his food is giving him greater strength and vitality.

Because of this fact there is a constant increase in the consumption of Quaker Oats; every time the strength making qualities of Quaker Oats have been tested by scientific investigation or by experiments in families it has been found to be a food without an equal.

It builds the muscles and brain without taxing the digestive organs; it costs so little anyone can afford it, and it is so carefully prepared and packed that it is absolutely pure and clean. A Quaker Oats eating family is always a healthy family.

Besides the regular size packages Quaker Oats can be bought in hermetically sealed tins. Packed in this way it keeps fresh and sweet in any climate. 11

A Fine Farm for Sale!

The Ellington Plantation on Little River (700 acres), 5 1/2 miles from Abbeville, one-fourth mile from the Seaboard R. R. and three-fourths miles from Watts station. A 12 horse farm in cultivation, a fine orchard and over 100 pecan trees, some now bearing; a real good 7-room house nearly new and painted, 9 good tenant houses, 4 good barns. This plantation has long been noted as a fine place; about 50 acres well set in Bermuda grass, four pastures well fenced with wire, also three large fields fenced; three fine wells of water, four good springs with branches that never fail; four different grades of land. Plenty of good pine land to open up a 5-horse farm more. The place is a very fine waste land; a fine place for raising cattle; plenty of good bottom land. Plenty of good tenants on the place.

I live on the farm and will take pleasure in going all over it with any one who would wish to see it.

Would want one-fourth cash, balance on long time, four or five years. I would rent the place for at least one year and pay 24 bales cotton rent.

Titles A-1. If more than one party wished to buy would cut the place up into four or five tracts. I might also sell another good plantation two miles from this one of 656 acres lying on Little River. W. M. McNEILL, Dec. 1, 1909. Watts, S. C.
