A HAPPY MARRIAGE.

The marriage of Miss Lucy Calvert and Mr. Jordan Ramey was solemnized last Wednesday evening, Sept. 5th, 1915, at the home the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Calvert, at half after eight o'clock.

The house had been beautifully decorated for the happy occasion, a color scheme of white and green being used in the parlor where a bank of ferns and two tall white pedestals were used as an altar. In the dining-room pink and white was used both in the decoration and in the trimming of the bride's cake, the initials of the bride and groom and the date of the wedding being traced in pink. In the library where there was a handsome collection of presents displayed, the decorations were also in pink, while in the hall the colors used were yellow and white.

At the appointed time the Wedding March was played by Miss Bessie Lee Cheatham and the bridal party entered in the following manner: Miss Sarah Calvert came first as maid of honor, followed by Donald Hill Calvert, who carried the wedding ring on a satin cushion. The groom entered with his brother, Mr. Wesley Ramey, of Atlanta, while the bride was escorted by her brother, Mr. John Calvert. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. E. Telford, the ring ceremony being used.

The bride wore a lovely dress of Duchess satin and real lace. Her veil was looped cap fashion and was caught up with orange blossoms while her bouquet was of brides' roses and lillies of the valley.

Only the relatives and intimate friends of the young couple were present at the marriage and the enjoyable reception which followed. Miss Calvert is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvert and is a young woman who numbers her friends by the score. She has the good wishes of all for a long and happy married life. Mr. Ramey has been with the L. W. White Company for years and is recognized as one of the coming young business men of the city.

After a short visit to the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ramey, in the Sharon neighborhood, the young couple are at home to their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cheatham on Upper Main street.

COMPLIMENTING A BRIDE TO BE

Mrs. Arthur L. Harvin gave a delightful party last Friday morning, which proved to be a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Ada McMillan, who is to be married on October 20th. The shower was a complete surprise to Miss McMillan, and was given this early, because Mrs. Harvin leaves this week for Washington, where she will spend the winter.

The house was decorated in vases of handsome cut roses and around the punch bowl, which was on the piazza, bright crepe myrtle was effectively used. Miss Maggie Latimer and Miss Plevna Seal received the guests here. There were four tables of Bridge and the players were Mrs. George Penney, Mrs. Herman Epton, Mrs. J. R. Nickles, Misses Mary Perrin, Maggie Latimer, Plevna Seal, Helen Edwards, Antoinette Thomson, Sarah Perrin, Ione Smith, Sarah Haskell, Mary Lawson Link, Esther Graydon, Mrs. Jack Pressly and the charming honoree. In the midst of the games a package was delivered at the door with message that it had come by parcel post for Miss McMillan, and when opened it was found to contain an assortment of lovely gifts.

Delightful refreshments of salads and creme de menthe sherbert were served at the close of this pleasant party.

TO BE MARRIED.

A wedding of much interest to the people of Abbeville is that of Miss Sara Calvert, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Calvert, and Mr. Arthur Ellis which will take place at high noon at the home of the bride's parents, Thursday Sept. 16th. Immediately after the ceremony a buffet luncheon will be served after which the young couple will leave on the Seaboard for a trip of two weeks after which they will be at home to their friends at 8510 Tamo'n Street, New Orleans.

Miss Calvert has lived all her life in Abbeville and she has friends by the score, both here and over the State, who wish her every happiness in her new home, and whose good wishes will always follow her.

Mr. Ellis is a native of Nova Scotia and is First Officer on the steamship Cartago, one of the great white fleet sailing between New Orleans, Havana and Colon. He stands high in the confidence of his employer and being First Officer he is in line of promotion and will shortly be Captain of a handsome ship which is a position of importance and of great trust.

A "GOING-AWAY SHOWER."

Miss Ruth McLane left yesterday for Due West where she will enter Erskine College. Monday afternoon the Ladies Society of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church gave her a "going-away shower" which was in the way of showing their affection for her and as a recognition of her long and faithful service as organist of the church.

This pleasant affair was held at the home of Miss Lilly Clark. After the guests had all gathered Master John McMurray and Thurston Clark brought in a huge basket filled with many dainty gifts suitable for a young lady who is entering on her first year at college. The gifts were opened and inspected and enjoyed by all.

Punch was served on the porch by Mrs. McMurray and in the hall delightful sandwiches and tea was served.

