SESSIONS COURT

HAS ADJOURNED

that time Fields used profane language in his yard, threatening him, and started to follow him into his own home for the purpose of having a difficulty. He armed himself and finally Fields left the premises.

On the next day Thomas testified what he went for his mail and stopped in the field with J. R. Woodhurst, another tenant. While talking to Mr. Woodhurst, Fields came upon them armed with a double barrel shot gun, presented it at Thomas, who jumped behind Woodhurst. Fields called to Woodhurst to get out of the way what he expected to shoot and kept advancing. When he was near enough Woodhurst made a dash for him and seized the gun, telling Thomas to run, which he did. Fields was a much stronger man than Woodhurst and finally secured the gun and fired at Thomas three times as he ran away, when he himself turned and fled. As he turned to run, Thomas, who had been struck, turned upon him and fired six shots. Two of these took effect and one resulted in his death.

The jury charged with the trial of the case rendered a verdict finding Thomas guilty of manslaughter. The verdict is believed to have been based upon the idea that while Thomas was first attacked that he fired after the necessity to do so had failed. Taking into consideration the great amount of provocation, and the circumstances of the homicide, Judge Gary sentenced the defendant to a term of two years upon the County farm or in the Penitentiary. Notice of appeal was given by his Attorney, Wm. N. Graydon and Thomas was released on a cash bond of $1000.00.

Jno. L. Perrin, court Stenographer, was taken ill on Thursday evening and was unable to attend court Friday and Saturday. His place was taken by Miss Fannie B. Garrison, stenographer in the office of Wm. P. Greene. She took the testimony in a manner entirely satisfactory to the Court and attorneys.

PRESENTMENT OF #### THE GRAND JURY.

To the Honorable F. B. Gary, Presiding Judge at this fall term of court, Abbeville County, September 8, 1915.

We, the Grand Jury of Abbeville County, S. C. have passed on all bills and indictment presented to us by the Solicitor and have returned them to the court. We deplore as a body the unusual number of crimes in the county since our last court but we feel that all officers have done their duty and performed it to the best of their ability.

Various members of our body in committees have investigated the court house officers, their books, vouchers, and records, and have also visited the county farm, the jail the almshouse, and one of the county chain gangs.

The committee who visited the county farm and almshouse report that the farm is in good hands, the crops as good as could be expected, and the affairs of the almshouse managed in satisfactory manner.

The committee who visited the jail reported that the building and cells were in sanitary condition and suggestion made that the prisoners be not crowded more than one to bed, nor more than two the cell when the same can possibly be avoided. We recommend that the kitchen in jail yard be re-covered at once.

Our committee who visited the county gang of convicts reported that affairs there appear to be in good shape and the prisoners treated in satisfactory manner.

Upon complaint a committee composed of S. C. Killingsworth, J. B. Winn and J. P. Smith, all of Donalds, S. C., was appointed by motion to see that a certain steam boiler located in town of Donalds and property of estate of A. S. Drake, be inspected and if unsafe as reported condemned at once.

A resolution was also passed by our body recommending that the magistrate's office in Level Land district of Due West township be abolished, inasmuch as the magistrate now holding office there lives in town of Due West where there is another magistrate, and whereas we feel that one magistrate in this township will be sufficient.

We also recommend that the Supervisor of county roads either use or sell the traction engine bought for road work, and that he keep the same under shelter when not in use when practicable.

Upon report of our committee who investigated the court house officers and their books, in conjunction with an expert accountant sent here by the Comptroller General of South Carolina we offer the following recommendations.

(1) We recommend that the tax records of this county be kept by the Auditor with reference to each school district rather than with reference to each township as at present, inasmuch, as we feel that this would facilitate the public records.

(2) We find that certain claims have been paid by the Board of Supervisors which were not properly itemized and accompanied with the proper affidavits as required by statute, and we recommend that they be more careful in passing on claims and paying the same which are not according to statute.

(3) We recommend that the minutes of the Board of Supervisors be signed by a majority of the Board rather than by the Clerk as at present.

(4) We recommend that all approval claims be listed in the minutes of the Board of Supervisors.

(5) We find that the Supervisor has issued in the past certificates of credit for temporary use, and while all such certificates are now in and taken care of, we recommend that inasmuch as this appears to be in direct conflict with statutes on this matter, that he discontinue such practice.

