

WYATT AIKEN POPULAR IN WASHINGTON.

The following is taken from The Washington Club Fellow and Mirror, recent date:

"Wyatt Aiken, of South Carolina, is one of the most popular members of Congress that ever came to Washington. I overheard a fashionably gowned woman who was sitting in the reserved gallery the other day exclaim as Wyatt emerged from the cloak room: 'Oh, there goes Wyatt Aiken, isn't he a dear? I believe everybody loves that man.' And I agree with her. He seems to be everybody's friend. So modest and possessed with a suavity of manner that suggests the gentleman of the old school, I have never known him to be absent from the House or napping when a measure came up that benefitted the farmer. He might indeed well be called the watch dog of the farmers' interests in Congress. He has followed all his life two of the most antipodal occupations, they being farmer and court stenographer, 'farming in the Summer and stenographing in the Winter,' as he puts it. His fund of apt stories, perfect dandy dialect and flow of native wit make him a recenter in the Dewey class, with a much smaller crop of chestnuts than the famous Chauncey usually gathers."

LOWNDESVILLE

Lowndesville, Nov. 14, 1914.
Mr. Frank Watkins, Deputy Grand Master Mason, came down from his home in Anderson last Saturday and met with Roslin Lodge No. 86 in this place. He is also quite a prominent lawyer at the Anderson Bar.
Rumor has it, and for once rumor may be relied upon, that three of our young people are to be married in the near future. Mr. Orr Clinkscals and Miss A. Thornton, of Georgia, are to be married on the 18th instant, and Mr. A. J. Garner and Miss Ida Allen are to be married on the 25th instant.
Mr. DeWitt Harper of the Wofford Fitting School, came over last Saturday and remained with the family of his uncle, Mr. D. L. Barnes, till Monday morning when he returned to his duties. Mr. Barnes is doing a noble and commendable part by his protegee; will first fit him for Wofford and will then carry him through that higher institution of learning, and the young man is well fitted to and will make good use of his golden opportunities.
Mrs. E. W. Harper spent several days last week at the home of her son-in-law, Mrs. Theron Allen in Anderson county.
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Garrett, of Waterloo, spent a day or two last week with Mr. T. C. Liddell and family.
Mr. John C. Lomax, of Anderson, spent last Sunday with friends in town.
The Anderson Daily Mail of last week (Saturday) gave an account of a drove of wild geese that passed over a part of the city between 1 and 2 a. m. and some of those up very late first knew of them. They were flying very low, but little above the telegraph poles. An old gander in one barn yard first knew of them, and he in response to them, made a noise indicating his presence. That caused the drove to circle around the place where the gander was several times. They finally left going South. There is a little history connected with the gander above mentioned. Some years ago some Anderson hunters went down on the Savannah to hunt wild geese and ducks at Cherokee, and among the other trophies of the hunt was the gander now at Anderson. His wing was broken, carried to present home and been there ever since. Mr. Zeke Clinkscals who lives in the Fork, says that at his place are many wild geese, and it looks as if they will destroy some of his wheat which is growing nicely.

Mr. D. L. Barnes, Dr. T. O. Kirkpatrick, Mr. R. H. Moseley and Magistrate J. G. Huekabee took an auto ride to Abbeville and back Wednesday evening on business. The car in which they went was owned and driven by the first named.
Mrs. W. W. Thompson and Mrs. H. M. Schruppert went to Anderson Wednesday and next day to Spartanburg, the last named for treatment.
Dr. J. D. Wilson, of Due West, came over Thursday. He moved to that place a short time ago, but for cause, will next week break up his home there and move to Iva. Troupe.
