

The L. W. White Co.

When you come to the fair we would like to have you spend your spare time in our store. We can make your stay both pleasant and profitable.

Ready-to-Wear for Ladies Coat Suits Cloaks Long Coats Skirts Misses' and Children's Cloaks	Ladies' Shoes Misses' Shoes Children's Shoes Shoes for Men and Boys	Dress Goods of every description Serges Mohairs Broadcloths Poplar Cloths Poplins, Etc.	Domestics Cheviots Hickory Stripes Plaid Homespuns Brown Homespuns Drills Osnaburgs Outings	Clothing Men's Suits Boys' Suits Children's Suits Men's Pants Boys' Pants Overcoats Hats Furnishings	Underwear for Men and Boys Ladies' Underwear Hosiery Furnishings Neckwear Etc., Etc.
---	--	--	--	--	---

If you are looking for dependable merchandise at the least possible cost you will do well to see our stock.

Come to the Fair—Come to See Us
The L. W. White Co.

WEST END

Personal Paragraphs and News Items

Contributed by Miss Lily Templeton

Mr. J. H. DuPre spent several days in Atlanta last week.

Mrs. Mary Harris Hill is in Clinton spending some time with friends.

Miss Mary Lou Smith is at home again after spending some time with friends in Atlanta.

Miss Lizzie McBee, of Greenville, and Miss Polar Zeigler, of Shreveport, La., were here for the Lee-Rogers wedding. They are the guests of Mrs. W. P. Greene.

Miss Bessie Epling went to her home in Williamston and stayed until Sunday with her home people.

Mrs. John A. Cheek returned last Thursday from a pleasant stay of ten days with friends in Atlanta.

Miss Edna Cox spent Sunday in the city with her home people.

Miss Carrie Rogers, of Elberton, was the guest of Mrs. C. D. Brown Monday and Tuesday. Miss Rogers was here for the Lee-Rogers wedding.

Miss Grace Smith came home Saturday from Atlanta, where she has been visiting friends for the past two weeks.

MRS. PARKER ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. L. C. Parker entertained Thursday afternoon at a bridge party in honor of Miss Sarah Lee, bride-elect. After a number of games an elaborate salad course was handed. Miss Lee was given a graceful cut glass vase.

Mr. Allan M. Robertson, who has been working in Texas with the Cotton Insurance Association for several months, surprised his friends by paying a short visit to his home people here.

Miss Mamie Morse is at home after a pleasant stay in Atlanta.

MISS ROBERTSON ENTERTAINS.

Miss Mary L. Robertson was at home

Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Sarah Lee, whose marriage Tuesday to Mr. Z. B. Rogers, of Elberton, was one of the most important social events of the season. Euchar was the chosen game to open a number of pleasant games. A salad course was served. Miss Lee was given a dainty pair of blue silk stockings.

Mrs. Louis Levi is here from Manning spending a while with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Rosenberg.

Miss Mary E. Baskin is spending some time in Lebanon with friends.

Mr. A. B. Morse leaves this week for Columbia, where he goes as delegate to the meeting of Synod of South Carolina. Abbeville will extend an invitation to entertain this body next fall, as it will be the 100th anniversary of the separation of the Georgia and South Carolina Synods, and the meeting was held at Long Cane. The invitation is also voiced by the Long Cane church.

Mrs. Herman Benton, of Atlanta, spent Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. Mary Taggart.

Miss Mary E. Hill has returned home after a pleasant stay with friends in Elberton.

Miss Eunice McCrary came over from Clinton last week to see "45 Minutes from Broadway." She was the guest of Mrs. R. C. Philson while in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hayes, of Elberton, were over to attend the Lee-Rogers wedding. They were the guests of Mrs. J. H. Latimer and Miss Latimer while in the city.

Mrs. Walter Zimmerman and her little daughter, of Duluth, Minn., are here spending some time with Mrs. Zimmerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gambrell.

LEE-ROGERS WEDDING EVENT IN SOCIETY.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Lee to Mr. Zachary Broadus Rogers, of Elberton, Ga., was solemnized at Trinity church Tuesday evening and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Augustus Lee, which was one of the handsomest affairs given in Abbeville in some time.

The church was decorated with rare taste in white roses, ivy and Japanese cedar were effectively combined. The chancel was banked with palms and ferns. Slender onyx pedestals holding jars of maiden hair ferns were arranged to form an aisle down which the bridal party passed. The altar and reading desks were covered with white over which trailed graceful sprays of ivy. Around the altar railing and across the desks white tapes were used.

The musical program consisted of a solo, "A Bowl of Roses," sung by Miss Fannie Stark. Mrs. W. P. Conyers, of Greenville, sang two solos, "Promise Me," and "A Perfect Love." Miss McClung and Miss Stark sang a duet, "I Feel Thy Angel Spirit." The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," played by Miss Plevna Seal, announced the arrival of the bridal party. Masters Lewis Lee and John Bryant, ribbon bearers, came first.

The ushers, Mr. Lewis Perrin, Mr. H. Gillespie Smith, Mr. Albert Henry and Mr. Jones Blackwell, of Elberton, Ga., entered in pairs and were followed by the bride's attendants. The beauty of their gowns and flowers made the wedding one of exceptional artistic charm.

Miss Carrie Rogers, of Elberton, Ga., a sister of the groom, with Miss Lizzie McBee, of Greenville, then came Miss Piar Zeigler, of Shreveport, La., with Miss Mary L. Robertson, they wore white lingerie dresses over blue scooped berthas trimmed with ruffles of narrow blue ribbon, the skirts fell in graceful folds, edged with narrow lace flounces, showing a touch of blue. They carried French baskets filled with pink roses and tied with tulle. Next came Miss Grace Smith, maid of honor, beautifully gowned in blue brocaded crepe made tunis effect, with this was modishly combined pearl bands point applique and tiny pink rose buds. She carried an armful of Killarney roses. Mrs. Lewis T. Bryant, dame of honor, entered, wearing a pink charmeuse draped with chauntilly lace edged with silver fringe and caught with tiny blue roses. She carried pink roses.