Miss Ruth is a bright young lady and as a pupil of Erskine will reflect credit on the college.

ENTERTAINING MR. ELLIS.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nickles are entertaining Mr. Arthur Ellis, who is here from New Orleans and who will be married Thursday at high noon to Miss Sara Calvert. Mr. and Mrs. Nickles will entertain at a five course tea party tonight complimentary to Mr. Ellis. The guests will be Miss Sara Calvert, Mr. D. H. Hill, Mr. Albert Henry, Misses Ruth and Gertrude Calvert, Mr. John Calvert, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Ramey, Mrs. Ludie Cox, Mr. James Cox, Miss Bessie Epting, Mr. Moore Mars, Miss Bessie Lee Cheatham, Misses Louise and Benie Watson, Mr. Cecil Cromer, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Calvert. Mrs. Nickles always gives charming parties and this will also be complete in every detail.

SETTING THE STYLE.

The Haddon-Wilson Co., which is nothing if not up-to-date is going to do away with the usual opening this year. They claim that opening in the millinery departments are entirely out of date, and that they work the young ladies beyond endurance, that the wear and tear on the goods cannot be made up in the sales and that the women are so eager to get new hats that their handsomest hats are sold before the days of the opening.

Abbeville stores have always had such openings, but in the neighboring towns they have long since been abandoned. Mr. Wilson has the courage of his convictions, in that he is willing to give up the openings when the other stores will hold them.

LIBRARY NOTES.

Beginning Friday, September 17, the Abbeville Library will resume its afternoon hours.

Subscribers will bear in mind the days, Tuesday and Friday of each week from 4 to 6:30.

The Library is now so pleasantly located in the City Hall, as to render it accessible to all.

Through the kindness of the City Council the expenses have been much reduced, so that the subscriptions can be turned into the revolving matter which has been so long needed.

The committee from the Library will soon make the regular yearly canvass for renewals of subscriptions and will appreciate a prompt and hearty response.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

Miss Winona Barksdale gave her little friends a pleasant party last Friday night at her home on Main street. The young people gathered at eight o'clock and spent the time in playing rook, and conversation.

The house was prettily decorated in cut flowers. Punch was served in the hall by Mrs. Barksdale, and the refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Miss Glendale Bowen and Miss Eugenia Coleman.

The evening was a pleasant one and the gaieties of the occasion were added to by the young visitors, Mr.

John Covin, of Willington, and Mr. Arthur Kennerly of Greenwood.

THE PICTURES.

The women of Columbia are taking an interest in the moving pictures of the city and are urging the establishment of a competent censorship over these cheap and popular pleasure resorts. Such a move is in the right direction. It is possible to have a clean and delightful show every day at these places of amusement and only such shows as these should be attended.

Greenville has established a censorship of twelve ladies over all vaudeville shows which has been of benefit to the youth of the city. Abbeville lately has had a good line of pictures.

IN HONOR OF THE MISSES CLAY.

Misses Mary and Margaret Klugh entertained most pleasantly last week in honor of their visitors, Misses Carrie and Nelle Clay, of Savannah. There were four tables of Bridge. After the interesting games, sandwiches, tea and sherbert were served.

Miss Carrie Clay has a charming voice and she sang several selections for the guests, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Frank Thomson, who, in addition to being a handsome young lawyer, is an expert musician.

A RALLY DAY.

The meeting of the Civic Club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Greene will be in the nature of a "Rally Day" and an interesting program has been arranged by Miss Maggie Brooks, chairman of the committee. Mrs. Frank Wilson will contribute an excellent paper, Miss Gladys Wilson will recite, and Mrs. Elgin will sing a solo. A full meeting of the club is desired.

THE SUCCESSFUL CONTESTANT

Miss Lavinia Coleman was the successful contestant in the preliminary contest held for Queen of the Harvest Festival to be held in Columbia this Fall. She is to be congratulated on being voted the prettiest girl in the county and her friends hope she will be successful in the State election.

Best Paint

What is it? Devoe. How Devoe? It's 160 years old; but that isn't how.

It has long been the best; but that isn't how.

It has been developed by use and study, by study and use; that is how; and approved by experience, many years; that's how.

It commends itself by long lasting and small paint-cost; not cheap by the gallon, but cheap by the job and cheap by the year and ten years, cheap by the lifetime.

That's how.

DEVOE
