

EAST END.

What "M" Sees and Hears on His Rounds About the City and Along Route No. 3.

Professor James A. Hill is once more to the front in the "show" line with a moving picture show, and we hear will also be in the circus business soon.

All we have to say, there is no man in the city that understands manipulating a show better and more successfully than Prof. Hill.

Miss Staurt, one of Greenville's pretty young ladies spent Easter in the city as the guest of her friend, Mrs. Leonard.

A Strange Phenomena About a week ago on Tuesday as Mr. Craft and little boy were working in his field near Crafts Ferry on Savannah river, "rocks" began to fall around them—at first they thought some persons were rocking them, but soon they found out it was a rock shower or a shower of rock falling from the size of an egg to that of your double fist. They at once ran to the house where they were still falling and continued at different intervals to the following Friday. About 500 was estimated to have fallen on Tuesday, the first day.

We cannot account for this unless it was from some near by volcanic eruption. Will tell you more about it next week.

Quite a number of college boys and girls were here for Easter.

Four fires since Saturday. Don't you think that most too many? It looks as if some body wants to see the fire brigade on dress parade. The fire over Keller Bros.'s store Sunday night came near being a very serious one, which would have caused great loss. In our opinion it takes some one to make a fire even in a trash pile. You may place powder in a trash pile and it will remain as such together without harm unless one touches it off.

Fortunately the fire was discovered before it did much damage to Mr. Clark's gun shop or Keller Bros.'s store.

Of course Mutt and Jeff were in quick time and the fire was soon extinguished.

Easter decorations were to be seen in the Episcopal, Catholic and Methodist churches, also appropriate services.

The Methodist church was very pretty in its decorations about the chancel and pulpit—which consisted of Easter Lillies, pot plants, ferns and palms. Just behind this mound of beautiful flowers was a large white cross with a smaller one in the center studded with 30 small electric lights, which produced a very beautiful effect and behind this cross was a pink globe which cast a soft pink light over all, adding much to the beauty of the scene.

Miss Ada McMillan presided at the organ and her magic touch proved her skill and efficiency as a musician of no small renown.

The choir was at its best and rendered most beautifully the fine selections of music for this special occasion. The sermon was upon the resurrection and was of course appropriate to the occasion being delivered in a forceful and earnest manner, claiming the close attention of the congregation.

The day was rather cool for Easter rigging, although some made the venture, while some who cared more for comfort than show even wore wraps and coat suits.

Thus ended another grand and glorious Easter.

Happenings on Route 3

Mr. Edwin Parker has learned to be a fine road builder which fact is evidenced in the way he has recently fixed up the road. He started to Abbeville with a top load of cotton before fixing the road and stalled. He returned home dragged and filled in with rock well covered with earth after which he added several more bales and with a spanking team came to Abbeville without a single stop. So much for good roads and wide awake farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McGaw have just returned from a visit to Mrs. McGaw's grandfather, who was in the rock shower and will tell us all about it.

The lumber for McGaw's bridge has been sawed several weeks and is still lying where it was sawed.

We think bridges and roads on R. F. D. routes should of all others, first receive attention as these sections are supposed to run through the most densely populated sections of country.

Throw the mail carrier out of gear and the people begin to kick at once and that too not without a good cause.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Wilson were in the city last Saturday.

This pretty weather the farmers are rushing business on the farm.

Miss Ora Ellis, the popular teacher of Lebanon school, spent last Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John Little.

Mrs. P. B. Parnell of Bordeaux was the guest of Mr. J. B. Strickland and family Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Eliza Tanham, after a weeks stay with her son, Mr. J. B. Strickland, and family, left for her home in Anderson Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lawton spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Strickland, returning to their home at Mt. Carmel Monday morning.

Master Willie Strickland has again returned to his school duties at Mt. Carmel after an absence of two weeks.

Illness died at his home on Upper Main street, Thursday evening about 6 o'clock.

Mr. McDill was originally from Doe, West, from whence came so many good people, but he has been so long identified with Abbeville that he was claimed by our people as an Abbevilian.

