

EAST END.

What "M" Sees and Hears on His Rounds About the City and Along Route No. 3.

If Abbeville needs any one thing more than another it is a town clock. We have a beautiful city hall and a handsome town clock to ring out the hours all through the day and night would give new life to all, besides would be an ornament to the city. Let our up-to-date mayor and his wide-awake and progressive aldermen take hold of this idea and see that Abbeville has a town clock. What does the Civic League say? We know between the two we could get what the city needs and could easily get. Let all strike for a clock and it will strike for all.

Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. McMillan are expected home this week after a long absence and a most enjoyable visit.

Mr. Hannah, of Rock Hill, spent last Monday night in the city looking after his best interests—a pretty young lady on Magazine Hill.

Many friends welcome Miss Annie Morrow back to her old home, where she has been spending her vacation with relatives and friends. All are glad to see her.

The many friends of Miss Kate Marshall will be glad to know that she is now able to visit her friends in the neighborhood.

It was quite a compliment to Capt. Syfan, the polite and attentive conductor on the Abbeville branch, to give him the two nice coaches. It shows he has a strong hold on the head men, and that they have full confidence in his judgment. He is receiving compliments from the ladies every day. If all conductors were as polite and attentive as he, ladies would have no trouble in traveling.

Miss Ruth Dunn left yesterday for Mullins, S. C., where she will spend sometime with her sister, Miss Cooper.

Mr. Will Jordan and sister, Miss Lizzie, were the guests of Major Nance and family last Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Nance expects to visit her brother at Lowndesville this week.

The campaign is still raging and we guess by the time they wind up all the candidates will be "well poked."

Hosts of friends extend kindest congratulations and best wishes to Mr. Sol Rosenberg and his happy bride, and extend to both a hearty and most cordial welcome to Abbeville, the home of Mr. Rosenberg. He was married on the 10th to Miss Octavia Harby Schwerin, one of Sumter's charming young ladies.

DOINGS ON ROUTE 3.

Misses Lillian and Josie McCarty were among the pretty visitors in the city one day last week.

Mr. Edwin Parker was in the city last Monday.

Misses Bessie and Lily Link were among the pretty visitors in the city last week.

Messrs. Sam and T. E. Wilson were in the city last Monday on business.

Messrs. Sam, George and John Link, with Mr. Sam Carlisle, were fishing last Saturday and caught 25 or 30 pounds.

Crops on Route 3 are getting in fair shape and with a few sunshiny days will be all o. k.

On last Saturday evening a Mrs. A. L. Buss and brother, Mr. Carter Adams, was coming to town, the harness broke and the horse became frightened and started to run when Mr. Adams jumped out and fixed the harness as he thought, but soon it broke again. He jumped out to fix it the second time when his foot caught, leaving him with his head hanging down between the wheels in a most perilous fix, but fortunately he got his foot loose and dropped down, the wheels running over him. Mrs. Buss jumped out and her face was badly cut, having to be sewed up. This was a narrow escape from a most serious affair.

Major Arthur Parker is better, being able to be up about the house.

No more marrying yet on Route 3, but there are candidates in this field and the bells are still chiming.

Grass is growing high on Route 3 as we see a luxuriant growth on the tip-top of Mr. Gilliam's gin house. How is this for high?

News is scarce as every one in the country is busy, too busy even for picnics and barbecues. Think of it!

Baptist Church Opened.

The repairs to the Baptist Church having been completed, the usual services were held last Sunday. The pastor, Rev. Louis Bristow, preached at the morning and evening services.

Fine Tomatoes.

Some of the finest tomatoes we have ever seen are those grown by Mrs. Minshall in her garden. For size, smoothness and flavor they are unsurpassed by any specimens it has ever been our good fortune to enjoy.

COL. R. W. SIMPSON DIED IN ATLANTA

Anderson Daily Mail.
Col. R. W. Simpson died in a sanitarium in Atlanta Thursday morning. His body was brought to Calhoun Thursday afternoon, and today was interred in the family burial ground on the Simpson farm, about three miles from Pendleton.

Col. Simpson was taken to Atlanta some time ago. He entered the same sanitarium that Senator Tillman spent several weeks in last year. His condition, after getting to Atlanta, continued to get worse, and the end came some time Thursday morning.

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.
Col. R. W. Simpson was born at Pendleton, September 11, 1849. His father was Hon. R. F. Simpson, an ex-congressman, a major in the Creek Indian war. Col. Simpson is a descendant of the Tallafero family of Virginia and other Virginians of note. He attended the schools of the date and graduated from Wofford College in 1861. From college he entered the service of the Confederate army, enlisting in company A, Third South Carolina regiment. It was one of the first regiments to enter Virginia. He served in it between one and two years, when, owing to bad health, he was discharged. After having partially recovered his health he joined Maj. Adams' battalion of cavalry. He was offered official positions but declined in every instance on account of poor health.

