UNITED HEARTS.

Miss Gla Thornton and Mr. B. F. Cheatham Have Launched Their Barque on the Sea of Matrimony

Quite recently many homes in Ab-peville have been illuminated, garlanded, made the scene of happy assem-blies of pretty women and handsome nen, but none have been happier, brighter or more lovely than was Mrs. hornton's home last night, when her harming daughter, Miss Ola, became he bride of Mr. Cheatham.

Married, November 11, Rev. H. W. Pratt, Miss Ola Thornton, aughter of Mrs. Joseph Freeman hornton, to Mr. Benjamin Franklin heatham, all of Abbeville. Miss Lila Cobb, of Ware Shoals, vas maid of honor and Mr. John T. heatham was groomsman. The marriage took place at 7:30 o'clock p. m., in the presence of only the immediate family.

The reception was at when invited guests assembled to do conor to the occasion, where all spent a most enjoyable evening. Flowers in reat profusion lent a charm to the Clarence Williamson, of Donalds; Miss Lillian Cobb, of Ware Shoals. The whole, lighted by electricity, to eyes that spake again, made a ing to 11,520 bottles. This is believed situate, lying and being in Abbeville scene most beautiful and more levely to be the largest seizure of beer ever County, in the State aforesaid, conand charmed by eyes that looked love han we can describe.

one of our best men, a good citizen, a first-class engineer, a man of high haracter and having the best of habits. He is a native-born citizen of Abbeville county, who came to town several years ago, entered the railroad service and has progressed so that he is now the head of the locomotive engineering business. Having the highest place in the minds and hearts of those railroad officials who are higher up, he is blessed in having won a bride who has all the womanly graces that go with a noble and sincere womanly heart—the specimen of her sex. noblest