He married, Miss Jennie Delph, daughter of Judge J. Fuller Lyon, purchased a comfortable home and settled down to business and was well known in the business circles of Abbeville. He was a member of the A. R. P. church of this city and took great interest in all its workings.

His funeral services were conducted at his home and interment took place at Melrose cemetery in the presence of many friends and relatives.

A wife, and 5 children with other relatives survive him and in their great grief have the tenderest sympathy of the people of this community.

Polly of the Circus.

There is a famous paragraph in the discipline of a great church which puts the circus rider under the ban along with other objectionable amusements. The liberal element of the denomination who strove in vain to have the paragraph expunged, might have their opponents invited to see Miss Ida St. Leon in Frederic Thompson's great play "Polly of the Circus," and which is one of the tenderest and most touching that will be seen at the opera house Monday April 15th.

This is one of the greatest scenic productions on the road and it is due to that genius, Frederic Thompson, who built and designed the huge Hippodrome and who owns the greatest amusement park in the world—Jama Park, Coney Island, New York City. It is an exquisite play, full of humanity and humor—a three ring circus with a sermon thrown in. The company is well balanced and coherent and the stage settings deserve no less than the work of the company. During the course of the play there is shown a circus with all the equipment, such as clowns, bareback riders, acrobats, ringmasters and aerial acts, also horses, dogs, ponies, also lights, noise and the smell of the sawdust ring.

FIGHT IN MEXICO HOURLY EXPECTED.

Rebels and Federals May Clash at Any Time.

Chihuahua, April 6.—Fighting between the federals and rebels may occur at any time at the same place where the two armies began the four days' battle which resulted in the federal defeat near Corral two weeks ago. A force of government troops numbering approximately 1,000, has moved north from Torreon, and its advance guard is reported not more than 15 miles south of Escalon. Reinforcements will be sent to the rebel force already in the vicinity of Escalon. This force of Liberals is commended by Gen. Campa and Gen. Agumedo.

FEDERALS READY FOR FIGHT.

One Thousand Armed Men Un-Sines and Sachez Prepare to Engage Rebels.

Presidio, Tex., April 6.—One thousand armed federals or the major portion of that number, under Gen. San Jines and Col. Sanchez, are ready to move on the revolutionists, and their commanders only await information as to conditions to determine whether they will fight at Juarez, 19 miles northwest, or at Jiminez, 22 miles almost due east. This message was admitted today by the federal commander. From other sources it is said that the destination of the column is Juarez.

Bacon's Rule for Study.

Lord Bacon laid down the rule that in our studies we should select those things that please us most, because we then develop our talents, and all the things that displease us most, because then we discipline the mind. He insisted, furthermore, that the latter studies are the more important of the two. It would be well to have these old truths recalled, revived and re-taught. They should be put back not only into our public schools but into our national life.

Unnecessary Repetition.

Little Jean Elizabeth was being baptized. When the minister put the water on her forehead she said, loud enough for all the congregation to hear: "My muzzer washed my face." —The Delineator.

Depths of Misery.

Somewhat Mixed.

"Something wrong with this item." "How now?" "Says the bridegroom took his place beneath the floral ball and 2,000 volts were immediately shot through his quivering frame."—Washington Herald.

The Reason.

The reason there are always two sides to a story is because the other fellow just won't stick to the truth.—Smart Set Magazine.

Dan J. Joyce, Smyville, Va., was so glad he escaped consumption and regained his health that he writes about it for the benefit of others. "I had a cough which hung on for two years, when I began using Foley's Honey and Tar compound. I kept on until the cough finally left me and I gained in weight from 113 to 185 pounds. In two years I have grown strong and healthy, all from the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, which cured me." McMurray Drug Co.

Mr. John T. Long, Who Lives in the Hickory Flat Section and is one of the largest farmers in the County, used our 8-3-3 goods last year, side by side with an imported fertilizer which cost him $16 more a ton than our 8-3-3, and none of his neighbors could tell where one ended and the other commenced. Mr. Long has red lands and 8-3-3 is the fertilizer for red lands. 8-4-4 is better for gray lands.