From 1865 to 1874 Col. Simpson devoted himself to agricultural pursuits in Anderson, South Carolina. In 1874 he was elected to the legislature, and the next year was admitted to the bar. He was re-elected to the legislature in 1876, and was one of the seven members who in 1876, broke down the house of representatives while the radical house was in session, and led the Democrats out. He was one of the most active spirits of that revolution which restored the state to white rule. He was a member of what was known as the "Wallace House" in time of the dual legislature and was locked up with it for four days and nights. As chairman of the ways and means committee he rendered valuable services to the state when the radicals were doing all in their power to bankrupt the state. He remained in the legislature until 1880, and since that time took no active part in state politics.

Since 1882 has devoted himself to the practice of law.
When in the legislature Col. Simpson began an active fight to get a college established for the poor boys of the state. He labored industriously for the accomplishment of this purpose, and his efforts in this direction proved successful. He was confidential attorney for Thos. G. Clemson, founder of Clemson College, and the death of Mr. Clemson he was made executor of his estate, and was the defendant in the celebrated case of Lee vs. Simpson, which involved the entire Clemson property. When the board of trustees of the college was organized he was elected president and held that position until a few years ago when he voluntarily resigned. He took a personal interest in the establishment of the college, and did much to make it a success.

Col. Simpson was a member of the Methodist church, and had taken 30 degrees in Masonry.

On February 10, 1863, Col. Simpson was married to Miss Marie Louise Garlington. Ten children were born of this marriage, nine of whom are now living.

In these days of high cost of living a medicine that gets a man out of bed and able to work in a few days is a valuable and welcome remedy. John Heath, Michigan Bar, Cal., had kidney and bladder trouble, was confined to his bed, unable to turn without help. "I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once." His example is worth following. McMurray Drug Co.

NEW SERIES FOR BUILDING AND LOAN.

I desire to call your attention to the eighth series of stock to be issued by the Building and Loan Association of Abbeville on July 20th, 1912.

Every well organized and well conducted Building and Loan has two ambitions: one to teach men to save, the other to help them to own their homes.

Our Association started business five years ago with $500, today our assets run up to $50,000. This amount has been gotten by small monthly payments from our stockholders—a good many paying $1 per month and the majority paying from $5 to $10.

The only way to accumulate any sum of money is by systematic saving. The man who saves $10 this month and $25 next month and then misses several will never get ahead. But if you put aside a definite amount each month it will soon amount to a neat sum.

Suppose you take ten shares of stock with us on July 20th, you will pay in $10 per month for 80 months, making $800 you have saved. In that time the Association will have made $200 on this for you and we will pay over to you $1,000.

With this amount you can make some good investment for yourself, while it would have been hard for you to invest $10 at a time in a paying proposition.

To make money last save it first. Our other ambition is for home building. We are now helping 50 citizens of Abbeville to pay for their homes by easy monthly payments.

Every man should own his home. It makes him a better citizen. The man who pays rent is restless and careless, while the home owner is interested in everything about the place.

With very little more put aside each month than you pay rent, you can pay for your home and in a short time become an independent home owner.

Our Association is purely local, we lead only on real estate in Abbeville township, and it is managed by nine directors who have the interest of Abbeville at heart.

We are doing a safe and prosperous business, and will be glad to help you as we are now helping others.

Remember the next series will be issued July 20th.

Don't Fail to Side-Dress YOUR CROPS

THE Government figures indicate that the cotton acreage is about two and one-half million acres less this year than last and that the condition is about eight per cent. worse than it was at this time last year.

Two and one-half million acres less and eight per cent. worse in condition of all of it will figure a good many bales of cotton even if the crop stands the summer as well as it did last year and it probably will not do this.

It looks as if this is a good year to make every lock of cotton you can. We know a man in this county who last year by side-dressing made seventy bales of cotton on a four horse farm and had nearly $1,200 clean clear profit on his cotton. This is nearly $300 to the plow. A farmer can get rich at that rate.

He could not have made this without side-dressing. We recommend with the fullest confidence our 4-10-2 at this time. Ten per cent. ammonia and half of this soda, the other half blood, meal and fish. The soda will act quickly and the blood, cotton seed meal and fish will keep up the supply of plant food until frost.

We had a late spring and will probably have a late fall. It is not too late to apply it. Your crop will be fruiting soon and will need additional plant food to keep it from shedding. Your best cotton deserves this 4-10-2 and goodness knows your poorest cotton needs it. It should be applied as quickly as possible for the business of this crop require haste.

One hundred and fifty pounds to the acre of this 4-10-2 will pay for itself about three times. Corn is high. It pays to side-dress corn as well as it does cotton. Make good crops this year, don't wait until next year to make good crops, make them this year.