In reference to the Treasurer's office we found everything in good shape and accurate except that some of the records do not appear to be in enough detail but we are glad to report that he has already secured new set of books upon recommendation from Comptroller General and expects to use them in the future.

The ex-magistrates' books we found to be correct in every instance except that of Mr. J. H. Sanders of McCormick township. From the presentment of the Grand Jury in fall of 1913 they reported that $26.40 had been collected by him and never reported to Treasurer and we understand from the Treasurer that this amount is still due by him. This matter has been reported several times by the Grand Jury and we recommend now that the matter be taken up at once by the Solicitor and disposed of in some manner. (Note-

Mr. Sanders is not magistrate at McCormick at present.)

We have no suggestions or criticism to offer in reference to the books of the Sheriff, Clerk of Court, Probate Judge and Supt. of Education inasmuch as we found their books in good shape.

There has been no complaints from any of the school districts of the county and satisfaction seems to be had in each case.

We wish to extend our appreciation to the Presiding Judge and Solicitor together with the court house officers for their courtesies extended us during this term of court.

Respectfully submitted,
W. D. MORRAH,
Foreman.

LILLIAN RUSSEL IN POWERFUL RACING DRAMA

The World Film offers the Beautiful Star, Lillian Russell, in a powerful Racing Drama, "Wildfire" at the Opera House, Friday, Sept. 17.

Five thousand feet of the airy fairy Lillian, the incomparable Queen of the Drama, the Venus, the Niobe, the Cleopatra of the stage; the shy, elusive, insouciant, star of 'em all—well, anyway, just Lillian in movies, There you have the clou, of the World Film Corporation's 5-part film drama, "Wildfire".

"Wildfire" is a movie thriller all about a racing man named Barrington, who was murdered out West. Deceased had two daughters, one named Henrietta, who knew nothing of pop's horsey tastes.

So when the murderer, under an assumed name, went East and armed with "papers" claimed the racing stable on Long Island, there was nobody to say him nay. However, the Western sheriff, Garrison, who had followed him, suspected him; so did Henrietta, otherwise Lillian Russell.

And this is what Miss Russell did. She got possession of those papers and when the murderer tried to have the favorite horse, "Wildfire", pulled so that he should not win, she, after many other heroic deeds, climbed to the very top of the flagstaff and held up the flag, which was the signal for "Wildfire's" jockey to win, defeat the murderer, unite Miss Russell to the man of her choice, and bring a magnificently exciting Lillian motion picture to a close.

The film-play is Miss Russell first, last and all the time. It is a splendid picture of her and will assuredly attract millions of movie fans to the motion picture theatres.

Opera House, Friday, Sept. 17, 10 and 15 cents.

TELLING THE TRUTH ABOUT SOUTHERN COTTON MILLS

The Manufacturers Record. Last Sunday's New York Herald carried an exceptionally interesting story about Greensboro, N. C., and its splendid cotton-mill development. Dozens of cotton mills in the South have done as the one place in the world which had solved the problem of the relations between capital and labor. The tribute paid by the Herald to the great work which the Cones have done at Greensboro in their cotton-mill operations and the betterment of labor conditions was well merited. Their work deserves all that the Herald said about it, and yet there are many other places in the South where similar work being done.

No industry in the world's history probably was ever so misrepresented and lied about as the cotton-mill business of the South. Dozens of cotton mills in the South are doing exactly the same work that is being done at Greensboro, and the Manufacturers Record would like to suggest to the Herald that it could not do a greater piece of constructive work for the good of the country at large as well as for the good of the South than to tell in full details the story of the many other mills throughout the South which are doing work similar to that of the Cones at Greensboro. It is true that not all cotton mills in the South have measured up to the situation, but it may be said that the cotton-mill industry of the South in proportion to the money invested and the people employed, has exended more money in educational work for its employes than any other industry in this or any other country. At Pelzer schools for employes were maintained by the mill long before Greensboro became a cotton-mill center. The Eagle & Phoenix Mill of Columbus, Ga., which antedates the Civil War, has for many years been doing similar work. Other mills at Greenville, Gainesville, Kanapolis and Dwight—and, indeed, there are too many other places to mention—have been carrying on broadly and comprehensively the educational and betterment work for their employes which called forth such unstinted praise from the Herald writer in dealing with the Greensboro situation.