After so much rain the ground is badly bleached and this together with the lateness of the season and the lack of preparation will make it necessary for farmers to use a high grade fertilizer, and to use it freely to make satisfactory crops.

We have the goods ready made and are prepared to make prompt shipments. Agents everywhere.

TO BREAK UP COLD.

Some Advice That Will Save Time and Money.

Strong drink and quinine may relieve a cold, but usually does more harm than good.

To break up a hard cold in either head or chest thousands are using this sensible treatment. First of all look after your bowels; if they need attention use any reliable cathartic. Then pour a scant teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with a towel and breathe for 5 or 10 minutes the pleasant, soothing, healing vapor. Do this just before going to bed; you'll awake from a refreshing sleep minus a cold in the morning.

For colds, coughs, catarrh, asthma and croup HYOMEI is guaranteed. A five cent bottle is all you need to break up a cold and this can be obtained at C. A. Millford & Co.'s and druggists everywhere.

Odd Nest.

A curious freak on the part of wasps was recently discovered in Maryland. The wasps were noticed going in and out of a lock that secured a workshop door. The owner of the shop had the lock removed to satisfy his curiosity about the doings of the busy workers. He found a nest inside. The cells were made of mud and were full of larvae. There were several dead wasps inside the lock. As the lock was in daily use, the wasps could not have had a peaceful home.

Simple Liniment.

A simple liniment that is good for a strained back after a siege of household calls for four tablespoonfuls of strong ammonia, four tablespoonfuls of alcohol, two large tablespoonfuls of salt and about a quart of rain water. Put these ingredients into a bottle and shake well. As soon as the salt is dissolved it is ready for use. When needed rub the back with the liniment and continue the rubbing until the surface is warm with the friction.

Always.

Also in the matter of a kiss, two heads are better than one.—Smart Set Magazine.

ALL UNSTRUNG.

Many Abbeville People Suffer from Nervous Troubles and Don't Know Why.

Thousands of cases of kidney trouble show few outward symptoms except nervousness, depression, languor, irritability and an inclination to worry over trifles. It is generally due to the poisonous action of uric acid on blood and nerves, and can't be cured except by curing the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure these ills by curing kidneys. Abbeville women are learning it. Here is a local case.

Mrs. C. A. Smith, Fort Pickens, Abbeville, S. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly an excellent kidney medicine and are safe and reliable. My kidneys were in bad shape and I had dizzy and nervous spells. My head ached back ached and I could hardly drag myself around. I obtained Doan's Kidney Pills from P. B. Speed's Drug Store and they restored me to good health." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

At Least a Movement for Health.

In the Paddington borough of London, if you operate a tenement or apartment house, you must sweep the floors of all rooms once a day, wash them once a week and open the windows of all sleeping rooms for at least one hour in each day or pay a fine of $25. It may not be possible to make the people moral by law, but the borough council of Paddington believes much can be done to make them healthy.

She Couldn't Say.

A little boy out in Stockton, according to the Rooks County Record, said to his mother the other day: "Ma, am I a descendant from a monkey?" "I never know," replied the mother. "I never knew any of your father's folks." The father, who was listening, went out in the coal shed and kicked the cat through the roof.—Kansas City Star.

Baltimore's Experience.

The more you hear about what them boomers is goin' to do the more you don't hear about what they have went to work and did.—Baltimore Evening Sun.

Real Trouble About Reform.

"I specks," said Uncle Eben, "dat reform would be a heap easier if dar wasn't so many different people kickin' 'bout so many different things."

The Real Puzzle.

The puzzle is not whether Bacon or Shakespeare wrote the plays, but that one person could get them all accepted.

Mrs. J. L. Starnes, Hickory, N. C., has in the past suffered severely with throat and lung troubles. She says: "I used Foley's Honey and Tar compound for this and it gave me immediate satisfaction and relief. It gives me pleasure to recommend this preparation for sore throat, hoarseness, or any affection of the throat or lungs. I know it will do all claimed for it." McMurray Drug Co.