The bride, who entered with her brother, Mr. W. A. Lee, was a winsome picture in her exquisite gown of white charmeuse richly blended with rose point lace, which formed the bodice and tiny sleeves and an entire side of the skirt with the soft shimmering fabric draped over it. Strings of whole pearls were used to border the draperies and to garland the corsage modishly, sprays of orange blossoms were used to confine the corsage and skirt draperies to correct lines. The misty veil was arranged with a coronet of pearls and the bridal bouquet was of lilies of the valley arranged in shower effect.

The groom was attended by Mr. James W. Austin, of Atlanta, Ga., as best man and the ceremony was performed by Rev. A. E. Cornish.

For the reception following, the Lee home, splendidly arranged for a large affair of the kind, was handsomely decorated throughout. The entire lower floor was thrown en suite and converted into a lovely bower with smilax and tall graceful palms. The dainty vine garlanded the chandeliers everywhere, trimmed the archway between the rooms. With this were used numberless candles. In the used numberless candles. In the front parlor, where the bride and groom received, only white roses were used, a profusion of them banking the mantle and lending their beauty elsewhere in the room.

The guests were greeted in the hall by Miss Ione Smith, Miss Mary E. Hill and Miss Louise Brown. Back in the dining room, cake and wine was served. The table in the center was set under the handsome electric dome of jade from which airy streamers of white gauze were drawn down to the four corners. Dozens of bride's roses beautifully arranged, formed the floral centerpiece and the table candles were held in tall crystal sticks. Receiving in the dining room during the evening were Mrs. C. D. Brown, Mrs. W. P. Greene, Mrs. Lewis Perrin and Mrs. Mary Parker.

The punch bowl, beautifully arranged, was presided over by Miss Mary Morse, Miss Jessie Speed, Miss Willie Calhoun, of Atlanta and Miss Fannie Harris.

In the library the wedding presents were displayed—an extraordinarily large and handsome collection, including much magnificent silver. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers left during the evening for their wedding trip north, expecting to visit New York and Atlantic City before going to their home in Elberton. The bride traveled in a smart suit of dahlia colored cloth with a touch of white with hat, shoes and gloves of matching shade completed the charming costume.

SAVES LEG OF BOY

"It seemed that my 14-year old boy would have to lose his leg, on account of an ugly ulcer, caused by a bad bruise," wrote D. F. Howard, Aquone, N. C. "All remedies and doctors treatment failed till we tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruptions, piles. 25c at P. B. Speed and The McMurray Drug Co. (Advertisement.)

PERSONALS

Dr. Whit Cheatham, Messrs. J. Price, B. H. and G. A. Deason, of McCormick, were among those who came up to see "Nutt and Jeff."

Mr. C. B. Fretwell, the popular traveling representative of the Proctor-Gamble company, with headquarters at Macon, Ga., spent some time last week with his sister, Mrs. W. M. Barnwell.

Mr. R. W. Bigby, of Honea Path, has been in town for several days, taking electric treatment from Dr. Hill.

A new story by Harold MacGrath, author of "The Man on the Box," begins in this issue.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I want to state that I am still in the monument business. I have been sick and not able to travel for about nine months, but I am now at home and will be glad to have you call to see me before you buy. I will make it to your interest and you will be helping a sick man to provide for his needy ones.

We guarantee our work to be as good as the best. Please come to see me or drop me a card and I will try to come to see you, and will certainly be glad to have your business.

Joe F. Edmunds.

HIGH-O-ME

That's the Proper Way to Pronounce HYOMEI, the Famous Catarrh Remedy Made from Australian Eucalyptus and Other Antiseptics—Just Breathe It.

It Banishes Catarrh

C. A. Milford & Co. are authorized to refund purchase price to any dissatisfied customer. Complete outfit, $1.00; extra bottle, 50c.

A new story by Harold MacGrath, author of "The Man on the Box," begins in this issue.

Stomach Sufferers Pay Nothing Unless Cured

A Postal will Bring Trial Treatment and a History of Famous People.

MI-O-NA Stomach Tablets surely do end all indigestion and stomach misery and to prove it we will send a trial treatment, an interesting booklet, and tell you exactly how to banish all stomach trouble and put your stomach in fine shape or not a cent to pay. Just say on a postal or in a letter "Send me free trial treatment of MI-O-NA" and you will never be sorry—address Booth's MI-O-NA, Buffalo, N. Y. C. A. Milford & Co. guarantee them.

You Will Be Convinced

THIS is the store where you will find only the most distinctive merchandise. We serve every customer with as much care as if the whole success of the business depended on that particular sale. In hats, we feature the "STETSON."

It will not take many minutes to convince you that SPERO, MICHAEL & SON, "Clothes That Satisfy" are the clothes you should wear. You may be able to pay more than they cost but what's the use when you can get all the style, all the quality and all the wear that much higher priced ones have.

If you are open to conviction about your clothes come in and see our new lines for Fall. You need not buy unless you feel sure that you are going to get better value, dollar for dollar, than you could anywhere else.

SUITS

$10.00, $12.50, $13.50 up to $22.50

OVERCOATS and RAIN COATS

$5.00, $7.50 up to $17.00.

"Bostonians" Famous Shoes for Men $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00 in all styles and all leathers. The most up-to-date line of FURNISHINGS ever shown in this city is here ready for you.

We Make Suits to Order

Call and Let Us Fit You Up

Cason & McAllister